Isaiah 28:16

“Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious corner stone, a sure foundation: he that believeth shall not make haste.”

“God never asks us to believe, without giving sufficient evidence upon which to base our faith. His existence, His character, the truthfulness of His Word, are all established by testimony that appeals to our reason; and this testimony is abundant. Yet God has never removed the possibility of doubt. Our faith must rest upon evidence, not demonstration. Those who wish to doubt will have opportunity, while those who really desire to know the truth will find plenty of evidence on which to rest their faith.”

Our loving Heavenly Father could easily reveal His glory for all to see that all men may see and believe, but that does not provide for the transformation of character for fallen man. We must exercise faith, we must live by it and not trust solely to our five senses to determine “what is truth”. The Bible illustrates the origin of man, the cataclysm of the flood, the destruction of Sodom and “the cities of the plain”, the miracles that accompanied Israel’s exodus and journey to the “promised land”, the revelation of the tables of the testimony as given to Moses while Sinai was “altogether on a smoke”, and those tablets finding their way into the ark of the testimony which “they secreted the ark in a cave, where it was to be hidden from the people”. Yet each one of these mighty events does have actual physical evidence, that we may establish the validity of the Bible. Thus, God has revealed Himself, in His inspired word, and in physical evidence that out faith may be established. In this way, the glory, the majesty, and the love of God are established that we may see His character and be changed into the same.

“Before the flood there were immense forests. The trees were many times larger than any trees which we now see. They were of great durability. They would know nothing of decay for hundreds of years. At the time of the flood these forests were torn up or broken down and buried in the earth. In some places large quantities of these immense trees were thrown together and covered with stones and earth by the commotions of the flood. They have since petrified and become coal, which accounts for the large coal beds which are now found. This coal has produced oil. God causes large quantities of coal and oil to ignite and burn. Rocks are intensely heated, limestone is burned, and iron ore melted. Water and fire under the surface of the earth meet. The action of water upon the limestone adds fury to the intense heat, and causes earthquakes, volcanoes and fiery issues. The action of fire and water upon the ledges of rocks and ore, causes loud explosions which sound like muffled thunder. These wonderful exhibitions will be more numerous and terrible just before the coming of Christ and the end of the world, as signs of its speedy destruction.”

During the 1970's-90's a Seventh Day Adventist amateur archeologist named Ron Wyatt began a journey of discovery, finding evidences of Noah's ark, the destruction of Sodom, the Red Sea crossing, Mount Sinai, and the location of the Ark of the Covenant. Since his passing in 1999, may other curious investigators have retraced the steps of the intrepid explorer. With video, photos and artifacts the inspired discoveries of Ron Wyatt are validated and presented for anyone interested to see for themselves. The inspired hand of Sister White has left many clues that we can follow for ourselves to see if these things are as they claim to be. Time and space prevent a deep dive in this publication, yet all the amazing discoveries of Mr. Wyatt are available for all to see. I encourage you to visit the website:

Kevin Fisher, friend, and colleague of Ron's, carries the torch for Christ by presenting and preserving the evidences of Ron's inspired journeys. He manages the website and also leads tours to the various sites. ■

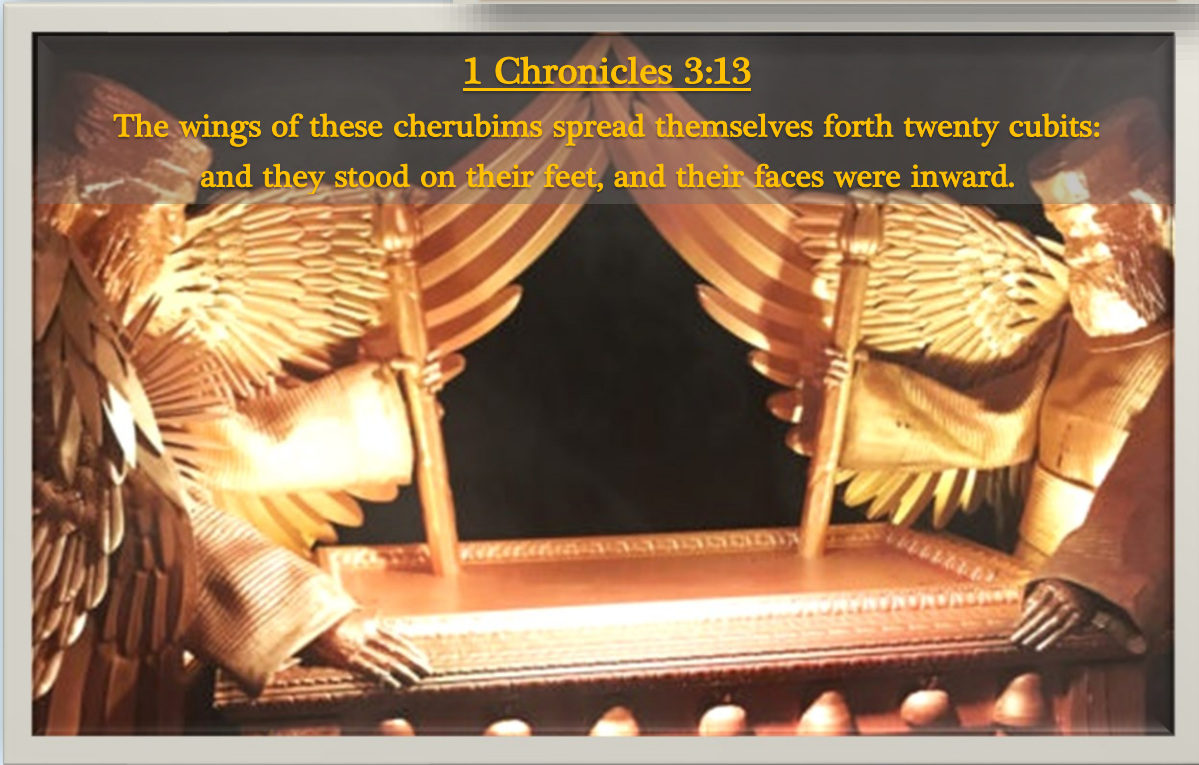

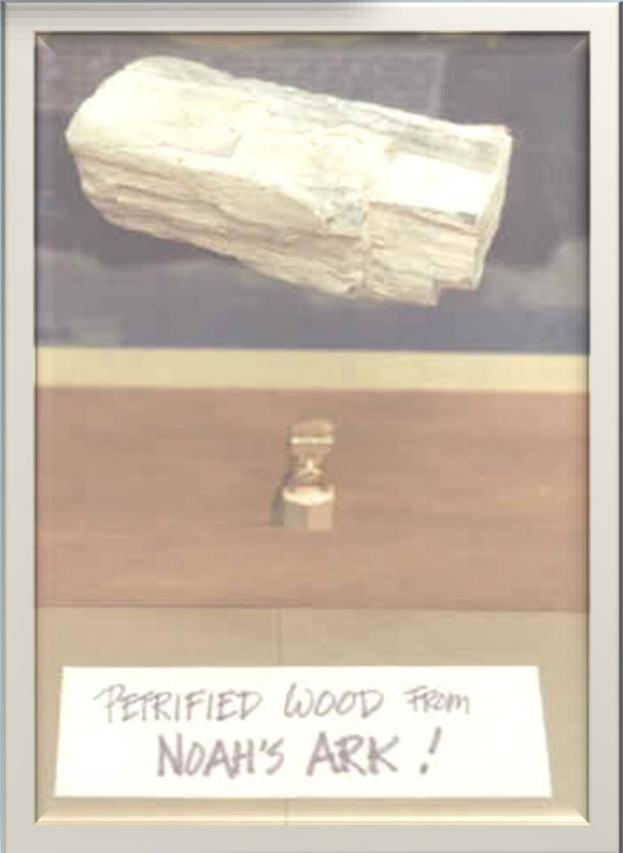

Jeremiah 29:12-14

“Then shall ye call upon me, and ye shall go and pray unto me, and I will hearken unto you. And ye shall seek me, and find me, when ye shall search for me with all your heart. And I will be found of you’ saith the LORD:”

Romans 1:20

“For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse”

“The trees were vastly larger, and far surpassing in beauty and perfect proportions anything mortals can now look upon. The wood of these trees was of fine grain and hard substance—in this respect more like stone. It required much more time and labor, even of that powerful race, to prepare the timber for building, than it requires in this degenerate age to prepare trees that are now growing upon the earth, even with the present weaker strength men now possess. These trees were of great durability, and would know nothing of decay for very many years.” {1SP 66.3} Ellen G. White

“Among the righteous still in Jerusalem, to whom had been made plain the divine purpose, were some who determined to place beyond the reach of ruthless hands the sacred ark containing the tables of stone on which had been traced the precepts of the Decalogue. This they did. With mourning and sadness they secreted the ark in a cave, where it was to be hidden from the people of Israel and Judah because of their sins, and was to be no more restored to them. That sacred ark is yet hidden. It has never been disturbed since it was secreted.” {PK 453.2} Ellen G. White
“Four heavenly angels always accompanied the ark of God in all its journeyings, to guard it from all danger, and to fulfill any mission required of them in connection with the ark.” {4aSG 104.3} Ellen G. White

A Note from the Editor

-Brian Nichols (Brian@TriedStoneMinistries.org)

Hello Friend!

There is no way to share the discoveries God led Ron Wyatt to find without a profound personal testimony. My journey back to faith is inextricably linked with the discovery of Noah’s ark. I was in an awkward place with God and with the world. I prayed that God would speak to me like in Bible times, to show me He is real. Just then a strong impression came to my mind. It said, “Look up Noah’s ark”. I typed Noah’s ark into the Google search bar and was rewarded with this picture:

I vaguely remembered this picture from childhood. But there it was, the photo proving the very existence of God. God had rewarded my request, years before I asked by sending Ron to find the evidence that made the Bible real to me. What a miraculous answer to my prayer! How many others have been led to these findings and led to a relationship with Jesus? May God continue to bless the work of this faithful servant! -Your brother in Christ, Brian Nichols
