A FINAL MONTH (CONTINUED...)

NOSTALGIA. I cannot help but feel nostalgic, because it feels that nine years just really went by very fast. I guess it is because I never had a boring day. As times and seasons rolled by, I was always caught in something to do, or to plan for. My mind was constantly engaged, thinking, reviewing, analyzing, organizing, planning, dreaming and reminiscing. Time is short for a busy mind, they say, and it is true during my nine years as a priest here in Kankakee.

LEGACY. As I pack my stuff to move to Elmhurst one question came to my mind. What exactly am I leaving behind? I was musing about this question, considering the biggest change that has happened in the Catholic Churches in Kankakee through the centuries, and I was right in the midst of it, as the pastor that had to see through it all, discern it with the people, pray for inspiration and wisdom, and consult with the Bishop and so many people who have been part of the process. Maybe this is my legacy – that our parish was born under my pastorate. But then, I received a letter from a parishioner who poured out her heart out and told me that something I said in one of my homilies many years ago changed her, i.e., that we should be proud of our Catholicism. Then I got to thinking again. It is true I will be remembered as the pastor that closed the three churches in Kankakee and opened our unification parish, against all odds, in obedience to the Bishop. But what I hope for is that I will be remembered as the priest who made people fall in love with God and His Church. Actually, it doesn't matter too much that people remember me. What matters is that even one person, just one person, falling in love with God and His Church would be worth the nine years. As for me, after sixteen years of the priesthood, I have come to a point in my life when I no longer need to be remembered. For some people, that is probably even the better option. But as I go from here, it will be my continual prayer that you continue to fall more and more in love with God, and the Catholic Church, against all odds.

APOLOGIES. Just like any other, I also can't help but look at my areas of failure, or perhaps some moments when I know that my humanity took over the higher calling that was entrusted to me. I do not have real regrets, because I do believe that I did everything with sincerity and prayerful discernment, but still, I can think of times when people were hurt or were underserved by my ministry, and I can only ask for forgiveness and compassion. No, I am not perfect, and I also have my blinders. There were days when I was tired and overwhelmed and may have responded abruptly, or reacted in ways unworthy of my Christian calling. Please forgive, because it is my prayer, at the end of the day, what will remain is healing, and peace in your hearts, so that the ugly things of the past are no longer worth talking about.

HOPEFUL. At the closing of this chapter of my life, I choose to be hopeful. That is all that I have going for me, and so I choose to hope. The new beginning of being able to serve another community gives me a sense of refreshing possibilities. It makes me imagine how Saint Paul felt every time he left one community to move to another, in the name of the proclamation of the Gospel. It has been helpful that many of you have been sending me encouraging words about the future. Thank you for empowering the hope within my soul.

My dear Saint John Paul II family, here is my goodbye. And when you hear the words HEALTHY, HAPPY and HOLY, please think of this Filipino priest once in a while, and say a little prayer for God to continue to bless me to the day of His Kingdom, as I will continue to pray for you. I love you with the love of the Lord. See you all in heaven!

your priest, friend, servant and brother,

Fr. Santos "Sunny" Castillo

UN ÚLTIMO MES (CONTINUACIÓN...)

NOSTALGIA. No puedo evitar sentir nostalgia, porque siento que nueve años pasaron muy rápido. Supongo que es porque nunca tuve un día aburrido. A medida que pasaban las temporadas y las estaciones, siempre estaba atrapado en algo que hacer o planear. Mi mente estaba constantemente ocupada, pensando, revisando, analizando, organizando, planificando, soñando y recordando. Dicen que el tiempo es corto para una mente ocupada, y fue cierto, durante mis nueve años como sacerdote aquí en Kankakee.

LEGADO. Mientras empacaba mis cosas para mudarme a Elmhurst me vino a la mente una pregunta. ¿Qué es exactamente lo que estoy dejando atrás? Estaba reflexionando sobre esta pregunta, considerando el cambio enorme que ha ocurrido en las iglesias católicas de Kankakee a través de los siglos, y yo estuve justo en medio de ello, como el pastor que tenía que ver a través de todo, discerniéndolo con la gente, rezando por inspiración y sabiduría, y consultándolo con el Obispo y tantas personas que han sido parte del proceso. Tal vez este es mi legado - que nuestra parroquia nació bajo mi pastorado. Pero entonces, recibí una carta de una feligresa que derramó su corazón y me dijo que algo que dije hace muchos años en una de mis homilias la cambió, es decir, que deberíamos estar orgullosos de nuestro Catolicismo. Entonces me puse a pensar de nuevo. Es cierto que seré recordado como en Kankakee como el pastor que cerró las tres iglesias y abrió nuestra parroquia unificadora, contra todo pronóstico, en obediencia al Obispo. Pero lo que espero es ser recordado como el sacerdote que hizo que la gente se enamorara de Dios y de su Iglesia. En realidad, no importa demasiado que la gente me recuerde. Lo que importa es que incluso una persona, sólo una persona, enamorada de Dios y de su Iglesia valdría los nueve años. En cuanto a mí, después de dieciséis años de sacerdocio, he llegado a un punto en mi vida en el que ya no necesito ser recordado. Para algunas personas, esa es probablemente la mejor opción. Pero a medida que me voy de aquí, será mi continua oración que sigan enamorándose más y más de Dios, y de la Iglesia Católica, contra todo pronóstico.

DISCULPA. Como cualquier otro, tampoco puedo evitar mirar mis áreas de fracaso, o quizás algunos momentos en los que sé que mi humanidad dominó el llamado superior que se me confió. No me arrepiento de nada, porque creo que hice todo con sinceridad y discernimiento en la oración, aun así, puedo pensar en momentos en los que la gente fue herida o fue desatendida por mi ministerio, y sólo puedo pedir perdón y compasión. No, no soy perfecto, y también tengo mis anteojerías. Hubo días en los que estaba cansado y abrumado, y tal vez respondí abruptamente, o reaccioné de forma indigna a mi llamado Cristiano. Por favor, perdonen, porque es mi oración, que, al final del día, lo que quede en sus corazones sea la sanación y la paz, para que ya no valga la pena hablar de las cosas feas del pasado.

ESPERANZADO. Al final de este capítulo de mi vida, elijo tener esperanza. Eso es todo lo que tengo para mí, y por eso elijo tener esperanza. El nuevo comienzo de poder servir a otra comunidad me da una sensación de posibilidades refrescantes. Me hace imaginar cómo se sentía San Pablo cada vez que dejaba una comunidad para pasar a otra, en nombre de la proclamación del Evangelio. Ha sido de gran ayuda que muchos de ustedes me hayan enviado palabras de aliento sobre el futuro. Gracias por fortalecer la esperanza dentro de mi alma.

Mi querida familia de San Juan Pablo II, aquí está mi despedida. Y cuando escuchen las palabras SANO, FELIZ Y SANTO, por favor piensen en este sacerdote filipino de vez en cuando, y digan una pequeña oración para que Dios continúe bendiciéndome hasta el día de Su Reino, como yo continuaré rezando por ustedes. Los amo con el amor del Señor. ¡Nos vemos en el cielo!

Su sacerdote, amigo, sirviente y hermano,

Padre Santos "Sunny" Castillo

THANK YOU FOR YOUR PATIENCE... In case you were wondering...

Our St. John Paul II Pictorial Directory was in the proof process when the Corona Virus appeared. At that time the whole company was shut down, we could not reach our reps and emails just gave a basic response back saying they were closed due to the Virus.

The production center has now partially opened and there has been some progress on our directory. After several weeks of no response, we finally had some communication with a representative from the company. We are now going through the proofing process.

We will continue to push forward until we have the directory in our hands.

Sister Mary MacIsaac

Memorial Fund

On May 1st, Sr. Mary MacIsaac, Congregation of Notre Dame, CND, passed away in New York.

As many of you know, during her recent years a St. John Paul II Parish, Sr. Mary engaged in many activities with parishioners and community members. Her work included interpretation services for Hispanic patients at the Azzarelli Outreach Clinic, development of a Congregation of Notre Dame Associate group, and weekly visits to the Jerome Combs Detention Center to pray with the many immigrants as they departed for their homelands. Her radiant smile touched all she encountered.

Did you know that Sr. Mary had also served St. Martin of Tours Parish as the School Principal from 1953-1958. At that time, she was known as Sister Laura Marie.

In 1964, Sr. Laura Marie and three other CND sisters were sent to the first CND mission in Guatemala. They were met by villagers who had waited more than three hours out in the cold, and were greeted with applause and shouts of “Viva la Madres”, along with fireworks, streamers and a procession. Sr. Laura Marie/Sr. Mary stayed there for 37 years, spending much of her time assisting in a village health clinic.

When Sr. Mary returned to the Kankakee area, she was delighted to find that she could be of serve at the Azzarelli Clinic. In honor of her devotion to her missionary service, a Memorial Fund for the Azzarelli Outreach Clinic has been established.

If you would like to make a donation, please send a check to the clinic and mark in the memo: Sr. Mary Memorial Fund.
