Weekly Themes & Everyday Field Trips

Dates	Theme	Activities	Field Trip
6/15-6/19	U.S. Symbols & Civics	Introduce empathy, equality, and the power of standing up for justice.	We plan exciting field trips every day, visiting places such as local parks, farms for fruit picking, and nearby libraries. The health and safety of our students and teachers are always our top priority. All trips will be planned according to current weather conditions and community health guidelines. Weekly newsletters will be emailed to parents before each camp week begins, including detailed field trip schedules and locations.
6/22-6/26	Map Skills & Landmarks	Help campers recognize the 50 states, regions, and U.S. landmarks.
6/29-7/2	Chinese food & Cooking	Campers will learn Chinese food culture and experience hands-on Chinese cooking, learning to make traditional favorites such as dumplings (jiaozi), zongzi, spring rolls, and mooncakes.
7/6-7/10	Performances and Talent Show	Campers will practice a variety of performances and showcase their unique talents. Parents are warmly invited to attend our Friday performance!
7/13-7/17	Lead with Heart, Learn with Joy!	Focus: Confidence • Teamwork • Communication • Creativity • Responsibility
7/20-7/24	Chess	Students learn chess in age groups, and a tournament will be held on Friday.
7/27-7/31	Art Around the World	Explore global art styles, from Chinese ink painting to Mexican papel picado.
8/3-8/7	Chinese food & Cooking	The same as the week of 6/27-7/2.
8/10-8/14	Camp Olympics	Team sports, obstacle courses, and daily challenges-Team spirit, fun challenges, and active learning!
8/17-8/21	Crazy Week	Be Creative, Be Bold, Be YOU!-Creativity • Confidence • Self-Expression • Friendship
