

MEMBERSHIP UPDATE

WORTH QUOTING...

“Strength lies in differences, not similarities.”

- Stephen Covey

Are YOU an ABR® All Star?

Since 2000, over 100 individuals and associations have been inducted into the REBAC Hall of Fame. Some of the shining stars who have earned their ABR® designation and are:

Dedicated to serving military families at Fort Campbell, TN (Peggy Worcester, class of 2017)

Engaged in training other agents in buyer representation and other key skills (Richard Hart, class of 2016)

Serving in numerous leadership roles and giving back to their community (Victoria Doran, class of 2015)

Exclusively representing buyers interested in luxury properties (Lora Cusumano, class of 2014)

A broker-owner who has pioneered new technologies for lead generation (William True, class of 2013)

What are the requirements? There's no simple answer. The nomination form asks for a “summary of activities, achievements, participation in REBAC programs and events, and general contribution to buyer representation.” Each applicant is unique, and each application is carefully considered.

What are the results? Winning nominations are officially inducted into the REBAC Hall of Fame during the Networking and Awards Reception held at the REALTORS® Conference & Expo in Boston (November 2–5, 2018) and receive extensive press coverage.

You can nominate any member, including yourself, who holds either the ABR® or ABRM<sup>SM</sup> designation, and who meets all other related criteria. The deadline for submitting nominations is Monday, July 16.

To download a nomination form, visit REBAC.net/HOF. Please call 800-648-6224 with any questions.

Connect online with fellow ABR® designees for news, tips, and referrals!

facebook

@abrebac

Linked in

ABR® NETWORK

REBAC.net