

Company: Restoration Fuels

Position: Millwright, Journeyman

About the Position

The Millwright at our new plant in John Day, Oregon will be responsible for building and repairing machinery; maintaining and troubleshooting hydraulic systems; reading and understanding blueprints, and applying them in building construction; fabrication and machine installation; and calibrating and using test equipment. This position will perform some welding with gas and electric, and cutting with gas.

Minimum Requirements

At least 18 years old

High school diploma or GED

Four years experience with production millwrighting

Skilled at welding with gas and electric

Additional Details:

Benefits include access to health insurance, a 401k retirement plan, paid time off, and relocation assistance.

Salary range is $15 to $26 per hour, depending on experience.

The work week is typically a day shift with some off-shift support.

To Apply

Please send an email and resume to our Operations Manager, Joe Koerner, at joe@restorationfuels.com to begin the conversation.