Jesus took Peter, James, and John and led them up a high mountain apart by themselves.

And he was transfigured before them, and his clothes became dazzling white...

“Bringing Jesus to Everyone and Everyone to Jesus!”

A NOTE FROM THE PASTOR

UNA NOTA DEL PASTOR

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

I hope that Lent is going well for you. Three images in today's Gospel account of the Transfiguration that give us insight into Lent are the mountain, the appearance of Moses and Elijah, and the dazzling white appearance of Jesus.

Jesus took Peter, James, and John with Him up the mountain to pray. The mountain is a symbol of union with God. It was on Mount Sinai where God revealed Himself by name to the Israelites and gave them the Law. The mountain is a place where we are close to the heavens and gain perspective and wisdom. Lent can be compared to climbing the mountain, and our destination, the top, is union with God, which is made possible by the work of Christ on Mount Calvary, where He died for the world's salvation.

After ascending the mountain, the Gospel tells us that Jesus "was transfigured before them, and his clothes became dazzling white, such as no fuller on earth could bleach them. Then Elijah appeared to them along with Moses, and they were conversing with Jesus." Jesus was going to fulfill the Law and the prophets by His Passion, death, and Resurrection, and so He gave the apostles a glimpse of the glory of the Resurrection that was to come after His suffering and death.

Jesus became dazzling white. Through Christ, we have been clothed in Christ and have become dazzling white as well. By baptism, we have been made as pure as snow and given a share in the glory of Christ. When we were baptized, we wore a white garment to symbolize this. On Easter, we remember that we have been washed by the blood of the lamb, Jesus Christ, and so we have been set free from sin and have become children of God and partakers of the glory of the Risen Lord. For this reason, every Easter, we renew our baptismal promises. Of course, Peter wanted to set up tents and remain at the top of the mountain, but we are meant to come down from the mountain and live out that life promised in baptism: one of prayer, peace, joy, and union in Christ.

I encourage you to join us on Sunday and Monday this week at 6pm for the parish mission in the church. Fr. John and I will be presenting on "Finding Peace in Prayer." Know of my prayers for you. Please continue to pray for one another during this Lent.

In Christ,
Fr. Matt

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo:

Espero que les este yendo bien en la Cuaresma. Hay tres temas en el Evangelio de hoy sobre la Transfiguración que nos ayuda entender la Cuaresma: la montaña, la presencia de Elías y Moisés y la deslumbrante apariencia blanca de Jesús.

Jesús llevó a Pedro, a Santiago y a Juan con él a la montaña para orar. La montaña es un símbolo de unión con Dios. En el Monte Sinaí Dios se reveló por su nombre a los israelitas y les dio los diez mandamientos. La montaña es un lugar donde estamos cerca de los cielos y ganamos perspectiva y sabiduría. La Cuaresma se puede comparar con escalar la montaña, y nuestro destino, la cima, es la unión con Dios, que es posible por la obra de Cristo en el Monte Calvario, donde murió Jesús por la salvación del mundo.

Después de ascender la montaña, el Evangelio nos cuenta que "sus vestiduras se tornaron esplendorosamente blancas, con una blancura que nadie puede lograr sobre la tierra. Después se apareció Elías junto con Moisés, y estuvieron conversando con Jesús." Jesús iba a cumplir la ley y los profetas por su Pasión, muerte y Resurrección. Entonces les dio a los apóstoles una visión de la gloria de la Resurrección que vendría después de su sufrimiento y muerte.

Jesús, Moisés y Elías parecieron esplendentes. A través de Cristo, también estamos de esplendor. Por medio de bautismo hemos sido hechos tan puros como la nieve y nuestro bautismo nos ha dado una parte en la gloria de Cristo, simbolizada por la vestidura blanca que llevamos al bautismo. En la Pascua, recordamos que hemos sido lavados por la sangre del cordero, Jesucristo, y hemos sido liberados del pecado, convertidos en hijos de Dios y hechos partícipes de la gloria del Señor resucitado. Por eso cada Pascua renovamos nuestras promesas bautismales. Por supuesto, Pedro quería hacer tres chozas y quedar en la cima de la montaña, pero estamos destinados a bajar de la montaña y vivir la vida prometida en el bautismo: una vida de oración, paz, gozo y unión en Cristo.

Les animo a reunirse con nosotros el domingo y lunes de esta semana a las 6 pm para la misión parroquial en la iglesia. Padre John y yo haremos la presentación sobre "Encontrando la Paz en la Oración". Estoy rezando por ustedes y por favor sigan orando los unos por los otros.

En Cristo,
Padre Mateo

Second Sunday of Lent

Genesis 22:1-2,9a,10-13,15-18 Romans 8:31b-34 Mark 9:2-10

Listen to Him

One week into Lent, we are simply told by the voice from the cloud: Listen to Jesus. He told us last Sunday to "believe in the gospel." What does belief in this Good News look and sound like this Lent, this year?

- Since we are descendants of Abraham, how am I to behave with my cousins (that is, everyone)?
- Since we are sisters and brothers in the Lord Jesus Christ, to whom do I listen? What am I told?
- Since I am so "beloved", what will I do?

THANK YOU GRACIAS

A BIG Shout-Out to our St. John Paul II Catholic Parish's Young on Fire Youth Ministry and Confirmation teens for making over 170, "Gifts of Love" friendship bracelets & keychains with a medal of Mary, Jesus, a Cross, or Saint. Hot Chocolate packets and encouraging messages were attached and given to our community members who shop at Our Shepherd's Closet & Food Pantry, those who visit Azzarelli Clinic, and for many children who attended Mass on Valentine's Day. A special thank you to parishioners and neighbors who donated supplies and to the families of our Young on Fire youth who dedicated time in creating & printing the beautiful gift tags and supporting this service project's completion at home.

God Bless You!!
