

Chicago native Cynthia Levin was taking improv classes at Players Workshop of The Second City at age 15. She continued studying acting and after a move to Los Angeles, she found her voice as a stand-up comic. By combining her vulnerability and sardonic wit with life experience, she has become one of the industry's leading voices for fresh, unexpected comedic storytelling. Her stand-up career which now spans 30 years started when she soon became a regular at L.A. clubs, The Comedy Store and the Improv and later at NYC clubs, including The Comic Strip Live and Stand Up NY.

Levin's stand-up has taken her around the globe, including performances in Latin America, Canada, Asia, and Europe. Some TV credits as a comic include: ABC's, "Comics Unleashed" with Byron Allen, Comedy Central's, "Tough Crowd" with Colin Quinn, and B.E.T.'s, Comic View.

As an actress, she has appeared in many films as well as both scripted and unscripted TV series. She has been seen on FX Network's "Legion", the TV pilot, "The Mortician's Daughter". In 2024, she starred in Anton Goes to Heaven? at The Theater for the New City in NYC to great reviews. Cynthia has written and performed in 14 one-woman shows for venues and festivals across North America and the U.K. She has written a TV pilot, "Unprepared for Life", a series in partial animation based on her life. She also starred in a film that she created, co-wrote, The Relentless Patience of Priscilla Cranberry which has been accepted into many film festivals and recently won The Most Outrageous Award! You can catch Cynthia performing in Chicago, New York, Los Angeles and all cities in between! If you reach out, she'd be happy to swing by and perform in your city too!
