

Test Automation Engineer – Automotive Infotainment

Job Type: Full Time - Permanent

Location: Greater Frankfurt Area

Start Date: January - 2021

Responsibilities:

- Develop strategies, test systems and frameworks for test automation with the help of modern tools and drive them forward
- Identify appropriate test methodology and technology for each test task and implement them successfully
- Maintenance and execution of automated tests
- Evaluation and analysis of the test results together with the development team
- Prepare Test Reports, create Error Tickets & Re-verification
- Participate in Review Meetings

Qualifications:

- University degree in Electrical/Electronic engineering, Computer Science or similar
- Minimum 2 years experience as Test Automation Engineer in Automotive Infotainment Systems (Must)
- Proficient in Python, C/C++ programming languages
- Hands-on experience with Squish GUI Testing Tools
- Familiar with Qt Widgets/QML Framework/Car Networks (CAN/Automotive Ethernet), Android Debug Interface
- Good communication skills