"Bringing Jesus to Everyone and Everyone to Jesus"

A NOTE FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,
Our Gospel reading this weekend begins, “Jesus told his disciples a parable about the necessity for them to pray always without becoming weary.” In our first reading we hear about how Moses became weary during battle as the Israelites found success only when Moses held his hands up in prayer. When he became tired, Aaron and Hur placed a rock for Moses to sit on and supported his hands. Sometimes in life, we can grow tired and find it difficult to raise our hands in prayer. Persevere. Don’t give up on prayer, whether it be during the Mass or your personal prayers each day. We have a great gift: the support of the sacraments of the Church and the People of God, our brothers and sisters in Christ. I also pray that when a friend grows tired, we support them not only by praying for them and assisting them with what they need, but also by lifting their hands up in prayer, by praying with them. May we continue to grow as a community who prays together. I invite you to say an extra prayer with a family member or a friend this week. It could be grace before meals or a rosary (or a decade of the rosary). It could be seeing somebody having a bad day and letting them know that you will say a prayer for them. Maybe it is even asking somebody to pray for you or somebody close to you.

Pope Saint John Paul II reminded us:

> Yes, dear brothers and sisters, our Christian communities must become genuine "schools" of prayer, where the meeting with Christ is expressed not just in imploring help but also in thanksgiving, praise, adoration, contemplation, listening and ardent devotion, until the heart truly "falls in love". Intense prayer, yes, but it does not distract us from our commitment to history: by opening our heart to the love of God it also opens it to the love of our brothers and sisters, and makes us capable of shaping history according to God's plan. (Novo Millenio Ineunte, 33)

May we continue to grow as a people of prayer, as a people who love the Lord our God and our brothers and sisters. Know of my prayers for you. If you ever have a special request for prayers, feel free to ask me, and let us continue to lift each other up in prayer at the holy Mass and in our daily prayers.

In Christ,
Fr. Matt

UNA NOTA DEL PÁRROCO

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo:
El Evangelio de hoy comienza: "En aquel tiempo, para enseñar a sus discípulos la necesidad de orar siempre y sin desfallecer, Jesús les conto esta parábola." La primera lectura, cuenta cómo Moisés se cansó durante la batalla cuando los israelitas encontraban éxito solo cuando Moisés levantaba sus manos en oración. Cuando se cansó, Aaron y Hur colocaron una roca para que Moisés se sentara y apoyaron sus manos. A veces en la vida estamos cansados y tenemos dificultades para levantar nuestras manos en oración. ¡Perseveren! No dejen la oración. Durante la misa o sus oraciones personales cada día, no la dejen. Tenemos un gran regalo: el apoyo de los sacramentos de la Iglesia y del Pueblo de Dios, nuestros hermanos y hermanas en Cristo. Yo espero también que cuando un amigo se cansa, podamos apoyarle rezando por él y ayudándole con lo que necesita, levantando sus manos en oración, rezando con él y por él. Que sigamos creciendo como una comunidad que reza juntos. Les invito a rezar una oración extra con un miembro de la familia o un amigo esta semana, tal vez una oración antes de comer o un rosario (o una década del rosario). Cuando ven a alguien teniendo un mal día, le informen que rezarán por él. Tal vez pueden pedirle

El Papa San Juan Pablo II nos recordó:

> Sí, queridos hermanos y hermanas, nuestras comuni dades cristianas tienen que llegar a ser auténticas “escuelas de oración”, donde el encuentro con Cristo no se exprese solamente en petición de ayuda, sino también en acción de gracias, alabanza, adoración, con templación, escucha y viveza de afecto hasta el « arreba to del corazón. Una oración intensa, pues, que sin embar go no aparta del compromiso en la historia: abriendo el corazón al amor de Dios, lo abre también al amor de los hermanos, y nos hace capaces de construir la historia según el designio de Dios. (Novo Millenio Ineunte, 33)

Que sigamos creciendo como personas de oración, como personas que aman al Señor nuestro Dios y a nuestros hermanos y hermanas. Conozcan mis oraciones por ustedes. Si tienen una petición especial, infórmenme. Estoy alegre de rezar por ustedes. Sigamos levantando a cada persona en oración en la misa y en nuestras oraciones diarias.

En Cristo, Padre Mateo

No weary praying.

In the Exodus story, Mosess help to be constant in prayer. Throughout Saint Luke's gospel, Jesus prays early and often, alone and with others. Like Moses on the hill and like the persistent widow in today's parable, no weary praying is faithful praying.

- With whom will I pray for the benefit of others?
- If I don't how and when will I pray every day? If I do, how will I continue?
- What help do I need to be persistent in prayer?

When you buy from a mom or pop business, you are not helping a CEO buy a third vacation home

You are helping a little girl get dance lessons, a little boy get his team jersey, a mom or dad put food on the table, a family pay a mortgage, or a student pay for college.

OUR CUSTOMERS ARE OUR SHAREHOLDERS, AND THEY ARE THE ONE THAT WE STRIVE TO MAKE HAPPY.

Thank you for supporting the little man!
