From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Faith Family,

As we approach the season of Thanksgiving, I am reminded of the words of the Apostle Paul in 1 Thessalonians 5:18: "Give thanks in all circumstances; for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus." This verse reminds us that gratitude is not just an occasional response to blessings, but a way of life. Whether we find ourselves in seasons of abundance or times of challenge, God calls us to be thankful, recognizing His hand in all things.

Thanksgiving is a time to gather with family and friends, share meals, and reflect on the many blessings we have received throughout the year. It is also an opportunity to cultivate a heart of gratitude, acknowledging that every good gift comes from our Heavenly Father. When we count our blessings, we are reminded of God's faithfulness, love, and provision.

This year, as we celebrate Thanksgiving, let us be intentional in expressing gratitude not only for the obvious blessings but also for the ways God has been with us through trials and uncertainties. Each difficulty we've faced has brought with it opportunities for growth, and for that, we give thanks. As we sit around the table, let us remember to give thanks for our family, friends, and the fellowship we share, as well as for the small, everyday blessings that often go unnoticed.

In a world that can sometimes focus on what we lack, let us be a people who celebrate what we have, knowing that God's grace is sufficient and His love endures forever. May your Thanksgiving be filled with joy, peace, and a sense of God's presence, as you gather with loved ones to celebrate His goodness.

Happy Thanksgiving, and may God richly bless you all!

With gratitude,
Pastor Shane
