The United States Constitution

Article II, Section 1 of the U.S. Constitution imposes only three eligibility requirements on persons serving as president, based on the officeholder's age, time of residency in the U.S., and citizenship status:

U.S. Constitution - Presidential Candidate Eligibility

"No person except a natural born Citizen, or a Citizen of the United States, at the time of the Adoption of this Constitution, shall be eligible to the Office of President; neither shall any person be eligible to that Office who shall not have attained to the Age of thirty-five Years, and been fourteen Years a Resident within the United States."

Vincent Cordova Proposes Creation of the Department for Youth Leadership and Innovation

In a groundbreaking move to secure the future of the United States, Vincent Cordova has made the Department for Youth Leadership and Innovation (DYLI) a cornerstone of his 2028 presidential campaign. This initiative aims to bring young Americans aged 18 and up into the heart of governance, ensuring their voices and ideas help shape policies that impact their future. "Today's youth are not just the leaders of tomorrow; they are the changemakers of today," said Vincent Cordova. "Their perspectives are invaluable, and it's time we formally recognize their role in shaping our nation. With DYLI, we're laying the foundation for a brighter, more inclusive future for all."

The proposed DYLI will:

- Integrate youth voices into policymaking through advisory councils.
- Provide mentorship and skills development opportunities.
- Fund and support youth-led initiatives tackling national challenges.
- Create innovation hubs for collaboration and community impact.
