"They can no longer die, for they are like angels; and they are the children of God because they are the ones who will rise."

"Bringing Jesus to Everyone and Everyone to Jesus"

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

During the month of November, as we near the end of the year, witness the passing of autumn and the coming of winter, and prepare for Advent and Christmas, the Church draws our attention to the four last things: death, judgment, heaven, and hell. These are not your typical topics of casual conversation, but they remind us of what is important. This world is transitory. The glory of the world is fleeting, but the glory of God is everlasting—His mercy endures forever, and His love is without end. God is the source of life and happiness. In a world where empires rise and fall, economies ebb and flow, and war and peace fluctuate, the one thing that remains certain is God, who is love, the author of life, and the fount of grace and mercy.

St. Francis of Assisi, one of the great saints of the Church and known for his radical love of God, neighbor, and creation, often implored his religious brothers to meditate on death. He did so not to frighten them, but to help them remember the purpose of life. What gives our lives purpose and will ultimately fulfill us is the love of God, which has been revealed on the cross of Christ, is received through the sacraments, and will be fulfilled in heaven. We need not fear death, suffering, and persecution, because our Lord Jesus Christ has conquered them. By His cross and resurrection, Christ destroyed death and restored life. He has come so that we may have life and have it abundantly. So let us look to the Lord of heaven and earth and strive to remain in union with God so that remaining in Him here on earth we may praise Him forever in heaven. With this in mind, we are encouraged by St. Paul in our second reading, "May the Lord direct your hearts to the love of God and to the endurance of Christ" (2 Thes. 3:5). Keeping our eyes on God, may we turn away from the things that pull us away from God and so follow Him with charity, generosity, mercy, and holiness, uniting ourselves to God here on earth and forever in heaven. Let us also encourage one another and continue to pray for one another and for the faithful departed, and know of my continued prayers for you.

In Christ,
Fr. Matt

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo:

Durante el mes de noviembre, cuando viene el final del año, pasa el otoño y llega el invierno, y nos preparamos para el Adviento y la Navidad, la Iglesia llama nuestra atención a las cuatro últimas cosas: muerte, juicio, cielo, y el infierno. Estos no son temas típicos de conversación casual, pero nos recuerdan lo que es importante. Este mundo es transitorio. La gloria del mundo es pasajera, pero la gloria de Dios es eterna: su misericordia es por siempre y su amor no tiene fin. Dios es la fuente de la vida y la felicidad. En un mundo donde los imperios suben y bajan, las economías bajan y fluyen, la guerra y la paz fluctúan, lo único que permanece seguro es Dios, quien es amor, el autor de la vida y la fuente de la gracia y la misericordia.

San Francisco de Asís, uno de los grandes santos de la Iglesia y conocido por su gran amor a Dios, al prójimo y a la creación, imploraba a sus hermanos religiosos que meditaran sobre la muerte. Lo hizo no para asustarlos, pero para ayudarlos a recordar el propósito de la vida. Lo que nos satisface y da propósito y paz es el amor de Dios, que se ha revelado en la cruz de Cristo, se recibe por medio de los sacramentos y se cumplirá en el cielo. Por la cruz y resurrección de Cristo, él destruyó la muerte y restauró la vida. Él ha venido para que podamos tener vida en abundancia. Entonces, miramos hacia el Señor del cielo y la tierra y luchemos por permanecer en unión con Dios para que viviendo con él aquí en la tierra podamos alabarlo por siempre en el cielo. Con esto en mente, San Pablo nos alienta en nuestra segunda lectura: "Que el Señor dirija su corazón para que amen a Dios y esperen pacientemente la venida de Cristo" (2 Tes. 3: 5). Fijando nuestros ojos a Dios, que nos retiremos de las cosas que nos alejan de Dios y seguirlo con generosidad, amor, misericordia y santidad, uniéndonos con Él aquí en la tierra y por siempre en el cielo. También alentémonos unos a otros, continuemos rezando unos por otros y por los fieles difuntos, conozcan mis continuas oraciones por ustedes.

En Cristo,
Padre Mateo

2 Maccabees 7:1-2, 9-14 2 Thessalonians 2:16-3:5 Luke 20:27-38

What Is This Resurrection?

The burning bush-God of Moses is the God of Abraham and Sarah, of Isaac and Rebekah, of Jacob and Rachel and Leah. Our God, too! And this God is faithful. This god assures us that death is only the end of our beginning. Resurrection that follows is entry to the life we hope and believe is heaven, is being with God face-to-face for ever.

- How am I preparing for death?
- How do I look forward to resurrected life??
- If I were to die tomorrow, what would I do or not do today?

"People's prayers mean the most. Of course, we're eternally grateful for their financial support, but the spiritual support is really the most important."
 - Deacon Jeremy Legrand, Mundelein Seminary

Priests are essential to our Catholic faith, as only these holy men can transform bread and wine into the life-giving Body and Blood of Christ. Although the number of priests has been on the decline for decades, the Diocese of Joliet has been blessed with an abundance of vocations to the priesthood.

Currently, our diocese has 23 men in seminary formation, which costs $50,000 a year per seminarian. To ensure we are always able to support our seminarians both prayerfully and financially, the Diocese of Joliet has launched the I Will Give You Shepherds campaign.

At Masses next weekend, Nov. 12/13, our parish will take up a second collection for this campaign. Gifts will be invested in an endowment designated specifically for seminarian education. Please prayerfully consider supporting this second collection. To learn more about this campaign, or to make a gift online, please go to jolietdioceseappeal.org.

"People who support us become part of the fabric of our lives."
