Women and Their Children ang isang malawakang motorcade na umikot sa pangunahing kalsada upang opisyal na buksan ang kampanya. Makikita sa iba’t ibang lugar sa lungsod ang mga streamer na may dalang mensaheng “United for a VAW free community” habang Information Education and Communication materials naman ang ipinamigay sa mga residente upang higit pang maipalaganap ang kaalaman tungkol sa karapatan ng kababaihan at mga serbisyong makaaagapay sa kanila.

Nagdaos din ang City Social Welfare and Development Office ng seminar na tinalakay ang mahahalagang batas na nagpoprotekta sa kababaihan at kabataan tulad ng Republic Act 9262 o Anti Violence Against Women and Their Children Act of 2004 at Republic Act 11930 na tumutugon sa Online Sexual Abuse o Exploitation of Children at Child Sexual Abuse or Exploitation Materials.

Binigyang diin ng mga tagapagsalita ang bigat ng mga paglabag na ito at ang patuloy na hakbang ng pamahalaan upang maiwasan ang anumang uri ng pang aabuso at matulungan ang mga nakaligtas dito.

Ayon sa lokal na pamahalaan, ang kampanya ay patunay ng pangmatagalang pangako ng Tagaytay sa pagtataguyod ng isang ligtas, magalang, at gender responsive na komunidad.

“Kasama ang mga barangay at katuwang na tanggapan, naninindigan kami sa pagsusulong ng respeto, proteksyon, at pagpapalakas ng kababaihan,” ayon sa pamahalaang lungsod na muling nanawagan sa publiko na maging m a p a g m a t y a g , magsumbong sa anumang kaso ng pang aabuso, at tumulong sa mga biktima at survivor.

mga pananaw o kulay sa politika. Para sa kanya, hindi lamang ito simpleng awit kundi isang panawagan na sama samang harapin ang mga hamon ng bansa.

“Hindi siguro nagkataon. Siguro destined. Anything that is happening, there is always a purpose,” pahayag ni Papin habang binibigyang diin na maraming kinakaharap na suliranin ang bansa, ngunit nananatili siyang nananalig sa kakayahan ng mga Pilipino na magkaisa.

Dagdag pa niya,

“Ang importante lamang nagsama sama tayo, kagaya ng lyrics ng awitin kong Pilipino Tayo.”

Kasama sa paglulunsad ang kompositor ng kanta na si Mon del Rosario, na nagsabing tila naging mas makahulugan ang awit dahil sa kasalukuyang usaping pambansa, kabilang na ang mga isyu ng katiwalian.

“Actually, even before pa nangyari ito... bago pa pumutok ang lahat ng mga nangyayari sa pulitika, pinag usapan na namin itong project,” pagbabahagi ni Del Rosario, na iginiit na matagal nang naisip ang proyekto bago pa man sumiklab ang mga kontrobersiya.

Upang maiparating ang mensahe sa mas maraming Pilipino, inanunsyo ni Papin ang isang nationwide Pilipino Tayo caravan. Gagamitin umano nila ang radyo, telebisyon, social media at personal na pakikipag ugnayan upang maabot ang iba t ibang komunidad sa bansa.

“Walang kulay po tayo ngayon. Magkaisa na tayo.

I think this is better for all of us para maka move forward na tayo faster than ever,” ani Papin, na umaasang makatutulong ang awit upang maibsan ang pagkakahati hati ng sambayanan.

Inanyayahan din niya ang publiko sa kanyang nalalapit na golden anniversary sa Mayo 2026 bilang pasasalamat sa patuloy na suporta sa kanyang musika at adbokasiya.

Ayon kay Papin, mananatili niyang layunin ang pagbigay inspirasyon at pagangat sa diwa ng bawat Pilipino. (With reference to the story by Mon Rodelas) festivities can lead to implications, especially to the heart.

Dr. Maria Encarnita Limpin of the Philippine Heart Center dubbed the sensation of erratic heartbeat as ‘holiday heart syndrome’, which can be experienced even by individuals without a history of heart problems.

“This can happen when you drink more alcohol than the normal limit.”

Limpin cited social drinking, which is a common Filipino custom during holidays and celebrations, as a primary cause of holiday heart syndrome.

“We are expecting that the holiday heart syndrome will be seen this season. The fact that a lot of Filipinos drink alcohol means that cardiac specialty centers in the country can have problems.”

With the drinking age getting younger, Limpin warned that the “holiday heart syndrome” can be experienced by individuals of any age, especially those opting for hard liquor.

Despite it being a new finding, the holiday heart syndrome is the onset of irregularities in heart rhythm in patients without a history of heart ailments. It is associated with alcohol consumption and binge drinking.

Among the early symptoms of the holiday heart syndrome are rapid and irregular heart rate, pulsing sensations in the neck.

“Of course, there are other, more frightening arrhythmias, going as high as 160 (bpm) or more.”

Without emergency treatment, the ‘holiday heart syndrome’ can lead to chest pain, even cardiac arrest.

In 2024, the Philippine Statistics Authority (PSA) reported cardiovascular diseases, including ischaemic heart diseases, neoplasms, and cerebrovascular diseases, were among the common causes of death in the country. (PB-PIA4A)

ICI CLEARS CHIZ FOR LACK OF EVIDENCE

The Independent Commission for Infrastructure (ICI) has cleared Senator Francis “Chiz” Escudero and former Senators Grace Poe and Nancy Binay of any liability in connection with the flood control mess after it found no sufficient evidence to warrant the filing of case. The ICI the other day has recommended the filing of charges against several individuals, including incumbent and former government officials, to the Office of the Ombudsman for their role in the multi-billion-peso non-existent and sub-standard infrastructure projects, mostly ghost flood control projects. Retired Supreme Court Justice Andres Reyes, chair of the ICI, said the recommendations were based on face-to-face interviews with and testimonies of senators, members of the House of Representatives, whistleblowers, contractors, and government officials, as well as affidavits and documents gathered the panel tasked to probe the flood control mess. The ICI did not find any guilt or liability on the part of Escudero, Poe, and Binay to recommend the filing of charges against them because of insufficient evidence to support the claims of former Public Works Undersecretary Roberto Bernardo linking them to the flood control controversies. Bernardo did not offer any direct or material evidence to back up his allegations when he appeared before the Senate Blue Ribbon Committee, leading the ICI to sidestep the filing of cases against the three unlike other former and incumbent officials who have been recommended to be charged. Reyes has emphasized that the ICI needs witnesses who can attest to the direct involvement of the accused in wrongdoing, including receiving of commissions or kickbacks from the flood control projects. “We need witnesses. Mga driver, mga katulong, kusinera, butler, secretary, accountant. We need more witnesses,” Reyes said. Among the personalities recommended by the ICI for the filing of possible cases of plunder, direct and indirect bribery, and corruption of public officials are former Senator Ramon “Bong” Revilla Jr., former party-list Rep. Zaldy Co, former Public Works Secretary Manuel Bonoan, former Public Works Undersecretaries Maria Catalina Cabral and Roberto Bernardo, and Commission on Audit Commissioner Mario Lipana. Escudero said the ICI’s recommendations were “based on evidence, weighed for their merit and the witnesses’ claims judged based on their
