Dimitris Michlis

“Retrospective”

Gloria Gallery presents a retrospective exhibition of paintings by Dimitris Michlis who passed away last year. The opening of the exhibition will take place on Friday, June 26, 2020 at 7.30 pm.

Dimitris Michlis was born in 1954 in Achna, Famagusta, Cyprus. He studied at the Saint Martin's School of Art in London (B.A. and M.A.) with renowned painters such as the Polish Joseph Herman. After his studies, he came to Cyprus and worked at the "Art Workshop" in Limassol with his brother Pambos Michlis and other artists. In 1986, together with Garth Frost, he created the shadow theater "The Leaping Lemon". He presented his work in many solo and group exhibitions in Cyprus and abroad. For the rest of his life until 2019 he lived in Tochni.

Speaking of his work he stated:

“Creativity is a personal function. I work every day – I do not wait to be inspired in order to start. While working, I try to open up the creative space of my personality, which I believe is inside every human being. When this space is opened, then a work of art is born or begins to be born. So, all this repressed creative energy is released, and my morale is strengthened. I paint anything that I like to see. I try to feel it by painting. When what I see and what I feel is logically and visually imprinted on the surface, then I have a work of art in front of me that I like to admire.”

The works presented are from the collection of Gloria Gallery and come from various exhibitions of the artist.
