32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time November 10, 2019

*They can no longer die, for they are like angels;
and they are the children of God
because they are the ones who will rise. Luke 20:36*

*Ya no pueden morir, porque son como ángeles;
y ellos son los hijos de Dios porque ellos son los que se levantan. Lucas 20:36*

"Bringing Jesus to Everyone and Everyone to Jesus!"

WHAT IS MISSIONARY DISCIPLESHIP?

When our Parish Council formulated our parish mission statement, I really appreciated the wisdom underneath it, and was very much enthused by the phrase "Bringing Jesus to everyone, and everyone to Jesus...". It felt like an excellent summary of the things that we do as a parish family.

Today, November 5, 2019, I had a meeting with a group of individuals from the diocesan curia and the deaneries, to talk about how to bring to light the Bishop's Pastoral Letter "Go, He Said..." which was distributed throughout the diocese one year ago. There was a lot of energy among the people present, to talk about being pro-active in responding to the call to missionary discipleship. (PAUSE). Alright, I know the words "Missionary Discipleship" might sound foreign or strange to many of you, my dear parishioners. But if you read my bulletin article last weekend, and if you have read the Bishop's Pastoral Letter, you might already have some basic idea of what we are talking about.

Missionary Discipleship doesn't mean that we have to go to another country or to leave our home and community to convert people to Christ. It means that we are being called to share our faith to others in whatever way we can.

Missionary Discipleship is not about being an all-knowing teacher of the truths of God, but simply being a joyful witness of God's love and grace, at work in the world today, therefore inviting people to discover the same in their own lives. It is about looking into your own faith and discovering how God has worked in your life, and being a witness to that gift.

Missionary Discipleship is not about being perfect and faultless. Rather, it is finding a way for people to fall in love with God, whatever goes on in their life.

Missionary Discipleship is not having to do things on your own. Rather, it is about working with others to bring one another to Christ. It is about sharing your mission with the community, with the parish, with your friends and support groups, with the people that you meet in your ministry, with your own family, with those around you who need to find God in their lives.

Missionary discipleship is about our parishioners generously mentoring our children to the faith. It is about praying with the young people of our parish so that they can be connected with God, and find in Him a loving and compassionate companion in their life's journey. Jacob Levy and Cindy Nichols stood at the Lisieux Center one Friday morning and invited those who went to the clothing closet to pray with them. More than a hundred people later, they are now telling me stories of others who are thanking them and joyfully reporting that their prayers have been answered. That's missionary discipleship.

I got out of that meeting today feeling proud that we have a culture of missionary discipleship in our parish, but there is so much more to be done. If you want to know more, and how, and what else, you are welcome to have a cup of tea or coffee with me, and we can talk about it. I am looking for missionary disciples who want to share this dream with the Bishop, and with those who were there today in that meeting.

The Church needs you and me. Now more than ever, our Church needs people who are willing to be bold in proclaiming the Kingdom, because so many people need to hear it, including those who come to us at mass on Sundays, and those whom we never ever see walk through our doors. May God bless our efforts to BRING JESUS TO EVERYONE and EVERYONE TO JESUS. Amen.

With devotion and gratitude,
Fr. Sunny Castillo

¿QUE ES DISCIPULADO MISIONERO?

Cuando nuestro Concilio Parroquial formuló la declaración de la misión parroquial, yo de verdad aprecié la sabiduría contenida, y me sentí muy entusiasmado por la frase "Llevando a Jesús a todos, y todos a Jesús..." Sentí que era un excelente resumen de lo que hacemos en nuestra familia parroquial.

Hoy, 5 de noviembre 2019, tuve una reunión con la curia (equipo) de la diócesis y de los diarios, para aclarar la Carta Pastoral del Obispo "Vayan, Él Dijo..." la cual fue distribuida por toda la diócesis hace un año. Había mucha energía entre la gente allí presente, para hablar en cómo ser por-activo al responder a la llamada al discipulado misionero. (PAUSA). Está bien, yo sé que las palabras "Discipulado Misionero" pueden sonar extrañas para muchos, mis queridos feligreses. Pero si leyeron mi artículo anterior, y si han leído la Carta Pastoral del Obispo, quizá tengan alguna idea básica de lo que estamos hablando.

Discípulos Misioneros no significa que tenemos que ir a otro país o irnos de casa y comunidad para convertir a la gente a Cristo. Quiere decir que estamos siendo llamados a compartir nuestra fe con otros de cualquier manera que podamos.

Discípulos Misioneros no es un maestro sábelo todo de las verdades de Dios, pero simplemente un testigo alegre del amor y la Gracia de Dios, en el trabajo el día de hoy, por lo tanto, invitar a las personas a descubrir lo mismo en sus propias vidas. Es mirar en tu propia vida y descubrir como Dios ha trabajado en tu vida y ser un testigo de ese regalo.

Discípulos Misioneros no es ser perfectos y sin culpa. Mas bien es trabajar con otros para llevar el uno al otro a Cristo. Es compartir tu misión con la comunidad, con la parroquia, con tus amigos, con los grupos de apoyo, con las personas que conoces en tu ministerio, con tu propia familia, con los que están a tu alrededor quienes necesitan encontrar a Dios en sus vidas.

Discípulos Misioneros son nuestros feligreses que generosamente son mentores en la fe de nuestros niños. Es rezar con nuestros jóvenes de la parroquia para que puedan estar conectados con Dios, y encontrar en El un compañero amoroso y compasivo para el camino de su vida. Jacob Levy y Cindy Nichols estuvieron en el Centro Pastoral Lisieux un viernes por la mañana e invitaron a los que fueron al clothing closet a orar con ellos. Más de cien personas después, me están platicando historias de que les están agradeciendo y reportando alegremente que sus oraciones han sido contestadas. Eso es discípulos misioneros.

Hoy salí de esa reunión sintiéndome orgulloso de que tenemos una cultura de discípulos misioneros en nuestra parroquia, pero hay mucho más que hacer. Si quieres saber más, como y que más, son bienvenidos a tomar una taza de té o café conmigo, y podemos hablar de ello. Estoy buscando discípulos misioneros quienes quieren compartir este sueño con el Obispo y con quienes estuvieron allí hoy en esa reunión.

La Iglesia nos necesita a ustedes y a mí. Ahora más que nunca, nuestra Iglesia necesita personas que estén dispuestas a ser enérgicos en proclamar el Reino, porque muchos necesitan escucharlo, incluyendo quienes vienen a misa los domingos, y a quienes no volvemos a ver entrar por la puerta. Que Dios bendiga nuestros esfuerzos para TRAER A JESUS A TODOS Y TODOS A JESUS. Amen

With devotion and gratitude,
Fr. Sunny Castillo

"O St. Bakhita, assist all those who are trapped in a state of slavery; Intercede with God on their behalf so that they will be released from their chains of captivity...Provide comfort to survivors of slavery and let them look to you as an example of hope and faith."
USCCB, Prayer to St. Josephine Bakhita

Oh, Santa Bakhita, ayuda a todos los que están atrapados en la esclavitud; en nombre de ellos, intercede ante Dios para que sean liberados de las cadenas de su cautiverio...Brindales Alivio a los que sobreviven la esclavitud y permite que ellos te vean como modelo de fe y esperanza."
USCCB, Oración a Santa Josefina Bakhita
