

MLMP Conference 2025

Session 6: Randy Clark

Artwork: "Go!| Submissive Authority."

Time to go. Those who are ready are ready. They are steady. They have submissive hearts ready to speak Truth and cut off any lies the enemy has attached itself to the Lord's people. He's signed. Sealed. Delivered. Ready to impart His goodness and infiltrate His kindness for such a time as this!

Continued abiding to the vine will be necessary. Continue to have another drink.

This is the season to dwell in Him and all HIm to work through you.

"Abide in me and apart from me you can do nothing."

John 15:5 I am the vine; you are the branches. Whoever abides in me and I in him, he it is that bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing.

Sketch of what the Lord shared before the conference.

All are necessary and vital to tightening the nets and bringing in those who are ready to receive His word and Truth. Welcome to the Kingdom is what I hear.

There is no hierarchy, but a leveling out of each ministry.

All will be used.

Allow My people to be used in their fullness as It's Go Time~ is what I heard.

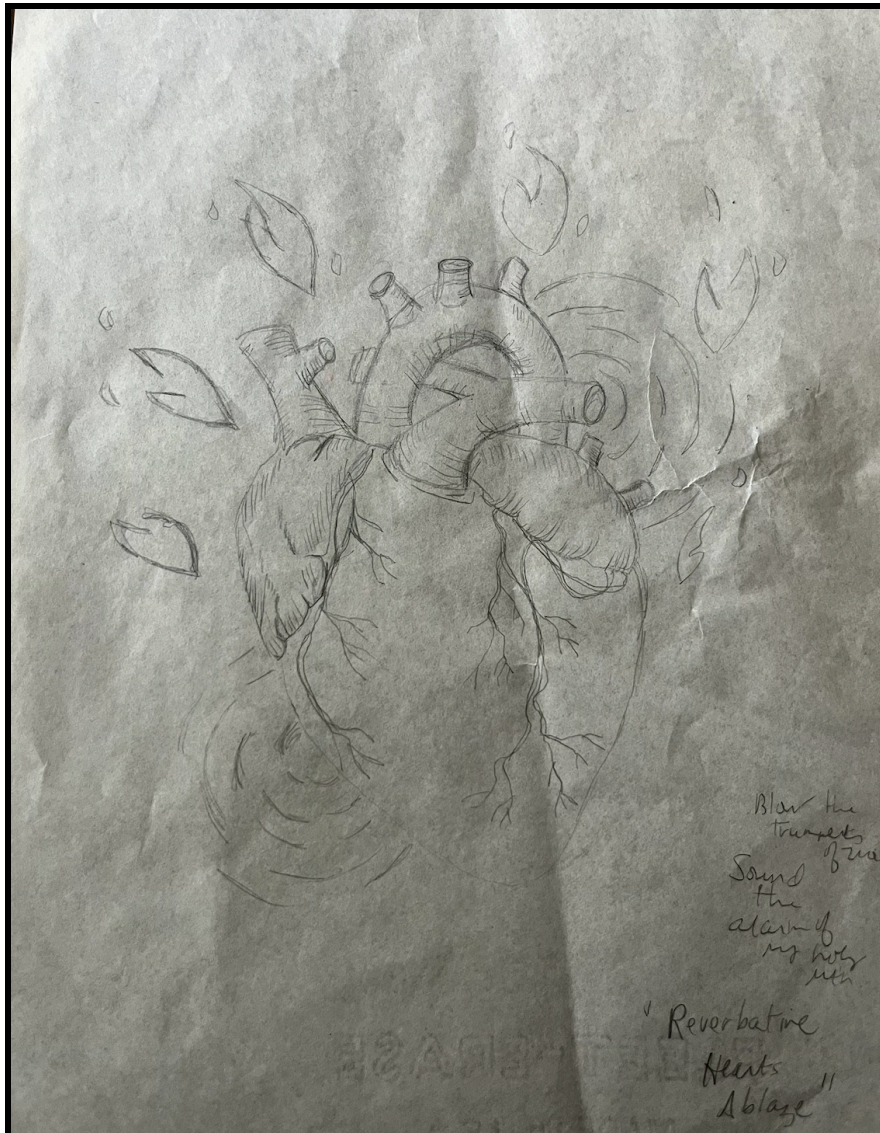

Session 4: Dianne Lemon

Artwork: “Expectant Hearts | Reverbative Hearts Ablaze” Artists: Jess Gray, Donna Kurylak, Page Fredericks, and Mamie Brown

The night before I was asked to create one more time for Session 4 in the morning. I had no other canvas and sat with Papa. Donna (another artist shared-if you want to use her extra canvas I could.) So as I went to bed, I felt like the Father showed a picture of hearts being rendered and we were having surgery done by Him. I asked Him if He wanted me to paint it. And felt like yes, but not just me- a collection. I sketched up the drawing and felt like the Lord said this is a collaborative piece to show what is to come of unification of the body.

Sketch the night before.

The ember flames are both symbolic of hearts. Hearts are being measured and worked on like open heart surgery. I again saw the five fold being all utilized in symbolic flames and little embers being lit in addition like multiplication. I saw growth coming out of the hearts and roots taking place like firm foundations.

Heard the verse: “Blow the Trumpets of Zion. Sound the alarm on my Holy Mountain.”
Looked up the scripture. This is indeed what I feel Papa is doing.

Joel 21-25 (Blow the ram’s horn trumpet in Zion! Trumpet the alarm on my holy mountain! Shake the country up! GOD’s Judgment’s on its way—the Day’s almost here! A black day! A Doomsday! Clouds with no silver lining! Like dawn light moving over the mountains, a huge army is coming. There’s never been anything like it and never will be again. Wildfire burns everything before this army and fire licks up everything in its wake. Before it arrives, the country is like the Garden of Eden. When it leaves, it is Death Valley. Nothing escapes unscathed. The locust army seems all horses— galloping horses, an army of horses. It sounds like thunder leaping on mountain ridges, Or like the roar of wildfire through grass and brush, Or like an invincible army shouting for blood, ready to fight, straining at the bit. At the sight of this army, the people panic, faces white with terror. The invaders charge. They climb barricades. Nothing stops them. Each soldier does what he’s told, so disciplined, so determined. They don’t get in each other’s way. Each one knows his job and does it. Undaunted and fearless, unswerving, unstoppable. They storm the city, swarm its defenses, Loot the houses, breaking down doors, smashing windows. They arrive like an earthquake, sweep through like a tornado. Sun and moon turn out their lights, stars black out. GOD himself bellows in thunder as he commands his forces. Look at the size of that army! And the strength of those who obey him! GOD’s Judgment Day—great and terrible. Who can possibly survive this? But there’s also this, it’s not too late— GOD’s personal Message!— “Come back to me and really mean it! Come fasting and weeping, sorry for your sins!” Change your life, not just your clothes. Come back to GOD, your God. And here’s why: God is kind and merciful. He takes a deep breath, puts up with a lot, This most patient God, extravagant in love, always ready to cancel catastrophe. Who knows? Maybe he’ll do it now, maybe he’ll turn around and show pity. Maybe, when all’s said and done, there’ll be blessings full and robust for your GOD! * * * Blow the ram’s horn trumpet in Zion! Declare a day of repentance, a holy fast day. Call a public meeting. Get everyone there. Consecrate the congregation. Make sure the elders come, but bring in the children, too, even the nursing babies, Even men and women on their honeymoon— interrupt them and get them there. Between Sanctuary entrance and altar, let the priests, GOD’s servants, weep tears of repentance. Let them intercede: “Have mercy, GOD, on your people! Don’t abandon your heritage to contempt. Don’t let the pagans take over and rule them and sneer, ‘And so where is this God of theirs?’” * * * At that, GOD went into action to get his land back. He took pity on his people. GOD answered and spoke to his people, “Look, listen—I’m sending a gift: Grain and wine and olive oil. The fast is over—eat your fill! I won't expose you any longer to contempt among the pagans. I'll head off the final enemy coming out of the north and dump them in a wasteland. Half of them will end up in the Dead Sea, the other half in the Mediterranean. There they'll rot, a stench to high heaven. The bigger the enemy, the stronger the stench!" Fear not, Earth! Be glad and celebrate! GOD has done great things. Fear not, wild animals! The fields and meadows are greening up. The trees are bearing fruit again: a bumper crop of fig trees and vines! Children of Zion, celebrate! Be glad in your GOD. He's giving you a teacher to train you how to live right— Teaching, like rain out of heaven, showers of words to refresh and nourish your soul, just as he used to do. And plenty of food for your body—silos full of grain, casks of wine and barrels of olive oil. * * * "I'll make up for the years of the locust, the great locust devastation— Locusts savage, locusts deadly, fierce locusts, locusts of doom, That great locust invasion I sent your way. You'll eat your fill of good food. You'll be full of praises to your GOD, The God who has set you back on your heels in wonder. Never again will my people be despised. You'll know without question that I'm in the thick of life with Israel, That I'm your GOD, yes, your GOD, the one and only real God. Never again will my people be despised.

The morning of as I was painting, I had an impression and felt a heatwave which I had to remove my shoes and socks. I felt like the Lord said, "We are in a Holy Place. Felt the Presence of the the Father falling deep as we sang the song: "I Surrender All" and gave reverence in Silence. His presence was like a thick blanket comforting and soothing wounds of the past.

I felt a deep saturation and saw fire embers being lit and a deep saturation of honey cleansing the land.

"A sweet release ushering in His Presence and Peace is what I felt Him say to me." I wrote it down.

"Peace like a River." Song came to my mind. Honestly can't remember if we sang it.

In the midst of this experience I felt Holy Spirit ask me to walk around the entire room and usher in His presence while we worshiped. At first I did not go, but after the third prompting I felt the Father impress and share: "What are you afraid of? " I shared with Donna as we were painting. She said, "It sounds like you need to be obedient and Trust what Papa is doing." So I walked around the congregation as we worshiped and felt this.

I (The Lord) am releasing and sealing what I am about to do for You. (I asked for me, Papa? He said yes for you Jess, and for everyone here with expectant hearts.)

My part of the painting is completed- I heard. I then gave it to Donna and Page to paint in Session 5- Donna painted the shoots of growth and Page the fire embers ablaze. Mamie added the little flower like vines around the heart growing in Session 6 as I was painting the Dove (Submissive Authority| Go! This was the final symbol of unification of the body and we were to give it to Sidibe for Mali as a sweet reminder for him to continue to bring forth more of God's work and surgery of the hearts.

Session3: Jay Pathak

Artwork: "Lion & Lamb | Fiercely Gentle"

He's releasing His Wild!

In the wild a lion roars just as it is about to pounce on its prey. He's Ready to Go! Symbolically and metaphorically, the roar of a lion or the crack of thunder shows the imminent intervention of God in human affairs.

1 Samuel 2:10

says that God will break the adversaries of the Lord to pieces. It also says that God will give strength to his king and exalt his anointed one.

Isaiah 29:6 says, "the LORD Almighty will come with thunder and earthquake and great noise, with windstorm and tempest and flames of a devouring fire."

Isaiah 31:4 says, "As a lion growls over its prey, and when a band of shepherds is called out against him, he is not terrified by their shouting or daunted at their noise, so the Lord of hosts will come down to fight on Mount Zion and on its hill".

Sketch of what I saw from the Lord. The Lord is strong and mighty and gently and kind with mercy.

Hosea 11:9-11 NIV

9

I will not carry out my fierce anger,
nor will I devastate Ephraim again.
For I am God, and not a man—
the Holy One among you.
I will not come against their cities.

10

They will follow the Lord;
he will roar like a lion.

When he roars,
his children will come trembling from the west.

11

They will come from Egypt,
trembling like sparrows,
from Assyria, fluttering like doves.
I will settle them in their homes,"
declares the Lord.

Revelation 16:18 NIV

18 Then there came flashes of lightning, rumblings, peals of thunder and a severe earthquake. No earthquake like it has ever occurred since mankind has been on earth, so tremendous was the quake.

What does the Bible say about the lion and the lamb?

The lion represents power and royalty, while the lamb represents vulnerability and sacrifice.

The lion symbolizes Jesus' power and authority to carry out God's plan of salvation

The lamb symbolizes Jesus' role as the ultimate sacrifice for sin

Revelation 5:5-6

5 Then one of the elders said to me, “Do not weep! See, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has triumphed. He is able to open the scroll and its seven seals.”

6 Then I saw a Lamb, looking as if it had been slain, standing at the center of the throne, encircled by the four living creatures and the elders. The Lamb had seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven spirits[a] of God sent out into all the earth.

Lamb's heart ❤️

Leaning into tender mercies

Speaking sharing the heart of the Father.

Be watchful. Be diligent. Be ready.

Session 2: Jay Pathak

Encouraging Words and Prophetic Art by Jess N. Gray.

Artwork: "Hosting Presence Pause"

Heard: During worship Wednesday nite.

"Welcome to the Deep End."

Hosting His Presence

He's looking for the invitation

Heard while painting: Giving Transformational Healing Layers hence the coloring.

He's working Multiple layers to Reveal His Truths.

His Power is made perfect in our weakness.

The lows are to help us depend and deepen our Dependency on His Power.

Holy Spirit is looking for us to invite Him in with childlike Awe and Wonder Obedience is Key.

Reminding me last night to be thankful. Reminding me that all this is mine and more because of my inheritance but remember where it comes from.

Hearts are being

He's looking for humble heart postures to carry His Presence for this "land filled with milk and honey."

He's inviting everyone to the table: all 5-fold and asking each of us to not to compare but

Be Open and GRACE Filled.

and Be willing like a CUP

Ready to receive

Sketch of Painting.

So You, Papa, can overflow.

No comparison as all are needed and necessary. These gifts are for sharing and not comparing. Allow the Holy Spirit to let you soak Him in. To permeate your heart and receive His Love to pour out.

Yes Holy Spirit we welcome you.

Your love and affection.

Your direction.

Your way.

Come.

Like little children filled with awe and wonder.

Filled with His goodness and measure.

HOLY SPIRIT, COME.

Come Teach us. [John 14:26] remind us of your word that is hidden in our hearts because we choose to spend time with you.

Show up. You are inviting us to show up. He is generous and kind. We are expectant hearts, Papa! [1 Corinthians 12:7] your word says you manifest [make clear, reveal or make something evident] yourself in many ways when we meet 2 or more gathered in your name. You also love an audience of one. Make yourself known.

Come Holy Spirit Come.

Come dwell in us [1 Corinthians 3:16-17] The Spirit dwells within individuals and in the church. Do you not know that you are God's temple and that God's Spirit dwells in you?

We are your temples

Holy Spirit covers us and Protect Us.

Seal us with your wings [Psalm 91] as we do your word and deed. You remind us nothing can steal what you have done for us and in us. I was reminded of [Ephesians 4:30] The Holy Spirit protects believers so that nothing can steal their salvation

Continue to prepare and transform our hearts

to receive you

[1 Corinthians 6:19-20] The Holy Spirit dwells within believers and transforms them into the temple of God. Five fold Ministry all are necessary for this season (the flames in the tail of the dove.) He's choosing his gifts to share get ready.

We love you Papa!

~ Your people.
