Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

As I listen to the Gospel this weekend, I find it important to first remember that we need God to be saved. We can live in eternity only by being united in the depths of our being to the one who is eternal: God. In today's Gospel, Jesus tells us that it is God who opens the door to salvation. And for whom does He open the door? Jesus tells us: for those whom He recognizes. One might question: doesn't God know all of us? Who would He not recognize? He is looking for those who look like Him, who is love. He is seeking those who have sought Him in their daily lives and strived to know Him, love Him, and follow Him. He opens the door to those who have opened the doors of their hearts to God and neighbor. We are called to do more than know about God; rather, we are called to know God and live out this relationship, this friendship with God, in our daily lives. We are to love Him through prayer, our participation in the sacraments, and works of charity and mercy. We are called to live in union with God, relying on His grace and mercy, loving Him throughout our lives and being loved by Him. Let us together, as one family in faith, as the Church, continue to open the doors of our hearts to the Lord. May we grow in union with God on earth so that together we may enjoy that unity forever in heaven.

As the school doors open, we commend our students and teachers to the Lord. May they grow in wisdom and grace. Know of my prayers for all of you, and please continue to pray for me and one another.

In Christ,
Fr. Matt

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo:

Al escuchar el Evangelio este fin de semana, encuentro importante que recordemos primero que necesitamos a Dios para ser salvados. Podemos vivir en la eternidad solamente estando unidos en lo más profundo de nuestro ser al que es eterno: Dios. En el Evangelio de hoy, Jesús nos dice que es Dios quien abre la puerta a la salvación. ¿Y para quién abre la puerta? Jesús nos dice: para aquellos a quienes Él reconoce. Tal vez nos preguntamos: ¿Acaso Dios no nos conoce a todos? ¿A quiénes no reconoce? Él está buscando a los que se parecen a Él, quien es amor. Él busca a aquellos que lo han buscado en su vida cotidiana y se han esforzado por conocerlo, amarlo y seguirlo. Él abre la puerta a los que han abierto las puertas de sus corazones a Dios y al prójimo. Estamos llamados a hacer algo más que conocer a Dios; más bien, estamos llamados a conocer a Dios y a vivir esta relación, esta amistad con Dios, en nuestra vida cotidiana. Debemos amar a Dios a través de la oración, nuestra participación en los sacramentos y las obras de caridad y misericordia. Estamos llamados a vivir en unión con Dios, confiando en Su gracia y misericordia, amándolo a lo largo de nuestras vidas y siendo amados por Él. Sigamos juntos, como una sola familia en la fe, como Iglesia, sigamos abriendo las puertas de nuestro corazón al Señor. Que crezcamos en unión con Dios en la tierra para que juntos podamos disfrutar de esa unidad para siempre en el cielo.

Mientras se abren las puertas de las escuelas, encomendamos a nuestros estudiantes y maestros al Señor. Que crezcan en sabiduría y gracia. Sepan de mis oraciones por todos ustedes y por favor continúen orando por mí y unos por otros.

En Cristo,
Padre Mateo
