SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME JULY 29, 2018

"Where can we buy enough food for them to eat? There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish; but what good are these for so many?"

Jesus took the loaves, gave thanks, and distributed them to those who were reclining, and also as much of the fish as they wanted. When the people saw the sign he had done, they said, "This is truly the Prophet, the one who is to come into the world."

John 6:5,9,11,14

"¿Dónde iremos a comprar pan para que coma la gente? Aquí hay un muchacho que tiene cinco panes de cebada y dos pescados. Pero, ¿qué es esto para tanta gente?"

Entonces Jesús tomó los panes, dio gracias y los repartió entre los que estaban sentados. Lo mismo hizo con los pescados, y todos recibieron cuanto quisieron. La gente al ver la señal que Jesús había hecho, dijeron: Este es sin duda el Profeta que había de venir al mundo."

Juan 6:5,9,11,14

TOWARDS A NEW AND IMPROVED JP2 FAITH FORMATION PROGRAM

VAMOS RENOVANDO Y MEJORANDO EL PROGRAMA FORMACIÓN DE FE EN JP2

Summertime is flying by so fast! It has been announced before all our weekend liturgies that Faith Formation program is off to another start. I have announced that registrations are already ongoing, and therefore, we are inviting our parish families to start getting our children signed up to learn about their faith. Together with the registration opportunities, we are also talking to the catechists during their four-session orientation and trainings, that our focus as a parish is to instill in our children a solid expectation on the things that they need to know about the faith, a sense of accountability for them and the parents, and most importantly, to hone in their hearts a personal sense of the divine God, an awareness of the holy, a sense of formation towards a personal relationship with God.

Over the summer, I have been sitting down in conversation with Jacob Levy, Sr. Evangeline, Carolyn Levy, and also in a few occasion, Donna Worth and Joey Sorich, about the direction that we are taking. We have looked at every grade level and set out clear programs and contents for our catechists to follow and work on. We want to have a sense of coherence in the program, and for the children to have measurable sets of faith skills at the end of every school year.

PRAYER. We want to teach the children not only about prayer, but more importantly, how to pray. We want them to talk to God, and sometimes, even provide the words of prayer that come from the rich prayer tradition of the Church. We want them to memorize by heart the basic prayers of the faith, like the Our Father, the Creed, the Hail Mary, and even the Act of Contrition, among others. We want to encourage them to be creative with the tools that they use in prayer. We want them to be comfortable to visit the Lord, and to talk to Him silently in Eucharistic Adoration. We want them to pray and meditate with the words of the Scriptures. The possibilities are endless. We also want to provide them specific sessions of prayer within the school year, where the focus of some of the evenings is simply to call them to various prayer forms.

INFORMATION. Aside from spiritual formation, we have a specific set of lessons that we expect them to learn every year. There is much to know about the Catholic Church, about our history and our theology, and so it is important that the children also know HOW to access credible information about the faith, and to find the right answers to their questions.

MENTORING. For the confirmation programs, we would like to offer mentoring opportunities with the students of faith. We are hoping to have some one-on-one time to have a dialogue with them about our walk of faith, about their journey to a FULLER LIFE WITH GOD.

Obviously, I am very excited to see how the program goes, and I hope to be more present this year to our children. But I ask us all, as St. John Paul II, to take to heart the words of Jesus to teach all nations, to spread the Good News, to be their God and savior.

For the welfare of the little ones,
Fr. Sunny Castillo

El verano se va volando! Hemos anunciado antes de las liturgias a fin de semana que el programa de Formación de fe ya está por principiar. Ya anuncié que hemos empezado las registraciones, y estamos invitando a nuestras familias que registren a sus hijos para que aprendan acerca de su fe. Juntamente con estas oportunidades de registración, estamos también hablando con las catequistas durante cuatro sesiones de orientación y entrenamiento, que nuestro enfoque como parroquia es el inculcar en nuestros niños una sólida esperanza sobre las cosas que necesitan conocer acerca de la fe, un sentido de responsabilidad de parte de ellos y de sus padres, y sobre todo afilar en sus corazones un sentido personal del Dios divino, darse cuenta de la presencia de la santidad, y desarrollar un sentido de formación personal en su relación con Dios.

Durante el verano, he pasado tiempo en conversación con Jacob Levy, con Hna. Evangeline, con Carolyn Levy, y también en algunas ocasiones, con Donna Worth y con Joey Sorich, acerca de la dirección que vamos tomando. Hemos revisado cada grado y hemos programado los contenidos que las catequistas deben implementar. Queremos tener un sentido de coherencia en el programa para que los niños tengan la habilidad de proyectar su fe a fines de cada año escolar.

LA ORACIÓN. Queremos enseñar a los niños no solo acerca de la oración, pero más importante, el cómo rezar. Queremos que ellos hablen con Dios, y algunas veces, proveerles con las oraciones que vienen de la rica tradición de la Iglesia. Queremos que aprendan de memoria las oraciones básicas de la fe, como el Padre Nuestro, el Credo, el Ave María, y el Acto de Contrición, entre otras. Queremos animarlos a que sean creativos en formular su oración. Queremos que se sientan confortables cuando visitan al Señor, y platican en silencio con Él en la Adoración Eucarística. Queremos que recen y mediten con las palabras de las Escrituras. Las posibilidades son sin límite. También queremos proveerles con sesiones específicas de oración durante el año escolar, donde el enfoque en veces es simplemente dirigirlos a diversas formas de oración.

INFORMACIÓN. Considerando la formación espiritual, tenemos lecciones específicas que esperamos ellos aprendan cada año. Hay mucho por aprender acerca de la Iglesia Católica, acerca de nuestra historia y teología, y por eso es importante que los niños aprendan el CÓMO adquirir auténtica información acerca de la fe, y encontrar las respuestas correctas a sus preguntas.

GUIÁNDOLOS. Para los programas de confirmación, queremos ofrecer oportunidades de un guía para los estudiantes de fe. Esperamos tener un diálogo uno-por-uno con ellos tocante nuestro camino de fe, acerca de nuestra jornada hacia una VIDA ABUNDANTE CON DIOS.

Obviamente, estoy muy emocionado para ver cómo va a progresar el programa, y espero estar más presente a nuestros niños este año. Pero tengamos presente, unidos con San Juan Pablo II, tomar a corazón las palabras de Jesús, enseñar a todas las naciones, propagar las Buenas Nuevas, que Dios es su salvador.

Para el bienestar de los pequeños,
Padre Sunny Castillo

JPII Outreach Project 2018 Pembroke Schools

The Outreach Team at JPII has teamed up with the teachers in the Pembroke schools to compile a wish list of items needed for their classrooms. Baskets will be passed this month at masses for these items. Choose an item from the basket, and return it to the boxes in the lobby behind the counter marked: Back to School, or if you choose a gift card, you may return that in the collection basket.

Deadline is Sunday, August 5

Donations of the following Art supplies are also needed:

Felt, Yarn, Fabric, Scrapbook Paper, Glitter, Pipe Cleaners, Pony Beads, Craft Sticks, Embroidery Floss, Tacky Glue, Paper Punches, Staplers, Glue Guns and Glue Sticks

Donations of used musical instruments to the Music Department are also needed:

Shakers, Flutes, Clarinets, Drums, Trumpets, etc.

If you are interested in donating any instruments, please

Contact Teri O'Connor: 815-693-9152
