

Tribune photo by Bob Redding

Tuna men's memorial lowered into place

A bronze statue memorializing the local tuna-fishing industry was installed this morning on Shelter Island. The $200,000 memorial, which was entirely funded by the local fishing community, will be dedicated during a ceremony at 2 p.m. Sunday.