Greetings Faith Family,

As we step into the month of March, our hearts and minds begin to turn toward one of the most sacred and hope-filled seasons of the Christian calendar. Over the coming weeks, we will journey together through our new sermon series, “The Road to the Resurrection,” as we prepare to celebrate the victory of Christ on Resurrection Sunday, April 5.

This series is more than a look back at historical events—it is an invitation to walk closely with Jesus as He moves intentionally toward the cross. Along the way, we will see His compassion, His teaching, His surrender, and His unwavering obedience to the Father. Each message will help us understand not only what Jesus did, but why it matters for our daily lives as we seek to live as Kingdom disciples and Kingdom families.

The road to the resurrection reminds us that the cross was not an accident but the very heart of God’s redemptive plan. Jesus willingly endured suffering so that we could experience forgiveness, freedom, and new life. As we open God’s Word together, my prayer is that our church family will grow in gratitude for the gospel and deepen in our commitment to follow Christ wholeheartedly.

I want to encourage you to approach this season prayerfully and intentionally:

- Come expectant each week, asking God to speak to your heart.
- Invite someone who needs the hope of the gospel.
- Reflect personally on the significance of Christ’s sacrifice and victory.

Our journey will culminate in a joyful celebration on Resurrection Sunday—a day when we proclaim with confidence and joy that Jesus is alive! Because He lives, our sins are forgiven, our hope is secure, and our mission is clear.

Church family, let’s walk this road together with humility, gratitude, and anticipation. May this season renew our love for Christ, strengthen our faith, and stir our hearts to share the good news with others.

Grace and peace,

Pastor Shane
