St. Matthew Evangelical Lutheran Church

Isaiah 43:18-19

Do not remember the former things or consider the things of old. I am about to do a new thing; now it springs forth; do you not perceive it? I will make a way in the wilderness and rivers in the desert.

A happy and healthy new year to you all! 2026, what will unfold this year? It seems every single year that is the question. What will we see, what will we experience, what will we learn? Time, of course, will tell, but through it all we remember that we have this incredible gift of presence in this moment. That presence, is the presence of Jesus in our lives. As we read in Isaiah, God is about making things new, and in this new year I hope we can remember that, the past always has a point to make and is important for us to ponder and learn from it. But the present is now and God is making things new, always, and so we also must learn to bend and grow in the newness that God is always bringing. As a Lutheran, change is inevitably hard to deal with, and yet it is in the movement of change, that growth and learning come about. So in this new year, 2026, let us open our minds and our hearts to new understandings. May we be open to understand that we are all beloved children of God, and that all of us have a place of belonging, and that belonging should always start in the church. May we find and experience God's grace in new and powerful ways this year and may we take those with us into the world and share God's unfailing love with all we encounter. May 2026 be a year filled with new possibilities and new ways of experiencing God's grace.

Happy New Year!

In Christ,
Austin Nickel

Circle of Faith

As we journey through 2026, with Nancy's leadership, we will explore our faith using the book Devotional Classics edited by Richard J. Foster and James Bryan Smith. If you haven't obtained your copy of the book it is available online at Amazon for $8.83. So "add to cart" and get that overnight delivery we have come to expect and appreciate from Amazon. If you don't use Amazon, one of the Circle members can order it for you or introduce you to the magic of shopping with Amazon where everything and anything is at your fingertips. The book is also available through Google Books (books.google.com) at no charge if you would like to read it on your phone or computer. The 52 selections in the book have been organized to introduce us to many great devotional writers and should be a very enlightening and enjoyable 2026 study.

God's Work - Our Hands

So this is Christmas
And what have you done?
Another year over
And a new one just begun.

John Lennon from the song "So This Is Christmas"

Your acts of kindness throughout 2025 brought hope to people when they desperately needed the assurance that someone cared about them. Your small act could be the thing that kept someone from giving up. Thank you for your generosity and for letting Christ's light shine out into the world through the gifts you gave to others.

In 2025, the St Matthew family donated 1,717 pounds of food to the Caritas Food Pantry. Caritas believes no one should have to wonder where their next meal will come from in these uncertain economic times. The Food Pantry provided a source of food to over 100,000 families that needed a little help. Thank you for offering to help others through your donations.

In 2025, the St Matthew family participated in TWO toy donation events to help the Mission Waco Toy Store. St Matthew donated well over 400 toys, books and puzzles. In total, the Toy Store provided new toys to 1,320 children this year. Your donations helped to preserve the joy, dignity and hope for so many of your Waco neighbors who need a little help right now. You gave them the priceless gift of happiness and joy at Christmas.

In 2025, the St Matthew family donated quilts, very beautiful handmade quilts, school back packs and health kits to Lutheran World Relief. Our group of quilters is truly the backbone for our donation efforts to LWR. Without them we would not have the many back packs we filled with school supplies for children who desperately want to learn but need help obtaining supplies. The quilts our quilters lovingly work on every single Friday morning are a welcome gift to many people experiencing devastation in their lives from war, extreme poverty or natural disasters.

In 2025, the St Matthew Family donated food and supplies to fill our Church's Blessing Box so people can come and get a snack or water when they are in need, gloves to warm their hands, socks to warm their feet and hats to keep their heads warm in the cold winter season. Your kindness gives many of our neighbors hope for a better day.

From John Calaway and Baillie Rouse of Mission Waco

"As we approach the close of another year, we are reminded of Paul's words in 2 Corinthians 9 where he encourages the early church to give generously, confidently and joyfully trusting that God "is able to bless you abundantly, so that in all things at all times you will abound in every good work." What a beautiful picture of what happens when God's people sow into the lives of others.

Thank you St. Matthew for partnering with us. Collectively 1,493 volunteers have given over 18,850 hours of service in 2025. Volunteers are essential for us to empower, equip and engage our community, and through your service and donations you have lovingly been the hands and feet of Christ to our Waco neighbors."

A Word of Thanks from St. Matthew Staff

I just want to say thank you so very much for the incredibly generous Christmas staff gifts in December. I appreciate you all so very much and give thanks for the ministry we are doing together here at St. Matthew Lutheran Church. You are all a gift to me and I give thanks for each and every one of you. With much gratitude,

-Pastor Austin Nickel

We at Saint Matthew would also like to collectively give our huge thanks for the staff gifts we received this year! We are blessed to have such a supportive and loving congregation, and we are extremely grateful to everyone in our congregation as we look forward and start a new year together.
