

Dr. James B. Martin
U.S. Army Command and General Staff College
100 Stimson Avenue
Fort Leavenworth, Kansas 66027
office: Lewis and Clark Center Room 2512
e-mail: james.b.martin1.civ@mail.mil

CIVILIAN EDUCATION

Doctor of Philosophy, The University of Texas at Austin, 1997
Specialty – American History

Post-Doctoral Studies, Kansas State University, 12 graduate hours in Adult Education (2004 – 2005)

Master of Arts, The University of Texas at Austin, 1986
Specialty – American History

Bachelor of Arts, University of Kentucky, 1975
Specialty – Political Science

MILITARY EDUCATION

Graduate of the Command & General Staff College, Ordnance Advanced Course, Infantry Advanced Course, and Infantry Basic Course.

ADMINISTRATIVE EXPERIENCE

Chief Academic Officer, Army University (July 2017-Present)

Serves as the Chief Academic Officer for Army University providing broad expertise in issues concerning PME and academic programs. Regularly attend updates with VPAA, VPLS, and other portions of Army University as necessary to maintain situational awareness of ongoing initiatives and academic planning. Provide advice and assistance in academic areas such as research, registrar functions, accreditation, and competency based education. Provide expertise in dealing with external stakeholders in the education world, to include representing the Provost as necessary. Provide academic advice and assistance to the Provost, Army University, as required.

Dean of Academics and Professor of History, U.S. Army Command and General Staff College (July 2016 to Present)

Serves as the Chief Academic Officer of the Staff College, one of the Army's two graduate colleges. As the senior academic official for CGSC, the Dean advises the Commandant, Deputy Commandant, and Assistant Deputy Commandant on academic matters, and represents CGSC on the CJCS's Military Education Coordination Council and Army

University's Army Learning Coordination Council. Establishes CGSC academic policies, plans, programs, and procedures. Sets management policy for curriculum development processes, manages faculty development, accreditation, quality assurance, graduate degree programs, registrar, and academic resource centers. Advises CGSC senior leadership on curricula content and delivery, responsible for CGSC academic program evaluation processes, coordinates curriculum integration with subordinate organizations and external support agencies. Monitors the planning, execution, and evaluation of all CGSC distance education and distributed learning programs. Serves as an advisor to the Provost, Army University on academic matters and curricula. Serves as a subject matter expert on adult education and educational administration for Army University, TRADOC, and the Army. Serves as a member of the Peer Review Corps for the Higher Learning Commission and a member of the Executive Committee on the J7 accreditation team for the Program for the Accreditation of Joint Education. Serves as a team chair for the Higher Learning Commission. Serves as a member of the Institutional Actions Council of the Higher Learning Commission. Serves as the TRADOC point of contact for the African Military Education Program. The Dean of Academics is a member of the senior management team at the College

Associate Dean of Academics and Quality Assurance, Professor of History, U.S. Army Command & General Staff College (October 2006 to Present)

Responsible to guide academic programs that prepare mid-level and senior military and civilian students for challenging operational assignments; establish academic policy and operations; lead and enhance curriculum design, faculty recruiting and development, accreditation efforts, academic research, academic assessment and academic outreach programs; provide vision for the academic programs; and effectively represent the Command & General Staff College within the Department of Defense and civilian academic circles. Serve as a subject matter expert on adult education and educational administration for CAC-E, TRADOC, and the Army. Serve as a member of the Peer Review Corps for the Higher Learning Commission and a member of the Executive Committee on the J7 accreditation team for the Program for the Accreditation of Joint Education. Serve as a team chair for the Higher Learning Commission. Serve as a member of the Institutional Actions Council of the Higher Learning Commission. Serve as the TRADOC point of contact for the African Military Education Program. The Associate Dean is a member of the senior management team at the College.

Associate Professor of Force Projection and Maneuver Sustainment, Directorate of Logistics and Resource Operations, U.S. Army Command & General Staff College (May 2005 to October 2006)

Served as a special advisor to the CGSC leadership in preparation for the 2006 Higher Learning Commission reaccreditation visit to include providing insights on requirements, review of the self-study, and creation and execution of a mock visit. Served as a Consultant/Evaluator for the Higher Learning Commission and attended regional training to maintain currency and qualification for accreditation visits.

Associate Vice President Academic Affairs, Professor of History, Friends University (September 2003 to May 2005)

Responsible for all operations (academic, recruitment, facilities, outreach, and financial) of the University in the Northeast Region, which encompassed Topeka and the Kansas City metropolitan area. Responsible for the establishment of local academic policies and execution of University-wide policies in the Northeast Region. Directly supervised a staff of 23 and a faculty of over 150 members, in support of a student body of approximately 600. Responsible for the hiring and development of all faculty members in the Northeast Region. Served as a member of the President's Cabinet, participating in the executive management and leadership of the University's traditional and non-traditional programs. Successfully improved academic quality and support in my area of responsibility in preparation for the Higher Learning Commission focused accreditation visit so well as to have the operation specifically singled out by the team as "exemplary." Orchestrated the creation of a new outreach program with Johnson County Community College in the area of accounting. Identified the University's new location in the Kansas City area and supervised construction of the new 16,000 square foot site. Served as a Consultant/Evaluator for the Higher Learning Commission, participating in accreditation visits to other NCA member universities. Performed as an education evaluator for the Kansas Award for Excellence, a Baldrige Award Criteria-based assessment program for business and education. Taught courses in American History and American Politics.

Associate Dean, Professor of History, College of Adult and Professional Studies, Friends University (February 2002 to August 2003)

Responsible for the academic operations of the University in the Northeast Region, which encompassed Topeka and the Kansas City metropolitan area. Responsible for the establishment of local academic policies and execution of University-wide policies in the Northeast Region. Directly supervised a staff of 20 and a faculty of over 100 members, in support of a student body of approximately 600. Responsible for the hiring and development of all faculty members in the Northeast Region. Responsible for the leadership of the College, the University's largest unit with over 2000 students and 300 full and part time faculty members, in the Dean's absence. Served as a member of the College's assessment committee and the University's accreditation committee. Instrumental in creating a faculty development program for the University, which resulted in the establishment of a full time faculty development office. In addition to operational responsibilities, charged with improvement of academic quality in the classroom and preparation of the northeast region for the upcoming visit of the Higher Learning Commission Accreditation Team. Performed as an education evaluator for the Kansas Award for Excellence, a Baldrige Award Criteria-based assessment program for business and education. Taught courses in modern terrorism and American History.

Director of Instruction and Technology and Professor of History, Baker University (August 1997 to February 2002)

Oversaw faculty selection, evaluation and development, curriculum design, review and revision for all Baker University School of Professional and Graduate Studies (SPGS) business administration and management undergraduate and graduate programs. Supervised a staff of approximately 250 full and part-time instructors and was responsible for the quality of instruction. Created a faculty development program for adjunct instructors that gave them background in writing, testing, and active learning theory. These tasks were successfully performed during a period in which the school grew from 1084 adult students to just less than 1900. Responsible for the continuing growth of instructional technology in SPGS classrooms. Served as the Vice-Chair of the SPGS Faculty Senate for over three years. Instrumental in the creation of new outreach programs in conjunction with the Command and General Staff College and the University of Science and Technology of China, Peoples' Republic of China. Served as the Associate Coordinator for the Baker University NCA Accreditation Self-Study, coordinating the input by the School of Professional and Graduate Studies to the overall University document. Served on the School of Professional and Graduate Studies' strategic planning committee, the organization tasked to provide long-range academic vision for the School and its educational programs. Authored and taught various undergraduate and graduate courses in American History and U.S. Government, including two courses on modern terrorism.

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Professor of History, Department of Military History, U.S. Army Command and General Staff College (2014-present)

Taught the Asymmetric Warfare elective for the Department of Military History and Spanish-American War classes to the Art of War Scholars.

Associate Professor of History, Department of Military History, U.S. Army Command and General Staff College (2007-2009)

Taught the Asymmetric Warfare elective for the Department of Military History to the August class starts.

Associate Graduate Faculty, Program Planning, Kansas State University (August 2007 – present)

Taught the Program Planning course as part of the graduate program in Adult and Continuing Education offered by the KSU School of Education at Ft. Leavenworth, Kansas. Appointed as an adjunct assistant professor and an associate member of the graduate faculty at KSU.

Associate Professor of Force Projection and Maneuver Sustainment, Directorate of Logistics and Resource Operations, U.S. Army Command & General Staff College (May 2005 to October 2006)

Responsible for professional instructional duties in the development, revision, evaluation, and presentation of subjects in fundamentals of strategic, operational and tactical logistics; resource planning and force management; military leadership concepts and application; and critical reasoning principles and creative thinking techniques. Served as a chair and committee member on these committees for military students pursuing the Master of Military Arts and Sciences through the Command & General Staff School and the School of Advanced Military Studies. During the academic year this included working with five MMAS students and two SAMS students. Served as an SGA or ASGA as required. Performed tasks as necessary as adjunct faculty with the Faculty Development Office of CGSC. Represented DLRO on the Graduate Council and the Research Committee.

Professor of History, Friends University (February 2002 to May 2005)

Authored and taught undergraduate and graduate courses in American History and Politics, including courses on modern terrorism.

Professor of History, Baker University (August 1997 to February 2002)

Authored and taught various undergraduate and graduate courses in American History and U.S. Government, including two courses on modern terrorism.

Consulting Faculty, MMAS Program, U.S. Army Command & General Staff College (1997 – 2005)

Performed duties as consulting faculty on various Master of Military Arts & Science committees, providing doctoral-level input and expertise to CGSC faculty and students as necessary.

Adjunct Instructor, Kansas City Kansas Community College (August 1994 to December 1996)

Taught courses in American History at the undergraduate level.

Chief, Instruction Team One and Assistant Professor, Military History, Combat Studies Institute, U.S. Army Command & General Staff College (June 1996 to August 1997)

Instructor in Military History—authored and taught courses in Military History at the graduate level. Supervised a staff of seven, including four civilian Ph.D.s. As the Chief of Team One, was responsible for the rewrite of the history portion of the non-resident studies curriculum. Served as a member of the curriculum working group for the College, designing a new curriculum which was put in place in August 1998.

Instructor/Assistant Professor, Department of Logistics and Resource Operations, U.S. Army Command & General Staff College (1992-1995)

Instructed mid-career officers in logistics operations at the brigade, division, and corps levels. Performed as the mentor for the corps-level planning cell in the end of program warfighting simulation. Served as faculty on multiple graduate theses committees.

Instructor/Assistant Professor, Department of History, United States Military Academy (1986-1989)

Designed curriculum and taught courses at the undergraduate level in American and Military History, with an emphasis on 19th Century American History. Performed as a faculty advisor for approximately 30 cadets, assisting them in completing the required course work and electives for graduation. Special research emphasis was on the American Civil War and irregular warfare.

PROFESSIONAL MILITARY EXPERIENCE

Deputy Commander, 501st Corps Support Group, Republic of Korea (1995-1996)

Deputy Commander of the only forward-deployed CSG in the Republic of Korea, responsible to support non-divisional units in the 2d Infantry Division area.

Operations Officer, Support Squadron, 2d Armored Cavalry Regiment (1991-1992)

Served as the Operations Officer (S3) for the Support Squadron of one of the Army's three cavalry regiments. Supported the cavalry squadrons during field exercises at Grafenwehr and Hohenfels and then worked on the transfer of the regiment to the United States from the Federal Republic of Germany.

Executive Officer, 800th Materiel Management Center, VII Corps (1990-1991)

Served as the Executive Officer of the 800th MMC, the materiel management center that supported the US VII Corps during Operations Desert Shield and Storm. During this time was assigned by the 2d COSCOM Commander to serve as one of six members of the corps planning staff in creating the logistics plan to support the VII Corps ground attack plan. Assisted in creating the logistics plan and briefed it throughout the SWA Theater, including during the warfighting exercise prior to combat at King Khalid Military City. After finishing this special assignment with the planning staff, selected to deploy into Iraq with the forward headquarters of the COSCOM and execute the plan in support of VII Corps ground forces as the Support Operations Officer of Task Force Jobber at the forward headquarters at Log Base Nelligen.

Director, Tank-Automotive and Armaments Division, 800th Materiel Management Center (1989-1990)

Supervised the spare parts, repair function, and automation in support of non-divisional units in the VII Corps area in the Federal Republic of Germany.

Readiness Project Officer/Executive Officer, US Army Armament, Munitions and Chemicals Command, Rock Island Arsenal, IL (1982-1984)

Worked on the Bradley Fighting Vehicle, Light Armored Vehicle, and M1 Abrams Tank programs in the area of turret test equipment. Worked with the program managers at the Tank and Automotive Command to integrate turret systems with the chassis systems. Served as Executive Officer to the Deputy Commanding General of AMCCOM.

PUBLICATIONS

Books and Monographs:

Martin, J.B., Editor. African American War Heroes, Santa Barbara, CA: ABC-CLIO, 2014.

Martin, J.B. The Third War: Irregular Warfare on the Western Border, 1861 – 1865, Ft. Leavenworth, KS: Combat Studies Institute, 2012.

Martin, J.B. (1995) Senior Editor, Logistics: Desert Storm and Into the 21st Century. Directorate of Logistics and Resource Operations, Ft. Leavenworth, KS: U.S. Army Command & General Staff College.

Martin, J.B. Contributing Author. America's Heroes: Medal of Honor Recipients from the Civil War to Afghanistan. James H. Willbanks, Editor. ABC-CLIO, 2011.

Martin, J.B. Contributing Author, Historical Dictionary of the U.S. Army, Jerold E. Brown, Editor. Westport, CN: Greenwood Press, 2001.

Martin, J.B. Contributing Author, The Kentucky Encyclopedia, John E. Kleber, Editor. Lexington, KY: The University of Kentucky Press, 1992.

Martin, J.B. (1986) "Have Them Shot at Once"...Guerrilla Warfare in Kentucky, 1863 – 1865, unpublished masters thesis, The University of Texas at Austin.

Articles, Chapters, Electronic Media, and Other:

Martin, J.B. (2018) VII Corps Logistics in Desert Storm. In K. Beurskens (Ed.) Historical Case Studies of Sustainment in Large-Scale Combat Operations. Ft. Leavenworth, KS: Army University Press.

Collins, R.A., Welch, R., Martin J.B. (2018) Assessment and Evaluation Practices in Army Military Education. In L. Hill (Ed.) Assessment, Evaluation, and Accountability in Adult Education. Sterling, VA: Stylus Publishing.

Kem, J.S., LeBoeuf, E.J, and Martin J.B. (2016) "Answering the Hottest Question in Army Education: What is Army University?" in the Journal of Continuing Higher Education, Volume 65, Number 1.

Davis, G.B. and Martin, J.B. "CGSC: Developing Leaders to Adapt and Dominate for the Army of Today and Tomorrow" in Military Review, September-October 2012.

Martin, J.B. (2010). Principles of Student Assessment in Adult Education. In V. Wang (Ed.) Encyclopedia of Information Communication Technologies and Adult Education Integration. Hershey, PA: IGI Global.

Martin, J.B., & Collins, R.A. (2010). Evaluating Teaching in Adult Education. In V. Wang (Ed.) Encyclopedia of Information Communication Technologies and Adult Education Integration. Hershey, PA: IGI Global.

Collins, R.A. & Martin, J.B. (2010). Integrating Adult Learning and Technology for Effective Education: Strategic Approaches. In V. Wang (Ed.) Integrating Adult Learning and Technologies for Effective Education: Strategic Approaches. Hershey, PA: Information Science Reference.

Martin, J.B., & Collins, R.A. (2009). Formative and Summative Evaluation in the Assessment of Adult Learning. In Wang, Victor C.X. (Ed.) Assessing and Evaluating Adult Learning in Career and Technical Education. Hershey, PA.: IGI Global.

Martin, J.B. "2nd COSCOM staff ride teaches history" in Ordnance, May 1990.

Martin, J.B. "Black Flag Over the Bluegrass: Guerrilla Warfare in Kentucky, 1863-1865" in The Register of the Kentucky Historical Society. Autumn 1988, Volume 86, No. 4.

Martin, J.B. "The Irresistible Force and the Immovable Object: Theodore Roosevelt and Lt. Gen. Nelson A. Miles" in The Theodore Roosevelt Association Journal, Spring 1987, Volume XIII, No. 2.

Works in Progress:

Collins, R.A. and Martin, J.B. Adult Education and the Army. (ongoing project)

Book Reviews:

Martin, J.B. Review of Called to Serve: A Handbook on Student Veterans and Higher Education. By Florence A. Hamrick, Corey B. Rumann and Associates. (Hoboken, NJ: Wiley, 2015) in the Journal of Continuing Higher Education, Volume 64, Number 1.

Martin, J.B. Review of Five Dimensions of Quality: A Common Sense Guide to Accreditation and Accountability. By Linda Suskie. (Hoboken, NJ: Wiley, 2014) in the Journal of Continuing Higher Education, Volume 63, Number 2.

Martin, J.B. Review of The Birth of Colorado: A Civil War Perspective. By Duane A. Smith. (Norman: University of Oklahoma Press, 1989) in Western Historical Quarterly, August 1990.

Martin, J.B. Review of The Old Army: A Portrait of the American Army in Peacetime, 1784-1898. By Edward M. Coffman. (New York: Oxford University Press, 1986.) in Southwestern Historical Quarterly, June 1988.

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

Service on Conference Panels:

Served as a panel member for a session on “Regional Accreditation of Accelerated Education Programs”, Annual Conference of the Commission for Accelerated Programs (CAP), Metro State College, Denver, CO, August 2010.

Served as panel member for a session on “Using Social Media Internally to Source, Develop & Engage Employees” for Learning 2009, Orlando, November 2009.

Served as a panel member/commentator for the TRADOC/CSI Military History Conference "Armed Diplomacy", Ft. Leavenworth, August 2003.

Academic Reviewer Experience:

Editorial Board Member, Journal of Military Learning, Army Press, since 2017.

Editorial Board Member, Simons Center for the Study of Interagency Cooperation since 2016

Chapter Reviewer (2010). For V. Wang (Ed.) Definitive Readings in the History, Philosophy, Practice and Theories of Career and Technical Education. Hershey, PA.: IGI Global.

Interviews:

Part of a group interviewed by the cast of the Civil War movie, “Ride with the Devil”. The panel of historians was invited to provide the cast with a realistic assessment of life in the Kansas/Missouri area during the American Civil War and the culture of Confederate guerrillas.

Invited Lectures:

“U.S. Army Officer and NCO Professional Military Education Continuums”, presented at the United Arab Emirates Land Forces Professional Military Education Symposium, Abu Dhabi, UAE, July 31- August 2, 2018.

“Self-Development in the U.S. Army Professional Military Education”, presented at the United Arab Emirates Land Forces Professional Military Education Symposium, Abu Dhabi, UAE, July 31 – August 2, 2018.

“Federal Regulation of Higher Education”, presented at the Thirteenth National Conference for Accelerated Programs in Higher Education, Denver, CO, July 22, 2014.

Keynote Speaker, “Full Spectrum Learning”, presented at the Learning Organization Academy (LOA), Wellesley College Club, Wellesley, MA, July 11, 2012.

“The Army Learning Continuum”, presented at the Army Learning Summit, Ft. Eustis, VA., May 3, 2012.

“The Army Learning Concept: Fertile Ground for Academic Collaboration”, presented at the Annual Conference of the Higher Learning Commission, Chicago, IL. April 3, 2012.

“The Department of Education Program Integrity Rules: How will they affect accelerated education?” presented at Stevenson University, Stevenson, MD, October 27, 2011.

“The Federal Definition of a Credit Hour and What it Means to your Institution”, presented at the Annual Conference of the Association for Continuing Higher Education, Orlando, FL., October 13, 2011.

“The Rules are Changing Constantly: How will accelerated programs fare?” presented at the Tenth National Conference for Accelerated Programs in Higher Education, Denver, CO, August 6, 2011

“What is Happening with Our Regional Accreditation?” presented at the Tenth National Conference for Accelerated Programs in Higher Education, Denver, CO, August 5, 2011

“Accelerated Programs 101”, presented at the Tenth National Conference for Accelerated Programs in Higher Education, Denver, CO, August 4, 2011

“ALC 2015: The Way Ahead”, presented at the Army Learning Summit 2011, Newport News, VA., May 2011.

“Adult Accelerated Education 101”, presented at the Annual Conference of the Commission for Accelerated Programs (CAP), Metro State College, Denver, CO, August 2010.

“Using Web 2.0 Tools in Adult Education”, presented at the Summer Workshop of the Commission on Accelerated Programs (CAP), Metro State College, Denver, CO, July 2009.

“Prototyping: Essential Element to Classroom Design”, presented at the Summer Institute on Distance Learning and Instructional Technology (SIDLIT) at Johnson County Community College, Overland Park, KS, July 2008.

“Building a Faculty Development Program”, presented at the 2002 annual convention of the Association for Continuing Higher Education, Birmingham, AL, October 2002.

“Faculty Development for Adjunct Faculty”, presented at the 2000 annual convention of the Consortium for the Advancement of Adult Higher Education in Phoenix, AZ, June 2000.

“Using the Faculty Portfolio for Teaching Improvement and Development” presented at the 1999 annual convention of the Consortium for the Advancement of Adult Higher Education in St. Louis, MO, June 1999, and at the Baker University Faculty Meeting, October 1999.

“The Use of Study Groups to Improve Student Performance” presented to the faculty of Fontbonne College, St. Louis, MO, November 1998.

“Writing the Baker Way” presented at the Baker University Faculty Meeting, September 1998.

“Civil War Generalship”, a paper presented at The Civil War in Book and Film, Monmouth County Library, NJ, April 1988.

“The Generalship of Braxton Bragg”, a paper presented to the Virginia Country Civil War Society, March 1988.

“Black Flag Over the Bluegrass: Guerrilla Warfare in Kentucky”, a paper presented to the Civil War Roundtable of New York, the Civil War Roundtable of New Jersey, and the Westchester Civil War Roundtable, March-April 1987.

ORGANIZATIONS AND SOCIETIES

Member of the Program for the Accreditation of Joint Education accreditation corps and Executive Committee Member of the Peer Review Corps of the Higher Learning Commission, North Central Association and the Institutional Actions Council.

Examiner for the Kansas Award for Excellence Program. (KAE)

Member of the Association for Continuing Higher Education (ACHE)

Member of Phi Kappa Phi

AWARDS, DECORATIONS, AND HONORS

Civilian:

AUSA Region 5, Department of the Army Civilian of the Year for 2015

CGSC Gold Pen Award (2014) for African American War Heroes, Santa Barbara, CA: ABC-CLIO, 2014.

CGSC Silver Pen Award (2009) for “Formative and Summative Evaluation in the Assessment of Adult Learning”.

Commander’s Award for Civilian Service (2006)

Elected to membership in Phi Kappa Phi

Military Awards and Decorations:

Legion of Merit

Bronze Star

Meritorious Service Medal (4)

Army Commendation Medal (3)

Army Achievement Medal (3)

National Defense Service Medal

Southwest Asia Service Medal

Kuwait Liberation Medal

Army Service Ribbon

Overseas Service Ribbon

