"Bringing Jesus to Everyone and Everyone to Jesus"

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

This weekend, we celebrate the feast day of our patron saint, St. John Paul II. I have always been greatly inspired by him. He was a priest for the whole world. I remember seeing him when I studied in Rome in 2002 and at the World Youth Days. Even in his advanced years, there was something special about him. He generously lived for the Lord and the Church. In 1979, my grandfather framed a picture of Pope John Paul II from his visit to Chicago that year and then hung that picture in their home. That picture hangs in my office today. I would like to share with you a part of Pope Benedict XVI's homily at the funeral Mass for Pope John Paul II to give you a glimpse of Karol Wojtyla, the priest from Poland who became Pope Saint John Paul II:

Follow me – as a young student Karol Wojtyla was thrilled by literature, the theatre, and poetry. Working in a chemical plant, surrounded and threatened by the Nazi terror, he heard the voice of the Lord: Follow me! In this extraordinary setting he began to read books of philosophy and theology, and then entered the clandestine seminary established by Cardinal Sapieha. After the war he was able to complete his studies in the faculty of theology of the Jagiellonian University of Kraków. How often, in his letters to priests and in his autobiographical books has he spoken to us about his priesthood, to which he was ordained on 1 November 1946. In these texts he interprets his priesthood with particular reference to three sayings of the Lord. First: "You did not choose me, but I chose you. And I appointed you to go and bear fruit, fruit that will last" (Jn 15:16). The second saying is: "The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep" (Jn 10:11). And then: "As the Father has loved me, so I have loved you; abide in my love" (Jn 15:9). In these three sayings we see the heart and soul of our Holy Father. He really went everywhere, untiringly, in order to bear fruit, fruit that lasts. "Rise, Let us be on our Way!" is the title of his next-to-last book. "Rise, let us be on our way!" – with these words he roused us from a lethargic faith, from the sleep of the disciples of both yesterday and today. "Rise, let us be on our way!" he continues to say to us even today. The Holy Father was a priest to the last, for he offered his life to God for his flock and for the entire human family, in a daily self-oblation for the service of the Church, especially amid the sufferings of his final months. And in this way he became one with Christ, the Good Shepherd who loves his sheep. Finally, "abide in my love:" the Pope who tried to meet everyone, who had an ability to forgive and to open his heart to all, tells us once again today, with these words of the Lord, that by abiding in the love of Christ we learn, at the school of Christ, the art of true love. (Cardinal Ratzinger, 8 April 2005)

Let us stay close to Christ, remain faithful to Him, and live generously for our Lord, His Church, and one another. St. John Paul II, pray for us!

In Christ,
Fr. Matt

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo:

Este fin de semana celebramos la fiesta del santo patrón de nuestra parroquia, San Juan Pablo II. Él me ha inspirado mucho; era sacerdote para todo el mundo. Recuerdo haberlo visto cuando estudié en Roma en 2002 y en las Jornadas Mundiales de la Juventud. Incluso en sus años avanzados, había algo especial en él. Vivía generosamente para el Señor y su Iglesia. En 1979, mi abuelo enmarcó una foto del Papa Juan Pablo II de su visita a Chicago ese año y luego la colgó en su casa. Ese cuadro está colgado en mi oficina ahora. Me gustaría compartir con ustedes una parte de la homilía del Papa Benedicto XVI en la Misa funeral del Papa Juan Pablo II para darles una idea de Karol Wojtyla, el sacerdote de Polonia que se convirtió en el Papa San Juan Pablo Segundo:

"Sígueme." Cuando era un joven estudiante, Karol Wojtyla era un entusiasta de la literatura, del teatro, de la poesía. Trabajando en una fábrica química, circundado y amenazado por el terror nazi, escuchó la voz del Señor: ¡Sígueme! En este contexto tan particular comenzó a leer libros de filosofía y de teología, entró después en el seminario clandestino creado por el cardenal Sapieha y después de la guerra pudo completar sus estudios en la facultad teológica de la Universidad Jagellónica de Cracovia. Tantas veces en sus cartas a los sacerdotes y en sus libros autobiográficos nos habló de su sacerdocio, al que fue ordenado el 1 de noviembre de 1946. En esos textos interpreta su sacerdocio, en particular a partir de tres palabras del Señor. En primer lugar, esta: "No me habéis elegido vosotros a mí, sino que yo os he elegido a vosotros y os he destinado para que vayáis y deis fruto, y vuestro permanezca". La segunda palabra es: "El buen pastor da la vida por sus ovejas". Y finalmente: "Como el Padre me amó, así os he amado yo. Permaneced en mi amor". En estas palabras vemos el alma entera de nuestro Santo Padre. Realmente ha ido a todos los lugares, incansablemente, para llevar fruto, un fruto que permanece. "Levantaos, vamos", es el título de su penúltimo libro. "Levantaos, vamos". Con esas palabras nos ha despertado de una fe cansada, del sueño de los discípulos de ayer y hoy. "Levantaos, vamos", nos dice hoy también a nosotros. El Santo Padre fue además sacerdote hasta el final porque ofreció su vida a Dios por sus ovejas y por la entera familia humana, en una entrega cotidiana al servicio de la Iglesia y sobre todo en las duras pruebas de los últimos meses. Así se ha convertido en una sola cosa con Cristo, el buen pastor que ama sus ovejas. Y, en fin, "permaneced en mi amor": el Papa, que buscó el encuentro con todos, que tuvo una capacidad de perdón y de apertura de corazón para todos, nos dice hoy también con estas palabras del Señor: "Habitando en el amor de Cristo, aprendemos, en la escuela de Cristo, el arte del amor verdadero". (Cardinal Ratzinger, 8 de abril de 2005)

Permanezcamos cerca de Cristo y fieles a él, viviendo generosamente para nuestro Señor, su Iglesia y nuestros prójimos. ¡San Juan Pablo II, ruega por nosotros!

En Cristo,
Padre Mateo

Sirach 35:12-14, 16-18 2 Timothy 4:6-8, 16-18 Luke 18:9-14

God Hears

God hears everyone-proud and humble, pushy and contrite. But God wants us to be as the latter in both sets-humble and contrite. Shooting off my mouth and lauding my own good deeds can get in the way of righteous action. We still want to be generous, honest, and fair. We should just let God do the noticing!

- How will I be less pushy and humble?
- How can my prayer be filled with “I love you, God, for _____?”
- How must my prayer say, “I am sorry for _____?”

 Kevin Matthews, one of the most recognized radio personalities in broadcast history, and author of "Broken Mary", will be at our school for a presentation. "Broken Mary" is Matthews' story of his early years in radio (Chicago's The Loop) and stand-up comedy, his successful career, his struggle with MS, his awakening to the dignity of women, and importantly, his chance encounter with a broken statue of Mary left next to a dumpster and all that happened as a result. Told with Matthews' signature good humor, this confession of the brokenness of mankind is touchingly honest, personally inspiring, and full of hope.

Participating individuals are connected with community resources that work on behalf of the immigrant population. The program also works to provide training and educational support to local churches and other community groups regarding immigration-related information. This program is based in DuPage County and serves individuals throughout the Diocese of Joliet.

Gifts to I Will Give You Shepherds, the Diocese of Joliet Seminarian Education Endowment Trust, will ensure the diocese is always able to assist seminarians with their formation. Your gift will make a difference in our Church, and our world, for years to come. It will have a lasting impact on the men preparing to serve as our shepherds, and every parish in our diocese. Throughout their years of priestly ministry, the men your gift helps educate will celebrate the sacraments, provide counsel and preach the Word for the benefit of us all.
