The United States Constitution

Article II, Section 1 of the U.S. Constitution imposes only three eligibility requirements on persons serving as president, based on the officeholder's age, time of residency in the U.S., and citizenship status:

U.S. Constitution - Presidential Candidate Eligibility

"No person except a natural born Citizen, or a Citizen of the United States, at the time of the Adoption of this Constitution, shall be eligible to the Office of President; neither shall any person be eligible to that Office who shall not have attained to the Age of thirty-five Years, and been fourteen Years a Resident within the United States."

Vincent Cordova Sends Holiday Greetings and Shares Vision for 2028 Presidential Campaign

MANTECA, CA – As the holiday season unfolds, Vincent Cordova, 2028 Presidential Candidate, extends warm holiday wishes to all Americans and shares a message of hope and determination for the year ahead.

"This season reminds us of the importance of unity, compassion, and gratitude," said Cordova. "As we celebrate with family and friends, let us also reflect on the dreams we share for a brighter future. Together, we can achieve a nation where every individual has the opportunity to thrive."

Cordova's platform focuses on empowering small businesses, reforming healthcare, addressing systemic inequality, and protecting the environment. With the Small Business Support Program, his campaign aims to restore balance in the economy by supporting entrepreneurs and limiting corporate monopolies.
