Golf Commission: Anne O'Connell reported that the news from the Golf Commission is the focus on cart etiquette and pace of play. She suggested we do an audit on pace of play on May 14th. Captains will mark cards with start & stop times. The Scoring Committee will share with the board at the next meeting in June.

Scoring: Cindy reported for Margaret Litavis that all is good with her committee.

The new process for acknowledging Birdies and Under 50s rounds will have the Scoring committee keep track of names and dates and send the list to Donna each week. Only One pin will be given for Birdie and Under 50's rounds but when announced at our Annual Meeting and Holiday party it will be shared how many Birdies and Under 50's rounds each player had. (This new process was discussed and approved in Aug 2025.)

Invitational: Cindy Davey reported for Nancy Purpura and Michelle Litavis. No news this month.

Other Business: Anne O'Connell asked board if she should look into the special golf program run at Captains for young golfers. She shared an antidote of a mother who had a couple of sons who would love to join but they didn't have the funds. This would possibly replace where we put our collected Nauset golf scholarship money. She will report at next board meeting.

Cindy Davey asked board to think about who should talk at our Welcome Back Coffee. With so many new members, Cindy will come up with something that emphasizes certain rules...with the help of Susan Sorrento. Each committee chair will speak, like last year, about what each group's roles and responsibilities are.
