DILG Calabarzon Backs LGUs in Peace and Order Programs

By Kristianne Andrade

The Department of the Interior and Local Government (DILG) Calabarzon reaffirmed its commitment to strengthening local government units (LGUs) through programs that promote peace, order, and security across the region.

The initiative supports President Ferdinand R. Marcos Jr.'s call for lasting peace, which he highlighted in his fourth State of the Nation Address (SONA) last July 28. "Ang kapayapaan ay mahalagang pundasyon ng Bagong Pilipinas, kaya pinapatatag natin ito kasabay ng pag-unlad," Marcos said. DILG Calabarzon Regional Director Ariel O. Iglesia emphasized that the agency continues to address pressing security concerns.

"DILG remains at the forefront of preventing and responding to threats to our collective security and safety, including criminality, illegal drugs, cybercrime, and emergencies," Iglesia said.

The department implements various programs, projects, and activities (PPAs), including the quarterly Regional Peace and Order Council (RPOC) meetings which gather updates on public safety, anti-insurgency, and crisis management efforts.

Marcos also stressed the government's intensified anti-drug drive targeting both large- and small-scale operations.

"Kaya patuloy ang ating operasyon laban sa mga drug dealer, sila man ay big-time o small-time," he noted.

In Calabarzon, LGUs through their Anti-Drug Abuse Councils (ADACs) have organized campaigns under the Buhay Ingatan, Droga'y Ayawan (BIDA) Program, featuring fun runs, Zumba sessions, and bloodletting drives to promote a safe and drug-free lifestyle.

The President likewise cited progress in reintegrating former rebels, with government and private sector support for communities once affected by insurgency.

Support for former rebels In Calabarzon, the Regional Task Force to End Local Communist Armed Conflict (RTF-ELCAC) implements the Retooled Community Support Program (RCSP) and the Enhanced Comprehensive Local Integration Program (E-CLIP), which extend immediate aid, firearms remuneration, and reintegration assistance.

PBBM Orders Audit, Review of Flood Control Projects

By Ferdinand Patinio

President Ferdinand R. Marcos Jr. on Monday directed the Department of Public Works and Highways (DPWH) to conduct an audit and performance review of all flood control projects implemented since 2022, citing corruption and substandard work. In his fourth State of the Nation Address (SONA) at the House of Representatives, the President said he personally inspected several areas recently hit by typhoons and the southwest monsoon, where he saw collapsed, poorly built, and even “imaginary” flood control structures. “Alam ng buong madla na nagkaka-raket sa mga proyekto — mga kickback, SOP, for the boys. Kaya sa mga nakikipagsabwatan upang kunin ang pondo ng bayan at nakawin ang kinabukasan ng ating mga mamamayan, mahiya naman kayo,” Marcos said. He ordered the DPWH to submit a complete list of flood control projects started or completed in the last three years, for review by regional monitoring committees. The verified list will then be published for public scrutiny, encouraging citizens to report failed, unfinished, or ghost projects. “In the coming months, all those found guilty will be charged — including contractors. The people need to know the truth. Someone must be held accountable,” the President stressed. Aside from the crackdown on corruption, Marcos announced that construction of the 175.6-billion Bataan-Cavite Interlink Bridge will commence this year, cutting travel time between Mariveles, Bataan and Naic, Cavite from five hours to just 45 minutes. He also prioritized the rehabilitation of the Guadalupe Bridge in Makati City. — (PNA)
