AN OPEN LETTER TO SEMINARIAN GREG ALBERTS

It was clear from the very start that your time here in Kankakee was going to be about doing teaching ministry at Bishop MacNamara Catholic School, and being here at Saint John Paul II was secondary, an added opportunity for parish experience in the weekends, or when your schedule would allow. And so, as the pastor of the parish where you resided during this time, I did not treat you as I would treat an intern assigned directly to my responsibility. I treated you as a peer, someone who is collaborating in the Catholic mission here in this part of the diocese. You are still a seminarian, but I did not want you to look to me as your superior in any way.

I guess it is because of this mindset that I was able to appreciate more having you around over the past few months. You have been very open to share with me your thoughts and feelings about ministry in general, about the priesthood, about your experiences in the school, and about your hopes for the future. In many ways, you have given me an opportunity to learn about your generation of up and coming priests in as genuine a way as possible. You have even managed to encourage me and give me moral support in those days when I was feeling worn out or disillusioned in my priestly experiences.

So, I thank you, Greg, for being yourself during your time here in Kankakee. I have no doubt that many of the young students in our school have learned from you, just because you are who you are, and you have a passion for the Church and for the future of our young people. I love that you speak in relatable language, instead of speaking above other people. I can instantly see that behind your big voice and larger than life personality is a sincere and humble person who tries his best to make a difference with his gifts, and is willing to sacrifice for the sake of the Gospel.

Please know that St. John Paul II is one of those parishes that you can call your home. You are always welcome here, and you always have people who will be able to provide some support, spiritual or material, for your journey into doing what God is calling you to do with your life. I personally pray that the next four years of your walk to ordination will be enriching, empowering and inspiring. I look forward to being there to lay hands on you and receive you as a brother priest, four years from now, because I am convinced that you have the gift of this vocation. I will bring some Stella Artois and Leinenkuegel when that day comes, and we will toast to the great joy of serving the Lord! (Smile) Continue to learn, to open yourself to the grace of God's love and healing. Most of all, keep your enthusiasm for the holy mission of the church. If you make it available without any inhibition, God will use all that you are and have for the work of salvation and care of souls.

God bless you in Omaha, Nebraska, and wherever the next years in Mundelein lead you.

Ad Jesum per Mariam,
Fr. Sunny Castillo

CARTA ACCESIBLE PARA EL SEMINARISTA GREG ALBERTS

Vimos claramente desde tu llegada aquí en Kankakee que estabas bien preparado para el ministerio de la enseñanza en la Escuela Católica Bishop MacNamara, y estarías ubicado aquí en la parroquia San Juan Pablo II que sería para ti una experiencia parroquial a fines de semana, o según tu horario lo permitiría. Así es que, como pastor de esta parroquia, durante tu estancia aquí, no te traté como si estuvieras directamente asignado a mi responsabilidad. Yo te traté como compañero, alguien que estaba colaborando en la misión Católica aquí en esta parte de la diócesis. Todavía eres seminarista, pero no quería que me vieras como tu superior en ninguna manera.

Es porque así pensaba que yo podía apreciar todavía más tu estancia aquí en estos meses pasados. Greg, tu libremente has compartido conmigo tus pensamientos y percepciones acerca del ministerio en general, sobre el sacerdocio, sobre tus experiencias en la escuela, y sobre tus esperanzas hacia el futuro. En muchas maneras, tanto como era posible, tú me has dado la oportunidad de aprender acerca de tu generación y futuros sacerdotes bajo una luz genuina. También hasta me haz dado ánimo en aquellos días cuando me sentía muy cansado o desilusionado en mis experiencias sacerdotales.

Así es que, Greg, gracias por ser quién eres durante tu estancia aquí en Kankakee. No tengo duda que muchos de los estudiantes en la escuela han aprendido bastante de ti, simplemente porque tu eres genuino, y porque tienes pasión por la Iglesia y por el futuro de la juventud. Me agrada el cómo hablas en manera comprensible para todos los que te escuchan. Yo puedo ver instantáneamente que tras esa voz fuerte y más grande que tu personalidad está una sincera y humilde persona que pone sus dones al servicio de la gente, y está dispuesto a sacrificarse por amor al Evangelio.

Favor de comprender que San Juan Pablo II es una de esas parroquias donde puedes sentirte en casa. Siempre serás aquí muy bien venido, y siempre encontraras gente amable para apoyarte espiritualmente o materialmente, por el camino por donde Dios te está llamando a lo que vas a ser con tu vida. Yo personalmente ruego que los siguientes cuatro años en tu camino hacia tu ordenación sean enriquecedores, fortalecientes e inspiradores. Con anticipación, espero ese día para imponer mis manos sobre tí y recibirte como mi hermano sacerdote, de hoy a cuatro años, porque estoy convencido que tú tienes el don para ésta vocación. Yo traeré algo de Stella Artois y Leinenkuegel cuando llegue ese día, y brindaremos a la gran alegría de servir al Señor! (Sonrisa). Continúa aprendiendo, siendo receptivo a la gracia del amor de Dios y Su sanación. Sobre todo, mantén tu entusiasmo por la misión santa de la iglesia. Si tú estas completamente disponible sin ninguna inhibición, Dios usará todo tu ser y todo lo que tienes para el trabajo de la salvación y cuidado de las almas.

Que Dios te bendiga en Omaha, Nebraska, y por dondequiera que te lleven los siguiente años en Mundelein.

Ad Jesum per Mariam,

"Even among terminally ill patients, a request to die is nearly always a cry for help. The patient requesting assisted suicide is often asking, 'Does anyone want me to be alive, or care enough to talk me out of this request and support me through this difficult time?'"
USCCB Secretariat of Pro-Life Activities, "Every Suicide is Tragic."

"Incluso entre pacientes con enfermedades terminales, solicitar la muerte es casi siempre un grito pidiendo ayuda. El paciente que solicita el suicidio asistido suele preguntarse: '¿Hay alguien que quiera que yo siga vivo, o que se preocupe tanto como para disuadirme y apoyarme en este difícil momento?'"
Secretariado de Actividades pro-Vida de la USCCB, "Cada Suicidio Es Trágico"

Many civilizations have used mandalas as a focus in meditation. Mandala coloring books have recently become popular in our own culture. Another form of mandala meditation is to make a mandala of your own. Through painting and drawing mandalas, we allow our right brain creative selves to come out and play. Often the process leads to constructive healing and insight into us and our lives.
