NAPA VALLEY COLLEGE

A Sculpture for the Fountain

With your support, the first major work of art at Napa Valley College will soon become a reality. Funds are needed to match a $10,000 challenge grant made by Peter Bedford that will help pay for a sculpture by local artist, Franco Vianello.

The bronze sculpture will grace the fountain at the main entrance to the college, which is the focal point of the campus. Two-thirds size, it will depict a mother grizzly bear teaching her three cubs to fish. Water will gently flow over rocks, creating a tranquil setting to be enjoyed by students and members of the community.

An Investment in Art

Fine works of art are expensive, especially bronze sculpture. Napa Valley College has the opportunity to bring a major work of art to the campus for the enjoyment of the entire Napa Valley community.

The total value of the work is over $50,000. Thanks to the generous support of artist Franco Vianello and businessman Peter Bedford, we are well on our way to reaching our financial goal. Your investment will help get us there!
