Vincent Cordova: A Bold Plan to Secure Social Security for Generations – Added to Our 2028 Presidential Platform

Manteca, CA -Vincent Cordova, a 2028 presidential candidate, is making Social Security reform a cornerstone of his campaign, focusing on actionable solutions to secure this vital program for 260.5 million adults in the United States. With 183 million workers actively contributing to Social Security, Cordova's vision is to ensure the system remains sustainable, reliable, and equitable for generations to come.

"For decades, Americans have been paying into a system with the promise that it will provide stability when they need it most," Cordova stated. "Yet, every year, we're faced with warnings of insolvency, cuts, and instability. Enough is enough—it's time for real solutions."

Cordova's Three-Pronged Approach to Fixing Social Security:

1. Leveraging America's Natural Resources: Cordova proposes redirecting royalties from the extraction of oil, gas, and minerals into the Social Security trust fund. "Our natural resources belong to all of us—it's time they start working for all of us," he emphasized.

2. Closing Tax Loopholes: His plan includes closing corporate tax loopholes and ensuring fair contributions from all sectors of the economy. “No more free passes for corporations while hardworking Americans shoulder the burden,” Cordova added.
3. Engaging All Adults in Solutions: With 260.5 million adults in the U.S., Cordova envisions innovative policies to expand opportunities for economic growth, emphasizing the collective power of the nation to secure a stronger future.

Cordova’s campaign stands out for its emphasis on actionable reform. “This isn’t about politics as usual,” he said. “It’s about delivering results. Social Security isn’t just a program—it’s a promise, and I will ensure we keep it.”

A Vision of Equity and Sustainability

Cordova’s plan goes beyond protecting Social Security—it reflects a commitment to fairness and shared prosperity. His approach ensures that future generations can count on this essential program without the fear of cuts or instability.
