“Bringing Jesus to Everyone and Everyone to Jesus!”

HEAVEN IN SMALL PACKAGES

As we have concluded this year's National Catholic Schools Week, I cannot help but just reflect on the gift of the children in our community. They bring so much joy to all of us. Jesus himself said to his disciples, "Let the children come to me and do not hinder them... it is to just such as these that the Kingdom of God belongs." (Matthew 19: 14-15) It is true then that our children are indeed a glimpse of the Kingdom of God. Let me share three of these glimpses I have seen lately.

THE VAIL KIDS. Nathan and Brittany Vail have no idea how much joy their children give to many of us. I have to confess that I am always on the lookout for another moment when Judah and Isaiah are seriously lost in prayer with their eyes closed. I am instantly edified. Last Sunday, I heard one of the twins singing during mass, and I couldn't stop smiling. As the little girls are beginning to discover their voices, I am brought to heaven listening to them play with the sounds they create.

YAEL AND CHUKCHAK. Yael is one of those kids at church whom I have been very close to since he was a toddler. His mom and grandparents always made sure to have me bless him or say hello to him as a child, and through the years, I have bonded with him and his family. But I never knew what was in store until the little girl Yezeni comes into the picture and takes over the whole world. I felt so loved on my birthday when these two kids played a guitar and saxophone to sing me a happy birthday on Facebook. Indeed, the love of children is a taste of heaven, because it is so pure and holy.

HENRY DUVAL. I celebrated Matt and Dana Duval's wedding in 2011, my first one in Kankakee when I became a pastor here. Their son Henry was quite a bundle of joy when he was born, and after church, it has been a tradition that I have to see Henry for a high five or a little chitchat, to tell him to be a good boy or to ask who bought his clothes, which are always on point. Seeing Henry every Sunday at church, I have seen him grow to be connected at mass, thanks to his parents who are regulars in church. Now I just baptized little baby Hannah Williedean, and my new conversation with Henry is "Are you being a good brother?" And like always, the best of the responses that I get is the twinkle in his eyes.

CHILDREN THAT GENUFLECT. When the children return from their Liturgy of the Word, I always watch them walk in. There is something about seeing a child stop to the sanctuary and genuflect that brings joy to my heart. When I see a child do this, I give thanks to the Lord for their parents and for whoever taught them to pay their respect to Christ the King as they enter and leave the church. It gives me hope for the future, and encourages me to keep on bringing children to God. Every Sunday, I get to bless our children for their Liturgy of the Word. At the faith formation, I get to pray with them and interact with them in the hallways. I get to administer the sacraments to them and bless them when they are presented in the church.

I am privileged to have such a sacred platform to reach out to these little ones, and hopefully provide a positive image of the priesthood to them, in a world where doing it can be held suspect. Let us continue to build a culture in our parish where our children can fall in love with God, and grow in holiness and grace. God bless our children. Always child at heart, Fr. Sunny Castillo

EL CIELO EN PEQUEÑOS PAQUETES

Como ya hemos concluido este año la Semana Escolar Nacional Católica, yo no puedo más que reflexionar en el don que son los niños en nuestra comunidad. Son causa de gran alegría para nosotros. Jesús mismo dijo a sus discípulos, "Dejen a esos niños que vengan a mí y no les impidan...es a tal cómo ellos que el Reino de Dios les pertenece." (Mateo 19: 14-15) En realidad son nuestros niños que vislumbran al Reino de Dios. Permítanme compartir tres vislumbres que he presenciado últimamente.

LOS NIÑOS VAIL. Nathan y Brittany Vail no tienen idea en la gran alegría que sus niños nos rinden a muchos de nosotros. Tengo que confesar que siempre estoy por ver a Judah e Isaiah cuando están seriamente en oración con sus ojos cerrados. Me siento instantemente edificado. El domingo pasado oí a uno de los gemelos cantar durante la misa, y me causaba sonrisa. Ellas comienzan a descubrir sus voces, me siento estar en el cielo escuchándolas jugar con sonidos que van creando.

YAEL Y CHUKCHAK. Yael es uno de los niños que he conocido íntimamente desde que andaba gateando. Su mamá y sus abuelos siempre me pedían que lo bendijera o lo saludara desde su niñez, y a través de los años hemos formado un pacto amistoso. Pero nunca me imaginaba lo que me esperaba hasta el día cuando la niñita Yezeni llega a la escena y clama a todo el mundo. Me sentí tan amado en mi cumpleaños cuando estos dos niños tocaron la guitarra y el saxofón y me cantaron feliz cumpleaños por Facebook. En realidad, el amor de los niños es saborear el cielo, porque es tan puro y santo.

HENRY DUVAL. Celebré el matrimonio de Matt y Dana Duval en 2011, cuando recién era pastor aquí en Kankakee. Su hijo Henry era gran alegría cuando nació, y después de misa, era tradición que pasaba unos minutos en pequeña charla diciéndole que fuera buen niño o preguntándole quién había comprado su ropa, que siempre estaba bien vestido. Gracias a sus padres, siempre veía a Henry todos los domingos en la iglesia a donde venían regularmente. Ahora he bautizado a la niñita Hannah Williedean, y mi nueva conversación con Henry es "Eres un hermano bueno?" Y como siempre, su respuesta es un destello en sus ojos.

NIÑOS QUE SE ARRODILLAN. Cuando los niños regresan de su Liturgia de la Palabra, siempre los observo entrar. Hay algo notable al ver a los niños frente al santuario cuando se arrodillan que fomenta alegría en mi corazón. Al ver esto, doy gracias a Dios por sus padres y por aquéllos que los instruyeron a mostrar respeto a Cristo Rey al entrar o salir de la iglesia. Me da esperanza y ánimo hacia el futuro, y traer niños a Dios. Cada domingo, doy bendición a los niños para su Liturgia de la Palabra. En la formación de fe, tengo la oportunidad de rezar con ellos y de tener un intercambio con ellos en los pasillos. Les administro los sacramentos y les doy la bendición cuando son presentados en la iglesia.

Soy privilegiado en tener una plataforma sagrada para tender a estos pequeñitos, y Dios mediante proveer una imagen positiva del sacerdocio, en un mundo donde puede haber sospecha. Continuemos en formar una cultura parroquial donde los niños se enamoren con Dios, y crezcan en santidad y gracia. Dios bendiga a nuestros niños.

Siempre niño a corazón, Fr. Sunny Castillo

PRO LIFE ROSARY LIVING ROSARY

This past Sunday a group of 40 people braved the cold weather to show their love for life by praying the Glorious Mysteries of the Rosary in English and Spanish, giving powerful witness to people driving by. It was a truly Catholic group, attended by parishioners of all ages from St. John Paul II, Maternity BVM, St. Joe's, St. Pat's Youth retreat group, and other Youth Group members with Ken and Michelle Barrie. Thanks to Barb Jepson for the donated banner! The Pro Life Group meets the last Sunday of every month. Our next meeting is February 23rd at 12:30 pm in the Conference Room. If you have questions please call Steve Kelley 815-214-7063 or email skelley13154@hotmail.com.

CATHOLIC SCHOOLS WEEK

Last weekend, Sara Gonzales, a student at Bishop McNamara School spoke about the impact that the school has had on her life.

She transferred from public school two years ago, and feels that her life has been enriched by the teachers, especially her religion teacher, Mrs. Bassett. As a result of her Catholic education, she has learned to look for ways to serve others and become more involved with her church and community.

What to Do When a Friend is Considering Abortion

Read the full version at respectlifeprogram.org/l-o-v-e.

When a woman is facing a difficult pregnancy, the reaction of the first person she tells tends to set the tone for her decision-making. How do we respond in a loving way that is life-affirming for both her and her baby? First, prioritize listening over speaking. Ask her about her feelings, thoughts, values, beliefs, and wants. When her story is fully shared, it is your turn to provide factual information, in a loving and caring way. Encourage her.

Reassure her that she is not alone.

Help her set goals that extend beyond her due date to help her see life beyond her pregnancy. Reassure her that she is not alone, and provide practical support. Pray with her, offering Christ's love at a crucial life-saving and life-defining moment.

Qué hacer si una amiga piensa en abortar

Lee la versión completa en bit.ly/amiga-pensando-abortar-2017.

Cuando una mujer enfrenta un embarazo difícil, la reacción de la primera persona a la que se lo dice suele influir en sus decisiones. ¿Cómo le respondemos de una manera amorosa que exprese la afirmación de la vida para ella y su bebé? Primero, prioriza escuchar en vez de hablar. Pregúntale qué siente, piensa, valora, cree y desea. Luego, tras compartir su historia completa, es el momento de informarle sobre los hechos objetivos, de manera amorosa y delicada. Anímalas. Ayúdala a establecer objetivos más allá del momento del parto, a ver la vida más allá de su embarazo. Reafírmale que no está sola, y préstale apoyo práctico. Reza con ella, y ofrécele el amor de Cristo en un momento crucial para salvar una vida y definir una vida.

Reafírmale que no está sola.
