The United States Constitution

Article II, Section 1 of the U.S. Constitution imposes only three eligibility requirements on persons serving as president, based on the officeholder's age, time of residency in the U.S., and citizenship status:

What Is the Constitution?

"No person except a natural born Citizen, or a Citizen of the United States, at the time of the Adoption of this Constitution, shall be eligible to the Office of President; neither shall any person be eligible to that Office who shall not have attained to the Age of thirty-five Years, and been fourteen Years a Resident within the United States."

Vincent Cordova Announces 2028 Presidential Campaign

A Vision for Economic Fairness, Human Rights, and Shared Prosperity

Manteca, CA, October 31, 2024— Vincent Cordova, a champion for economic fairness, human rights, and sustainable growth, officially announced his candidacy for President of the United States in the 2028 election. With a proven commitment to empowering communities and challenging systemic inequities, Cordova's campaign seeks to restore trust in government and prioritize the well-being of every American.

Cordova's platform focuses on dismantling harmful corporate monopolies, implementing a nonprofit healthcare model, and advancing policies that ensure financial relief and opportunity for working families. His vision is rooted in shared prosperity and inclusivity, with policies designed to uplift individuals, protect human rights, and build a resilient economy.

Key Policy Highlights

- Economic Fairness: A focus on curbing the exploitative practices of private equity firms, ensuring Americans retain more of their hard-earned income, and expanding opportunities for small businesses to thrive.
- Healthcare Reform: Transitioning the healthcare system to a nonprofit model, eliminating copays, and implementing a shared-cost structure to reduce financial strain on individuals and businesses.

- Human Rights as a Priority: Promoting equality and protecting vulnerable communities through policy reforms and community-driven initiatives.
- Retirement Reform: Lowering the retirement age to 60, eliminating federal taxes for seniors aged 67 and older, and creating mentorship programs to foster intergenerational collaboration.
- Youth Empowerment: Expanding opportunities for younger workers with part-time employment options, parental approval programs, and career mentorships.

A People-First Campaign

Cordova's campaign is built on the principle of putting people first. Through transparent governance and public participation, Cordova plans to empower citizens to have a direct voice in shaping policies. His innovative vision includes leveraging technology to create a real-time voting system that fosters greater public engagement and accountability.

"Americans deserve a government that works for them—not for corporate interests. It's time to bring humanity back into policymaking and ensure everyone has the chance to thrive," said Cordova during his announcement speech. "My campaign is not about me; it's about us—our families, our communities, and our future."

Campaign Launch Events

The campaign will kick off with a series of town halls and community events across the nation, starting with TBD. These events will provide an opportunity for citizens to share their concerns, ideas, and hopes directly with Cordova.
