CELEBRATING OUR HOLY FAMILY SISTERS' 50 GOLDEN YEARS OF MISSIONARY WORK IN AMERICA

CELEBRANDO A NUESTRAS HERMANAS DE LA SAGRADA FAMILIA 50 AÑOS DE ORO DE TRABAJO MISIONERO EN AMERICA

The Missionary Sisters of the Holy Family started their mission here in the USA by establishing their community here in Kankakee, with Fr. Mike at the Saint Stanislaus Kostka Church. If we reviewed their story and the work of each nun from fifty years ago to today, we can easily see that they have successfully integrated themselves in the community, and today, they have three communities in the United States. Aside from Kankakee, they also have communities in Wisconsin and Florida. Later on, they would of course move to their convent on Water Street, within the boundaries of the former Saint Martin Church, and now as part of the parish of Saint John Paul II. We celebrate with them, and I personally extend my loving congratulations and blessings to their entire community.

We are blessed this weekend with the presence of their Mother General, Weronika Mackiewicz, as well as the sisters from the three communities, to give thanks to God for this milestone in the history of their congregation. Some of their fellow sisters from other religious communities are here to join with them in giving thanks to God. And some of their priest friends from various religious communities are also present with us. I welcome everyone with the same sentiment that it is good to be here together, to celebrate the many ways that our Holy Family sisters have helped nourish us spiritually and inspired us all to live a life of poverty, chastity and obedience. They have planted seeds of faith to so many, particularly to the young people. They have planted seeds of hope to so many that they serve at the hospital. They have sowed seeds of love with so many people in our community. The seeds are plentifully sown indeed, and the Catholic Church in Kankakee is a better community today because of the fruits that we are now reaping from those seeds that have been sown for fifty years.

If someone asked me to describe the Holy Family sisters, here is what I would say today:

They are a community of happy women. It is easy to see that happiness even just by observing them from afar. They are always smiling, or having a fun conversation. One time, I was having breakfast with them at one of the diners in the area, and the waitress said, "It is so good to see happy people coming for breakfast." They simply exude that happiness, because there is so much happiness in being a religious person.

They are a community of women who sincerely love one another as sisters, and generously love all the others the same way. I have seen how they care for each other in many circumstances. I guess it goes with the territory of being a nun to be nice and kind and loving towards others.

They are a community of holy women. These sisters have shown their love of God by their life of prayer, devotion and acts of holy sacrifice. They have a very consistent prayer life, and even in their busy lives, they try their best to maintain a steady prayer life. They even fast and abstain every Friday!

As they celebrate fifty years of ministry in the USA, it is my prayer that their community continue to grow, that more young women find their charisma and way of life a clear option for holiness of life. I pray that our sisters continue to be happy, healthy and holy always. We love you and we feel blessed that you are a part of our spiritual family. Niech dobry Pan zawsze oświecła wam drogę. Niech cię Bóg błogosławi!

In Jesus, Mary and Joseph,
Fr. Sunny Castillo

Las Hermanas Misioneras de la Sagrada Familia empezaron su misión aquí en USA estableciendo su comunidad aquí en Kankakee, con el Padre Mike en la Iglesia de San Estanislao Kostka. Si revisamos su historia y el trabajo de cada hermana desde hace cincuenta años hasta hoy, podemos ver fácilmente que se han integrado exitosamente en la comunidad y ahora tienen tres comunidades en los Estados Unidos. Además de Kankakee, también tienen comunidades en Wisconsin y Florida. Mas tarde por supuesto se cambiaron a su convento en la Calle Water, dentro de los límites de anteriormente Iglesia San Martin y ahora como parte de la iglesia San Juan Pablo II. Celebramos con ellas y personalmente extiendo mis felicitaciones y bendiciones con mucho cariño a toda su comunidad.

Estamos bendecidos este fin de semana con la presencia se su Madre General, Weronika Mackiewicz, al igual que las hermanas de las tres comunidades, para dar gracias a Dios por su historia de su congregación. Algunas de las hermanas compañeras de otras comunidades religiosas están aquí para acompañarlas para agradecerle a Dios. Y algunos de sus amigos Sacerdotes de varias comunidades religiosas también están presentes con nosotros. Le doy la bienvenida a todos con el mismo sentimiento de que es bueno estar aquí juntos para celebrar las varias formas que nuestras hermanas de la Sagrada Familia nos han ayudado a inspirarnos y nutrirnos espiritualmente a vivir una vida de pobreza, castidad y obediencia. Han plantado semillas de fe a tantos, particularmente a los jóvenes. Han plantado semillas de esperanza a tantos de los que ayudan en el hospital. Han sembrado semillas de amor con tantas personas en nuestra comunidad. Las semillas de hecho han sido sembradas abundantemente, y la Iglesia Católica en Kankakee es una comunidad mejor hoy en día por los frutos que estamos recogiendo de esas semillas que fueron sembradas por cincuenta años.

Si alguien me pregunta que describa a las hermanas de la Sagrada Familia, esto es lo que diría hoy:

Son una comunidad de mujeres felices. Es fácil mirar esa felicidad simplemente observando de lejos. Siempre están sonrientes, o tienen una conversación divertida. Una vez, fui a desayunas con ellas a uno de los lugares aquí en el área y la mesera dijo, "Es tan bonito ver a personas tan felices venir a desayunar." Ellas simplemente irradian esa felicidad, porque hay tanta felicidad en ser una persona religiosa.

Son una comunidad de mujeres quienes sinceramente se aman las unas con las otras y generosamente aman a todos de la misma manera. He visto como se preocupan las unas por las otras en varias circunstancias. Creo que viene con el territorio de ser monja el ser bueno, bondadoso y amar a los demás.

Son una comunidad de mujeres santas. Estas mujeres han denostado su amor a Dios con su vida de oración y aún en sus vidas tan ocupadas, tratan de hacer lo mejor para mantener una vía de oración constante. Ayunan y se abstienen todos los viernes!

Mientras celebran cincuenta años de ministerio en USA, es mi oración que su comunidad continúe creciendo, que más mujeres jóvenes encuentren su carisma y modo de vida una clara opción por una vida de santidad. Pido que nuestras hermanas continúen siendo felices, saludables y siempre santas. Las amamos y nos sentimos bendecidos que son parte de nuestra familia espiritual. Niech dobry Pan zawsze oświecła wam drogę. Niech cię Bóg błogosławi!

“May they all be One... for the world to believe” John 17:21

Inspired by these Words of God, Blessed Boleslawa Lament took on God’s calling and founded the religious congregation of Sisters: The Missionary Sisters of the Holy Family in 1905. Its mission is to work toward the unity of Christ’s Church and to share God’s Good News with all the People. We fulfill this through prayer, work, community life and professed vows. In our everyday life we strive to follow the Holy Family as a Model of all Christian values and virtues. May God be praised and glorified in our lives!

50 years ago, in the spirit of apostolic concern for the unity of Christians, the Congregation of Missionary Sisters of the Holy Family took up the service on the continent of America. Today the Sisters are working in various ministries in three communities: Burlington, WI., Orange Park, FL. and Kankakee, IL.
