Final Thoughts

We hope that you have found this planning guide helpful. By completing it, your services will be more thoughtful, more memorable, less expensive and less stressful. We recommend you fill this booklet out within a week or so, because it is important to do it sooner rather than later.

Families are required to make funeral/cremation arrangements every day, often without much preparation. When they have a booklet like this, as a guide, the experience is much less stressful and more meaningful. Many people today are taking the next step and actually create a prearranged funeral plan and fund it using a preneed funeral insurance plan. That way not only will their family have the information they need to arrange the funeral, they also have the peace of mind that has been pre-paid.
