UNVEILING AMERICA'S CANNABIS ECOSYSTEM

THE THUNDER WALKER EXPERIENCE

www.TheThunderWalkerExperience.com

Ms. Thunder Walker is a prominent figure in the cannabis industry, serving as the host of The Thunder Walker Experience, a captivating and immersive platform that educates and advocates for cannabis programming throughout the United States. With her extensive expertise in real estate, cannabis, pediatrics and entrepreneurship, Thunder Walker has established herself as a respected authority and influential voice in the industry.

As a host, Thunder Walker travels across the country, attending major cannabis events and conducting insightful interviews inside her renowned Crystal Ball Dome. Her interviews feature industry professionals, patients, and individuals whose lives have been positively impacted by cannabis. Through these interviews, Thunder Walker aims to educate the public, raise awareness, and foster a deeper understanding of the benefits and potential of cannabis.

Beyond her role as a host, Thunder Walker is also an accomplished entrepreneur and business owner. She holds ownership of six cannabis licenses, allowing her to operate in various sectors of the cannabis industry. These licenses enable Thunder Walker to cultivate and produce cannabis, manufacture products, and operate retail establishments. Her diverse portfolio of licenses positions her as a key player in the industry, with the ability to contribute to the entire cannabis supply chain.

She has successfully produced several shows, including Weed Moms, which explores the experiences of mothers who use cannabis, and Funk Therapy, a unique fusion of cannabis and spiritual healing. These shows have further solidified Thunder Walker's reputation and expanded her reach within the cannabis community.

In addition to her media presence and business ventures, Thunder Walker has established strong relationships with sponsors, including Weedmaps, Wyld, and Oaksterdam University. These partnerships provide financial support, industry connections, and enhance the credibility of The Thunder Walker Experience.

Overall, Thunder Walker's passion for cannabis advocacy, coupled with her expertise in real estate and entrepreneurship, has positioned her as a highly influential figure in the cannabis industry. She continues to drive awareness, education, and positive change within the industry, while building a successful and comprehensive brand that encompasses media, entrepreneurship, and advocacy.

The Smoke Currency Tour, an extraordinary experience that spans across the United States to explore the history of cannabis and its path to legalization.

This tour aims to promote transparency and advocate for inclusivity and accessibility within America's Cannabis Ecosystem.
