“A prophet is not without honor except in his native place and among his own kin and in his own house.”

“Todos honran a un profeta, menos los de su tierra, sus parientes y los de su casa”.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

This past Monday, the First of July, was the seventh anniversary of the establishment of the Parish of St. John Paul the Second. It also marked the beginning of my fifth year as your pastor, for which I am truly grateful. It is a great joy to be your priest and be a part of this parish. I understand that the transition into a new parish has not been without difficulties. As a community, we will inevitably experience conflicts or bear with one another each other's hardships. However, I can confidently echo the sentiments of St. Paul in our second reading that the grace of God, in which we boast and find strength, is present. God is at work in our lives and in our parish. Our unity, our strength, and our light are found in the Lord, who is present among us. I love saying Mass for you. There is nothing more glorious than when we are together at the altar of the Lord. The packed church on Corpus Christi and the procession that followed filled my heart with joy. I am grateful to witness your love for one another at the food pantry, medical clinic, and clothing closet, as well as in your daily acts of kindness and your charitable works and prayers throughout the year. Your devotion and love of our Lord shine brightly. May our union in our Lord continue to bring us together in faith, hope, and charity. Our patron saint, Pope St. John Paul II, spoke well of the unity of the parish being expressed in our Lord present in the Holy Eucharist:

It is necessary that in light of the faith all rediscover the true meaning of the parish, that is, the place where the very "mystery" of the Church is present and at work... The parish is not principally a structure, a territory, or a building, but rather, "the family of God, a fellowship afire with a unifying spirit"(Lumen Gentium, 28), "a familial and welcoming home" (John Paul II, apostolic exhortation Catechesi Tradendae, 67), the "community of the faithful"(Code of Canon Law, Can. 515, par. 1. 80). Plainly and simply, the parish is founded on a theological reality, because it is a Eucharistic community (Cf. Propositio 10). This means that the parish is a community properly suited for celebrating the Eucharist, the living source for its upbuilding and the sacramental bond of its being in full communion with the whole Church. (see Pope St. John Paul II, Christifideles Laici, 26)

May the Eucharist continue to draw us together and aflame our hearts with the fire of the love of God. All of the love in the world combined pales in comparison to the love of Christ contained in each and every holy communion. Know of my daily prayers for you, and please continue to pray for me and one another.

In Christ,
Fr. Matt

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo:

El pasado lunes, primero de julio, se cumplió el séptimo aniversario del establecimiento de la Parroquia de San Juan Pablo II. También marcó el comienzo de mi quinto año como párroco, por lo cual estoy muy agradecido. Es una gran alegría ser su sacerdote y ser parte de esta parroquia. Entiendo que la transición a una nueva parroquia no ha estado sin dificultades. Como comunidad, inevitablemente experimentaremos conflictos o soportaremos las dificultades de los demás. Sin embargo, puedo expresar con confianza los sentimientos de San Pablo en nuestra segunda lectura de que la gracia de Dios, en la que nos gloriamos y encontramos fuerza, está presente. Dios está obrando en nuestras vidas y en nuestra parroquia. Nuestra unidad, nuestra fuerza y nuestra luz se encuentran en el Señor, que está presente entre nosotros. Me encanta ofrecer la misa por ustedes. No hay nada más glorioso que cuando estamos juntos ante el altar del Señor. La iglesia llena el Domingo de Corpus Christi y la procesión que siguió llenaron mi corazón de alegría. Estoy agradecido de ser testigo de su amor mutuo en la despensa de alimentos, la clínica médica y el armario de ropa, así como en sus actos diarios de bondad y sus obras caritativas y oraciones durante todo el año. Su devoción y amor por nuestro Señor brillan intensamente. Que nuestra unión en nuestro Señor continúe uniéndonos en la fe, la esperanza y la caridad. Nuestro santo patrono, el Papa San Juan Pablo II, habló bien de la unidad de la parroquia expresada en nuestro Señor presente en la Sagrada Eucaristía:

Es necesario que todos volvamos a descubrir, por la fe, el verdadero rostro de la parroquia; o sea, el «misterio» mismo de la Iglesia presente y operante en ella... La parroquia no es principalmente una estructura, un territorio, un edificio; ella es «la familia de Dios, como una fraternidad animada por el Espíritu de unidad» (Lumen Gentium, 28), es «una casa de familia, fraterna y acogedora» (Juan Pablo II, exhortación apostólica Catechesi Tradendae, 67), es la «comunidad de los fieles» (Código de Derecho Canónico, can. 515, párr. 1. 80). En definitiva, la parroquia está fundada sobre una realidad teológica, porque ella es una comunidad eucarística (Cf. Propositio 10). Esto significa que es una comunidad idónea para celebrar la Eucaristía, en la que se encuentran la raíz viva de su edificación y el vínculo sacramental de su existir en plena comunión con toda la Iglesia. (ver Papa San Juan Pablo II, Christifideles Laici, 26)

Que la Eucaristía continúe uniéndonos y encendiendo nuestros corazones con el fuego del amor de Dios. Todo el amor del mundo combinado palidece en comparación con el amor de Cristo contenido en cada sagrada comunión. Conozcan mis oraciones diarias por ustedes y continúen orando por mí y por los demás.

En Cristo,
Padre Mateo
