HOMEcoming Sunday

From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Belden Family,

As summer begins, I'm filled with gratitude for how God continues to work in and through our church. June brings with it incredible opportunities for us to grow in faith, serve with purpose, and support one another in Kingdom work. I want to share a few important updates and invite you to join me in focused prayer.

Deacon Nominations – Prayer and Participation Needed

One of the most important steps we'll take this summer is the nomination of new Deacons. On Sunday, June 8, our church body will be invited to nominate men to serve in this vital leadership role.

Between now and then, I ask that you begin praying now for wisdom and discernment. Ask the Lord to show you which men among us exemplify the character, faithfulness, and servant's heart needed to help shepherd and support our church family. This is not just a decision—it's a spiritual responsibility, and I'm confident God will guide us as we seek Him together.

Pray for Summer Camps – Children and Students

Over the coming weeks, many of our children and students will be attending summer camps. These experiences often become spiritual milestones in a young person's life. Please join me in praying that God will speak clearly to their hearts, call many into a deeper relationship with Him, and protect them as they travel and grow in their faith.

Mission Trip to Zambia – June 25–July 4

We are excited and honored to send out a mission team to Zambia from June 25 to July 4 as they help plant a new church in a community eager to hear the gospel. This is a tremendous opportunity for Kingdom impact, and your prayers are vital.

Please pray for:

- Safety and unity for our team
- Boldness in sharing the good news of Jesus
- Open hearts in Zambia
- A strong, Spirit-led foundation for the new church

Thank you, Belden family, for being a church marked by prayer, unity, and a deep love for the mission of Christ. I am thankful to walk this journey with you as we continue “Building Relationships That Lead People to Become Passionate Followers of Christ.”

With love and expectation,
Pastor Shane
