#doinglifetogether

From the Pastor's Desk

Belden Faith Family,

December has arrived—one of the most meaningful and hope-filled months of our year. As we prepare to celebrate the birth of Jesus Christ, I am reminded of the incredible truth that God came near. The eternal Son stepped into our world, in the fullness of time, to bring salvation, hope, and new life to all who will believe. What a gift! What a Savior!

In Luke 2 the angel declared, “I proclaim to you good news of great joy that will be for all the people.” The message of Christmas is truly “good news”—the gospel wrapped in swaddling clothes. Jesus came not simply to be admired in a manger, but to rescue us from sin, restore us to the Father, and bring us into His Kingdom.

Christmas reminds us that God keeps His promises. The arrival of Jesus fulfilled centuries of prophecy, every detail planned by the Father, guided by His sovereign hand. When we see the manger, we are reminded that God is faithful, trustworthy, and always at work—even when we cannot see it.

This December we continue living out our 2025 focus: Building Kingdom Families. Christmas is a powerful opportunity to shape the hearts of our children and grandchildren toward Christ. I want to encourage you:

- Read Scripture together this month—the Christmas story in Luke 1–2 and Matthew 1–2.
- Worship together faithfully—keep Christ at the center of your December.
- Model generosity and kindness—let your home reflect the light of Jesus.
- Share the gospel with someone who needs hope—Christmas opens doors like no other time.

As you gather with family and friends, may your conversations be filled with gratitude, grace, and the joy of Christ. As we approach the end of the year, I am so thankful for all God has done in and through Belden Baptist Church. From salvations and baptisms to discipleship growth, mission's outreach, and the strengthening of families, the Lord has been faithful. Thank you for serving, praying, giving, and loving so well.

From my family to yours, Shelia and I pray that your Christmas is filled with the peace, presence, and joy of Jesus Christ. May your home shine with His hope, and may your heart overflow with worship.

With a grateful heart,

Pastor Shane
