SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME FEBRUARY 17, 2019

“Blessed are you who are poor, for the kingdom of God is yours.

Blessed are you who are now hungry,

for you will be satisfied.

Blessed are you who are now weeping, for you will laugh.

Blessed are you when people hate you, and when they exclude and insult you, and denounce your name as evil on account of the Son of Man.

Rejoice and leap for joy on that day!

Behold, your reward will be great in heaven.” Luke 6:20-23

“Bringing Jesus to Everyone and Everyone to Jesus!”

INSPIRED, REFRESHED AND BACK

I am writing this bulletin article from home, just a few hours before I leave on an eight-hour bus ride back to Manila, just a few days before my scheduled return to Kankakee. But by the time this is published, I will already be back to the parish.

INSPIRADO, RENOVADO Y DE REGRESO

Escribo este artículo desde mi hogar, ya en unas horas saldré en el autobús y después de ocho horas de camino llegaré a Manila. Y en unos días llegaré a Kankakee. Cuando reciban este boletín, estaré de nuevo en la parroquia.

At the end of my never-long-enough return to the barrio where I was born, my mind already projects forward to what I will be doing on my return. Most of you have no idea what a jetlag from the other side of the world feels like. But I usually do not get a chance to recover from the jetlag, and so please understand that on my first week back, I will usually be hazy minded, for about a week or two, especially in the early afternoon hours. General calculation has it that the adjustment of the body from jetlag is one hour per day. I have fourteen hours to adjust; please do the math.

But even during these hazy days, I have some moments of clarity. You see, just yesterday (February 11), we celebrated the feast of Our Lady of Lourdes, the patroness of our mission chapel here in the barrio. It was celebrated with a mass which I concelebrated with the parish priest of our local church. We also had a simple get-together, with a singing contest for the children and the adults, the coronation of young teens who participated in our little fundraising, and a meal for the community, which my family provided, in thanksgiving for my niece's success this year. I was very happy to celebrate the feast with my own people, especially watching how happy they were to be part of our little community. But even our little community has been divided into smaller neighborhood communities. It is fascinating to see how this model of community works for them. The smaller neighborhood communities are very active, they have their own unique dynamics, they have their own prayer schedules, they also have their turn to do ministry in the church, especially in cleaning and setting up for the masses. They even manage their own tithing donations that are then funneled into the parish through appointed representatives from each neighborhood. I can easily tell that the neighborhood groups are very involved in the life of the church because they feel a sense of belongingness to their own small communities. Ultimately, the parish is very vibrant because each small community is there primarily to give life and richness to the life of the bigger parish. I really admire the concept, and how it works in this part of the world.

I have a feeling that the same model can work in our parish, and I am inspired to brainstorm this model with everyone these days. I am also convinced that we need to revisit the structure of our parish, and how we are doing ministries, in order to adopt to the reality of our parish membership, stewardship and goals. There is much to do, and I am back to continue my God-given work.

I also want to take this opportunity to thank Fr. John Horan, who has diligently shouldered the pastoral and spiritual responsibilities during my absence, and our parish staff and leadership team for their continued generosity in keeping everything well in order. At this point, I have pretty much used all my allotted vacation for this fiscal year. It has all been well spent, and I am grateful for the opportunity. God bless our parish.

With renewed fervor,
Fr. Sunny Castillo

Al final de mi corta estancia aquí en mi vecindad dónde nací, mentalmente ya estoy proyectando actividades. Muchos de ustedes no tienen idea del vuelo y gran cansancio personal después del viaje tan largo desde el otro lado del mundo. Generalmente me recupero después de unas dos semanas, y en las tardes me siento brumoso. La calculación general es que el cuerpo se va recuperando una hora por día, y catorce horas de ajuste.

Pero durante estos días brumosos, tengo momentos de claridad. Por ejemplo, ayer (11 de febrero), celebramos la fiesta de Nuestra Señora de Lourdes, patrona de nuestra capilla misión. Concelebré la misa con el pastor de esta iglesia. Después tuvimos un concurso de cantantes, la coronación de jóvenes que participaron en un levantar de fondos, y una comida para la comunidad preparada por mi familia, en acción de gracias por el éxito de mi sobrina este año. Me sentía muy feliz celebrando esta fiesta con mi propia gente, y ellos muy contentos por ser parte de nuestra pequeña comunidad. Pero esta pequeña comunidad se ha dividido en más pequeñitas comunidades en la vecindad. Me fascina ver cómo este modelo de comunidad trabaja para ellos. Todas las pequeñas comunidades son muy activas, cada una tiene su propia dinámica, su hora de oración, toma su turno en el ministerio a la iglesia, especialmente en la limpieza, y en la preparación para las misas. También manejan sus limosnas por medio de personas que representan cada comunidad en la vecindad. Todos gozan de un sentido de pertenencia en sus pequeñas comunidades. Últimamente, la parroquia está muy vibrante debido a la entrega total de cada pequeña comunidad. En verdad, yo admiro éste concepto, y cómo trabaja en esta parte del mundo.

Yo presiento que éste mismo modelo puede trabajar en nuestra parroquia, y me siento inspirado a ofrecer la oportunidad para tener lluvia de ideas con todos. También estoy convencido que debemos revisar la presente estructura, y cómo vamos en los ministerios, y cómo adoptar la realidad de la membrecía parroquial, responsabilidades y metas. Hay mucho que hacer, y estoy de regreso a continuar mi trabajo encomendado por Dios.

También tomo esta oportunidad para dar gracias al Padre Juan Horan, por tomar las responsabilidades pastorales y espirituales durante mi ausencia, incluyendo a nuestro personal y equipo de liderazgo por su generosidad y por mantener todo en orden. A esta fecha he usado casi todo lo que me es disponible para vacaciones y, estoy muy agradecido. Que Dios bendiga nuestra parroquia.

Con renuevo fervor,
Fr. Sunny Castillo

The St. John Paul II CCW held its annual BUNCO event this past Sunday. This is always a fun afternoon and a great diversion from the cold winter weather.

WORLD YOUTH DAY PANAMA 2019

Parishioner, Lexi Austrig, shared her amazing experience with the Young On Fire group after attending World Youth Day in Panama last month.
Thank you Lexi for your enthusiasm and witness!!

Pope St. John Paul II established World Youth Day in 1985. The first international gathering was held in Buenos Aires, Argentina in 1987.

The purpose of World Youth Day is threefold: a celebration of and putting trust in the young; giving young people a chance to make a pilgrimage; and to give young people a chance to encounter the worldwide Catholic community.

The theme for this year's gathering was taken from Mary's affirmation of God's will in Luke 1:38

“I am the servant of the Lord.

May it be done to me according to your word.”

While at Lewis University, she was involved in many activities and missions sponsored by the college, so after graduating in 2017, Lexi was eager to become involved again and felt a calling to go on this pilgrimage.

She traveled to Panama with Bishop Conlon and 15 others from around the Diocese of Joliet. The week included many opportunities to meet with youth from around the world for praise and worship, adoration, and mass.

On the last day, January 27, Pope Francis celebrated mass in front of about 700,000 excited people!

MEAL MAKERS

Building the Kingdom of God One Meal at a Time

The Meal Makers is a ministry of St. John Paul II, who have been busy preparing and delivering delicious home cooked meals to our elderly, sick, homebound, or challenged parishioners.

Currently 14 women serve in this ministry. We have delivered meals, prayer, and words of encouragement to 15 families. Some, we have visited multiple times.

We are in need of your referrals so as to reach more families in our community! Let us know how we can help brighten the day of someone you know!

Please contact

Cindy Nichols-Meal Makers Coordinator

Friday/Viernes—February 22

9:00 am to 11:45 am

January Statistics:

- # of Households served: 229
- # of persons served: 655
- # of households receiving SNAP: 111
- # of households with children 18 & under: 89
- # of children 18 and under: 200

In spite of the overall reduced service numbers, our SNAP families continue at about 50% of total families served, and families with children constitute about 38% of total families served. We have a lot of adult only households.

This program is staffed by an all volunteer group of dedicated individuals. It is open to Kankakee County residents, but you must show proof of address and are eligible to receive food once a month.

Celebrating our Catholic Diversity at St. John Paul II Parish Black History Month

“My children, our love should not be just words and talk; it must be true love, which shows itself in action”. 1 John 3:18

Mother Mary Elizabeth Lange (1784-1882)

Mother Mary Lange was born in Haiti; her family moved to Cuba where she received an excellent education.

She was the foundress of the Oblate Sisters of Providence in Baltimore. It was the first Catholic religious organization for African American women in the United States.

The Oblate Sisters of Providence were established for the primary purpose of educating black children. She and the Oblate sisters experienced poverty, racism, and severe hardships, but continued the evangelization and education of the black community. Currently, a proposed new Catholic elementary school in Baltimore when built, will be named after Mother Mary Lange.

The Vatican is reviewing Mother Mary's cause for canonization.

February 17, 2019

“Called to serve the people and the common good, civil leaders have a duty to make courageous choices in support of life, especially through legislative measures.” Pope St. John Paul II, Evangelium vitae, 90.

“Llamados a servir a las personas y al bien común, los líderes civiles tienen el deber de hacer decisiones valientes en apoyo a la vida, especialmente a través de medidas legislativas”

San Juan Pablo II, Evangelium vitae, 90.
