Thirty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time
October 30, 2022

“Zacchaeus, come down quickly, for today I must stay at your house.”

“Bringing Jesus to Everyone and Everyone to Jesus”

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

“Christ yesterday and today, the Beginning and the End, the Alpha and the Omega; all time belongs to him, and all the ages. To him be glory and power through every age and forever. Amen,” prays the priest every Holy Saturday.

As the seasons change and holidays, festivities, and even a new year approach, time seems to move so quickly. Our calendars are filled with events we want to attend and birthdays and anniversaries to celebrate and remember. Time is not simply functional, however; our calendars form our lives. Similarly, the Church has a calendar. Because we form the household of God, our calendar, the Church’s calendar, helps us to celebrate and live out our faith and give glory to God, who is the eternal One who has entered into time so that we can live in eternity.

Regarding the calendar, first, we celebrate with great joy of the feasts of Christmas and Easter, when Christ entered our world and conquered sin and death. The time following them is a joyful continuation of the holy feasts; we call them the Christmas and Easter seasons. The time prior to them are penitential and preparative: Advent and Lent. We prepare for some holy days with novenas, which are nine days of prayer. For example, before Christmas, from December 16th through the 24th, many Hispanic cultures celebrate Las Posadas and Filipinos celebrate Simbang Gabi Masses. Because our Lord conquered sin and death on the first day of the week, every Sunday is set apart as a little Easter, remembering the day of our salvation. Similarly, every Friday should have a penitential aspect. We have certain feast days that are important to us, such as the feast day of St. John Paul II, and holy days of obligation.

The month of November is set aside to remember and pray for those who have died. In the month of November, you are invited to write a name of any loved one who has died in our book of remembrance, and you may place a picture of deceased loved ones on the tables set up on All Souls’ Day in the church, which will remain there for three weeks. Because the Church sets aside this time for the faithful departed, if you visit the cemetery and pray for the faithful departed on any day from November 1st through the 8th, or if you recite an Our Father and the Creed in the church on All Souls’ Day, you can gain a plenary indulgence for those souls in purgatory. It is also spiritually efficacious to have Masses offered for our deceased loved ones and to remember and pray for them throughout the year with a brief prayer, “Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace.” Let us continue to invoke the prayers of the saints as well as remember and pray for those who are on their final journey to our heavenly homeland.

In Christ,
Fr. Matt

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo:

“Cristo ayer y hoy, principio y fin, alfa y omega. Suyo es el tiempo y la eternidad. A él la gloria y el poder, por los siglos de los siglos. Amén,” reza el sacerdote cada Sábado de Gloria.

Mientras cambian las estaciones y se acercan varias fiestas, festividades y un nuevo año; el tiempo parece moverse muy rápido. Nuestros calendarios están llenos de eventos que queremos asistir, cumpleaños y aniversarios para celebrar y recordar. Sin embargo, el tiempo no es simplemente funcional. Nuestros calendarios forman nuestras vidas. La Iglesia es la familia de Dios y tiene un calendario como cada familia. Nuestro calendario nos ayuda a celebrar y vivir nuestra fe y glorificar a Dios, quien es el eterno que ha entrado en el tiempo para que vivamos en la eternidad.

Con respecto al calendario, primero, celebramos con gran alegría las fiestas de la Navidad y la Pascua, cuando Cristo entró en nuestro mundo y venció el pecado y la muerte. Los tiempos que le siguen son una continuación alegre de las sagradas fiestas; le llamamos la temporada Navideña y Pascua. El tiempo anterior a ellos es penitencial y preparatorio: Adviento y Cuaresma. Nos preparamos para algunos días santos con novenas, que son nueve días de oración. Por ejemplo, antes de Navidad, del 16 al 24 de diciembre, muchas culturas hispanas celebran Las Posadas y los filipinos celebran misas de Simbang Gabi. Porque nuestro Señor venció el pecado y la muerte el primer día de la semana, cada domingo se aparta como una pequeña Pascua, recordando el día de nuestra salvación. Del mismo modo, todos los viernes deben tener un aspecto penitencial. Tenemos días santos que son importantes para nosotros, como el día de la fiesta de San Juan Pablo II, y días de obligación.

El mes de noviembre se reserva para recordar y rezar por los que han muerto. También están invitados a escribir el nombre de sus amados fallecidos en nuestro libro memorial y pueden poner una foto de un amado fallecido sobre las mesas el 2 de noviembre, estarán en la iglesia por tres semanas. Porque la Iglesia reserva este tiempo por los fieles difuntos, si visitan el cementerio y rezan por los fieles difuntos en cualquier día del 1 al 8 de noviembre, o si rezan un Padre Nuestro y el Credo en la iglesia en el Día de Todos los Fieles Difuntos, pueden obtener una indulgencia plenaria para esas almas en el purgatorio. También es espiritualmente eficaz ofrecer Misas por nuestros queridos fallecidos, recordarlos y orar por ellos durante todo el año con una breve oración: “Dales Señor el descanso eterno y brille para ellos la luz perpetua. Descansen en paz.” Invoquemos las oraciones de los santos y además recordemos y oremos por aquellos que están en su viaje final a nuestra patria celestial.

En Cristo,
Padre Mateo

Wisdom 11:22-12:2 2 Thessalonians 1:11-2:2 Luke 19:1-10

Up a Tree

In the reading from Wisdom, we hear that God loves everything and everyone. And on them, God shows mercy. In the parable, we hear a story filled with details. Zacchaeus is wealthy, hated, undignified, and short. But Jesus turns his life around by saying, come down from your tree and take me to dinner at your house. Do it "today". And Zacchaeus changes his behavior by becoming generous beyond belief.

- How will I treat this earth and the people on this earth today?
- Where will I go today and what will I climb to see Jesus in action?
- What will I do today to be generous?

IMMIGRANT SUPPORT PROGRAM

DuPage, Will, Kankakee, Ford, Iroquois, Grundy, and Kendall Counties
630-495-8008

The Immigrant Support Program provides advocacy, support, and community outreach for individuals who need emergency services and immigration related support. Participating individuals are connected with community resources that work on behalf of the immigrant population. The program also works to provide training and educational support to local churches and other community groups regarding immigration-related information. This program is based in DuPage County and serves individuals throughout the Diocese of Joliet.

When you buy from a mom or pop business, you are not helping a CEO buy a third vacation home

You are helping a little girl get dance lessons, a little boy get his team jersey, a mom or dad put food on the table, a family pay a mortgage, or a student pay for college.

OUR CUSTOMERS ARE OUR SHAREHOLDERS, AND THEY ARE THE ONE THAT WE STRIVE TO MAKE HAPPY.

Thank you for supporting the little man!
