Student – Parent Expectations

At Empowerment Academy it is important to us that we exceed your expectations, so we would like to know what you and your students' expectations and desires are during your time with us. These will be discussed with your empowerment counselor.

Please take a moment to share your expectations and desires for both you and your student,

My expectations and desires as a parent are:

My child's expectations and desires are: (Please ask them, as we would like to make their time with us phenomenal)
