

Cavite Industrial Estate Teams Up With Meralco's MPower for Energy Program

By Alena Mae S. Flores

In a move set to reshape its energy strategy, the First Cavite Industrial Estate (FCIE) has selected MPower, a subsidiary of the Manila Electric Company (Meralco), to manage the electricity supply for its facilities under a pioneering government program. This partnership enrolls the 150 hectare industrial park in the Energy Regulatory Commission's Retail Aggregation Program. The initiative

Bacoor City Teams Up With Local Lawyers to Offer Free Legal Help

BACOR CITY, Nov. 11, 2025 – The City Government of Bacoor has joined forces with the Integrated Bar of the Philippines Cavite Chapter to provide free legal assistance to its less fortunate residents. The partnership was formalized with a Memorandum of Agreement signed on Tuesday at the Strike Conference Room.

Mayor Strike B. Revilla and IBP Cavite Chapter President Atty. Jessie A. Salvador led the signing ceremony, which was also attended by other IBP officers and organized by the City Legal Office under Atty. Kim Nyca Lofranco.

This new program will offer free legal consultations and advice to qualified indigent beneficiaries. The primary goal is to help resolve legal disputes early, potentially avoiding the need for costly and lengthy court proceedings.

Beyond direct legal aid, the agreement includes plans for IBP lawyers to host an informational segment on Strike TV. The city will also establish new districts for the People's Law Enforcement Board to handle complaints against police officers.

Mayor Strike highlighted the initiative's core purpose, stating it is about making legal knowledge and resources accessible to every citizen.

Mayor Strike Backs Rice Aid for Molino 3 Seniors

BACOR, Philippines – Mayor Strike B. Revilla personally showed his support for a rice distribution program for senior citizens of Barangay Molino 3 in a ceremony held at the barangay covered court on November 11, 2025.

The event, led by Barangay Captain Jun Advincula and the barangay council, successfully provided rice supplies to the community's elderly residents. Mayor Revilla attended the activity to witness the distribution and express his solidarity with the beneficiaries and the local government's initiative. Ms. Erlinda Lao, President of the Barangay Molino 3 Senior Citizens Association, helped lead the senior citizens during the program. The initiative aimed to distribute rice across all 17 clusters of senior citizens in the barangay, demonstrating the local government's commitment to its older residents. In his speech, Mayor Revilla thanked the Barangay Molino 3 government for its dedication and hard work in serving the community. He stated that this initiative is a testament to the continued partnership between the Barangay and the City Government of Bacoor in improving the lives of all Bacooreños.

direct response to directives from the Office of President Ferdinand Bongbong Marcos and under the administration of Mayor Strike B. Revilla. The team's goal was to verify that prices of basic necessities remain affordable and within the legally set price ceiling. The city government stated this effort is a key part of its commitment to safeguard residents from overpricing and ensure fair costs for essential goods. Joining San Jose were Mr. Allan Chua, Head of the City Agricultural Services, and Mr. Joey Rojas, the Administrator of 678 Market.

National Government Agencies, including PSA, PNP, DTI, SSS, BIR, Pag IBIG, PhilHealth, OWWA, and TESDA, extending assistance to jobseekers.

The event drew 238 applicants, 101 male and 137 female, all eager to explore fresh employment opportunities. Among them, 62 jobseekers were hired on the spot, proving that success truly comes to those who show up prepared.

The Cavite Career Caravan continues to make its rounds across the province, reaffirming that in Cavite, opportunity does not wait. It travels to where the people are.

Center. The initiative, a flagship program of First Lady Atty. Marie Louise "Liza" Araneta-Marcos, offered comprehensive medical and dental care. Services included consultations, laboratory tests for blood sugar and cholesterol, x-rays, and electrocardiograms. Beyond healthcare, beneficiaries also received financial aid, free medicines, eyeglasses, and essential goods from various government agencies. In her address, the First Lady expressed deep gratitude to all partners. "To all our public and private partners, thank you very much. We are all in this together," she stated. She also unveiled new Lab for All buses, which are equipped with modern medical equipment to enhance the caravan's services, and highlighted programs for maternal health.

DILG Secretary Jonvic Remulla, a native of Cavite, was present and shared his pride for his home province. "Long live Cavite, I love you all," he said.

The event was also welcomed by local leaders, including Tanza Congressman Crispin Diego "Ping" Remulla and Mayor Archangelo "SM" Matro, who thanked the First Family for choosing their town.

For residents like the senior citizen couple Mario and Adoracion, the caravan was a significant help. They received free eye check-ups, reading glasses, and medicines. "We are happy because everything was complete. We were attended to by a doctor and given free medicine, vitamins, and eyeglasses," Adoracion shared. Another beneficiary, Melissa Commendar, received maintenance medicines for high blood pressure, financial assistance, and other essential goods, reflecting the event's direct impact on the community.

The caravan was made possible through the collaboration of numerous national government agencies and private sector partners, including Bell-Kenz Pharma Inc. and the Ophthalmological Foundation of the Philippines. allows multiple electricity accounts within one franchise area to combine their power demand. By consolidating its energy needs into a single portfolio, FCIE aims to achieve greater cost efficiency and secure more competitive pricing.

FCIE President Micaela Laila Flores highlighted the partnership's broader impact, stating, "Our partnership with MPower marks a strategic step toward advancing sustainability and operational excellence. It reflects FCIE's steadfast vision to be a leading industrial estate with energy efficient solutions and responsible practices."

Redel Domingo, the head of MPower, also commented on the collaboration. "FCIE's participation sets a new benchmark for energy collaboration," Domingo said. "MPower is proud to support this vision with reliable energy that empowers industries and strengthens communities."

This agreement positions the Cavite based estate as one of the first major mixed use developments in the country to adopt this model. Industry observers see it as a sign of growing momentum for competitive energy solutions among commercial and industrial businesses. MPower, which holds over 30 percent of the retail electricity market in Meralco's service area, will serve as the local retail electricity supplier for the project.

Cavite Extends Healthcare to Dasmariñas Jail Facility

DASMARIÑAS, Cavite – The Provincial Government of Cavite (PGC) delivered essential health services directly to the Bureau of Jail Management and Penology (BJMP) facility here on November 4, 2025, providing medical and dental care to over 600 persons deprived of liberty (PDLs).

Led by the Office of the Provincial Health Officer (OPHO), the mission offered a range of services. The medical team conducted electrocardiogram (ECG) tests, X rays, and general consultations. Simultaneously, the dental team performed check ups and tooth extractions, addressing the immediate needs of the inmates. This initiative is a key part of the provincial government's drive to make quality healthcare accessible to every Caviteño, ensuring that even those in correctional facilities are not left behind. The event highlighted the province's commitment to inclusive public health by focusing on the wellbeing of all community members. The successful mission demonstrated how collaboration and compassion are vital in achieving the goal of inclusive public health care for the province.

the storm's heavy rains and strong winds.

According to the latest reports, the typhoon has affected 12,184 families, or 44,733 individuals, across various cities and municipalities in the province. Officials have confirmed no casualties.

Governor Remulla emphasized the provincial government's commitment to a swift and efficient response. "The safety and welfare of Caviteños remain our top priority," he stated.

Preparations began even before the typhoon entered the Philippine Area of Responsibility. The Provincial Disaster Risk Reduction and Management Council convened on November 7 for a Pre Disaster Risk Assessment with local and national agencies. Following national directives, preemptive evacuations were carried out in high risk areas to ensure resident safety.

The province's Emergency Operations Center is operating 24/7, with all response clusters on full alert to monitor the situation and coordinate with local government units.

Relief operations, managed by the Provincial Social Welfare and Development Office, started on November 9. Aid packages containing food and essential items have already been distributed to families in Ternate, Maragondon, Silang, and Naic.

The provincial government continues to mobilize its resources for sustained support. The Disaster Risk Reduction and Management Office remains on heightened alert for further monitoring. Residents are advised to stay vigilant and follow updates from official government channels.

PGC Strengthens Quality Audits with Retooling Workshop

Trece Martires, Cavite – The Cavite Provincial Government recently equipped its internal auditors with enhanced skills through a Retooling Seminar Workshop. The event, organized by the Cavite Quality Management Office, was held in two sessions at the New Provincial Government Center on September 25 and October 27.

The workshop gathered both current and aspiring internal auditors to deepen their understanding of the Provincial Government of Cavite Quality Management System (PGC QMS).

A team of experts led the training. Ms. Anne Minnette Dastas, head of the Office of the Provincial Internal Audit Service, was joined by Mr. Niko Montenegro and Mr. Mark Lester Carada. Together, they shared vital knowledge on internal audit processes, focusing on the specific clauses, standards, and requirements of the QMS.

Participants were actively involved in the program, which emphasized collaboration and teamwork as key components for an effective internal audit.

A major part of the event was a mock internal audit exercise. Attendees were divided into groups, taking on the roles of both auditors and auditees to apply their new knowledge in a realistic setting. Their workshop presentations were later evaluated by a panel of experienced PGC internal auditors, including Dr. Eva Defiesta, Ms. Evelyn Reyes, and Ms. Nancy Lontoc.

Provincial Government Delivers Free Health Services in Noveleta

NOVELETA, Cavite – The Provincial Government of Cavite provided free medical and dental care to the local community of Barangay San Rafael III here on November 6, 2025. This initiative is part of the province's ongoing mission to ensure all Caviteños have access to essential health services.

The program was a collaborative effort led by the Provincial Governor's Medical Mission Team and the Provincial Health Office. They were joined by 1st District Board Member Jgys R. Gandia and Noveleta Mayor Davey Reyes Chua, demonstrating a unified commitment to community health.

A total of 451 residents received aid during the event. The services included electrocardiogram or ECG for 23 patients, X rays for 10 individuals, and dental care for 58 beneficiaries. This direct approach to community service helps bridge the gap for those with limited access to medical facilities, reinforcing the province's dedication to public well-being.
