

Wormegay Parish Council

Co-option Policy

The co-option of a Parish Councillor occurs when a casual vacancy has arisen on the Parish Council and no poll (by-election) has been called.

To ensure that a fair and transparent process is undertaken, the procedure below will be followed by Wormegay Parish Council:

1. On receipt, of written confirmation, from the Electoral Service of the Borough Council, the casual vacancy can be filled by means of co-option, in this instance the Clerk will:
 - a. Advertise the vacancy for 14 days on the council noticeboard and website.
 - b. Advise the council that the co-option policy has been instigated by sending a memorandum to all councillors.
2. Applicants for co-option will be asked to:
 - a. Provide information about themselves by way of completing a short application form. [A copy of the application form is attached.]
 - b. Confirm their eligibility for the position of Councillor within the statutory rules. [A copy of the Eligibility Form is attached.]
3. Copies of the application forms will be circulated to all councillors by the Clerk, at least seven days prior to the meeting of the full council where the co-option will be considered. All such documents will be treated by the Clerk and councillors as strictly private and confidential.
4. When the item is reached the Chair will invite each candidate to address the Council outlining their reasons for wishing to fill the vacancy and their relevant skills and experiences. Each candidate will be allocated a maximum of three minutes.
5. Voting will be carried out in the closed session of the Parish Council meeting and will be according to the statutory requirements, in that, a successful candidate must have received an absolute majority vote of those present and voting. If there are more than two candidates for one vacancy and no one, at the first count, receives a majority over the aggregate votes given to the rest, steps must be taken to strike off the candidate with the least number of votes and the remainder must then be put to the vote again; this process must, if necessary, be repeated until an absolute majority is obtained.

Councillors shall vote by show of hands.

In the case of an equality of votes, the Chairman of the meeting has a second or casting vote.

6. After the vote has been concluded, the Chairman will declare the successful candidate duly elected. The successful candidate will then be contacted by the Parish Clerk.
