(Plaintiff)

vs

Case No. : 25004571CF10A

Judge: George Odom, Jr.

ELIJAH SHANE CODNER

---

(Defendant)

Dismissal of Court Appointed Attorneys

Comes Now, ELIJAH SHANE CODNER the Defendant, by and through Jah Rastafari Malchizedek an Interested Person and C.E.O. for said Defendant, with this Dismissal of Court Appointed Attorney in order to (1) make Our special appearances (2) properly prepare defense and (3) be heard on the Demand to Prove Jurisdiction which is pending before this Court.

For the record the Defendant states that he never consented in any way, shape or form with the Office of the Public Defender to be represented by them, nor did he ever stated or declared to the Court that he was indigent as it's reason to appoint him any attorney to represent his person in any manner.

Furthermore, the Defendant chooses to exercise his constitutional right(s) to properly present his own Person and/or have effective assistance of counsel to represented him in a court of law, to defend against the State's false charges in the above cases.

Let the Court now dismiss the appointed attorneys and/or order them to "Stand By" the Defendant if he requests their assistance in the matter, as the constitution permits him to have both options.

Respectfully,

Jah Rastafari Malchizedek
