

Hopewell Theatre is your community theatre.

We explore and celebrate the human experience through high-quality, all-volunteer productions. Join us for our 32nd season—the best yet!

HOPEWELL 25 THEATRE 26

September 5–14

Significant Other

By Josh Harmon

Directed by Shawn Lockaton

A tenderly unromantic romantic comedy about four friends and their search for love and relationships in 21st-century New York City.

October 31–November 9

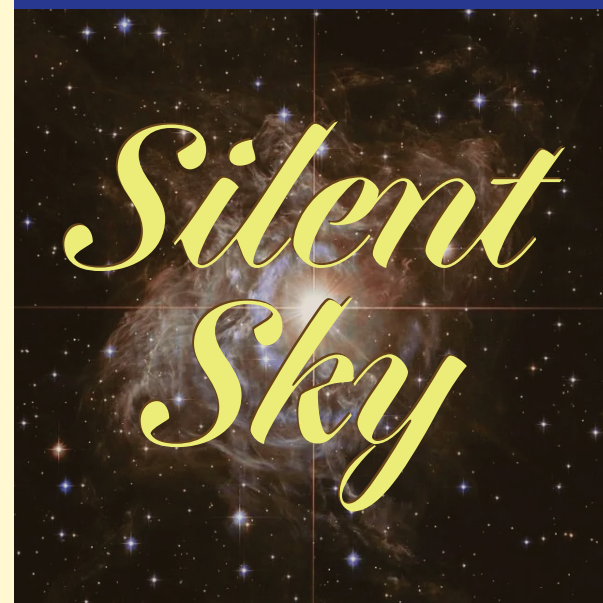

In the Zone with Rod Serling

Stories by Rod Serling

Directed by Christopher Fidram

Enjoy the genius of Rod Serling as four episodes of his classic TV show are brought to the stage.

April 10-19

Silent Sky

By Lauren Gunderson

Directed by Traci Manning

This true story of 19th-century astronomer Henrietta Leavitt explores a woman's place in society during a time of major scientific discoveries.

June 5–14

Glassheart

By Reina Hardy

Directed by Jaye Mills

An offbeat and mature riff on the classic folktale "Beauty and the Beast."

Performing at Hopewell: The Millennial Theatre Company

December 5–3

Who's Holiday

By Matthew Lombardo

Directed by Joe Asente

Brandy Johanntes returns as Cindy Lou Who to ring in the holidays!