*Then he said to them,
“Why are you troubled?
And why do questions arise in your hearts?*

*Look at my hands and my feet, that it is I myself.
Touch me and see, because a ghost does not have flesh and bones as you can see I have.”*

A NOTE FROM THE PASTOR

UNA NOTA DEL PASTOR

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

In our Gospel this weekend, we hear that the risen Lord appeared to the Apostles and “opened their minds to understand the Scriptures. And he said to them, ‘Thus it is written that the Christ would suffer and rise from the dead on the third day and that repentance, for the forgiveness of sins, would be preached in his name to all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses of these things.’” You are witnesses of these things. The Apostles saw Christ risen in the flesh. Jesus even ate in front of them. He was not a ghost. The Apostles saw the risen Lord and were able to understand what the resurrection meant when they received the Holy Spirit on Pentecost. From that day on, they incessantly preached the Good News near and far. Their witness was constant and authentic. They did not teach, sanctify, and lead for profit, and nor was it the popular or easy thing to do. They suffered persecutions, imprisonment, and even martyrdom. Why did they persevere? Because they were convicted, and they were strengthened and guided by the Holy Spirit. The Apostles saw with their own eyes that Lord has truly been raised. Christ has conquered sin and death and has given us the gifts of the Holy Spirit, grace, and eternal life. The promise of heaven awaits.

So today we recall that we have received such a precious gift: the faith handed down to us from the Apostles. Through the ministry of the Apostles, they handed down what they had received: not just teachings, but also the Holy Spirit, the same Holy Spirit that descended upon them on Pentecost. The Holy Spirit is at work through the Church and in the sacraments. We profess this during the creed when, after professing faith in the Holy Spirit, we profess our belief in the one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church.

Let us take this time to ask the Risen Lord to renew our faith so that we can be authentic and joyful witnesses to the Good News. Christ has truly been risen. Alleluia!

In Christ,
Fr. Matt

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo:

En nuestro Evangelio de este fin de semana, escuchamos que el Señor resucitado se apareció a los Apóstoles y “les abrió el entendimiento para que comprendieran las Escrituras y les dijo: ‘Está escrito que el Mesías tenía que padecer y había de resucitar de entre los muertos al tercer día, y que el arrepentimiento, para el perdón de los pecados, sería predicado en su nombre a todas las naciones, comenzando por Jerusalén. Ustedes son testigos de esto.’” Ustedes son testigos. Los Apóstoles vieron a Cristo resucitado en carne. Jesús comió delante de ellos. No era un fantasma. Los apóstoles vieron al Señor resucitado y pudieron entender lo que significaba la resurrección cuando recibieron el Espíritu Santo en Pentecostés. Desde ese día, predicaron incesantemente la Buenas Nuevas cerca y lejos. Su testimonio era constante y auténtico. No enseñaban, santificaban, ni lideraban con fines de lucro, y tampoco fue algo popular o fácil de hacer. Sufrieron persecuciones, encarcelamientos y martirio. ¿Por qué perseveraron? Porque estaban convencidos, y fortalecidos y guiados por el Espíritu Santo. Los Apóstoles vieron con sus propios ojos que el Señor verdaderamente ha resucitado. Cristo ha vencido al pecado y la muerte, y nos ha dado los dones del Espíritu Santo, la gracia y la vida eterna. La promesa del cielo espera.

Por eso hoy recordamos que hemos recibido un don tan precioso: la fe que nos han transmitido los Apóstoles. A través del ministerio de los Apóstoles, transmitieron lo que habían recibido: no solo enseñanzas, sino también el Espíritu Santo, el mismo Espíritu Santo que descendió sobre ellos en Pentecostés. El Espíritu Santo actúa a través de la Iglesia y en los sacramentos. Profesamos esto durante el credo cuando, después de profesar la fe en el Espíritu Santo, profesamos nuestra fe en la Iglesia que es una, santa, católica y apostólica.

Aprovechemos este momento para pedir al Señor Resucitado que renueve nuestra fe para que podamos ser testigos auténticos y gozosos de las Buenas Nuevas. Cristo realmente ha resucitado. ¡Aleluia!

En Cristo,
Padre Mateo

Third Sunday of Easter

Have You Anything to Eat?

We long to be fed at the table of the Lord. We hunger to eat and drink his Body and Blood. If we can go to the church this day-what a joy! If we can't, we can still follow the gospel injunction: Look and touch. We can look for Jesus everywhere-because that is where he is. We can still touch Jesus in the persons who are near-because that is also where he is.

- ◆ How will I look for and see Jesus every day?
- ◆ How will I touch Jesus, either really or virtually, in touching another?
- ◆ How will I do these mercy works: feed the hungry, give drink to the thirsty?

Welcome Ben Clark and Jake Hansen to the family of St. John Paul II Parish. Both of them received the sacraments of First Holy Communion and Confirmation at the Easter Vigil. God Bless You!

Welcome Sr. Immaculée Nyirasuku!!!!

I was born and raised in Rwanda, Africa. I entered the congregation of Missionary Sisters of the Holy Family in Zambia, Africa. My most recent assignment was in Florida for the last 7yrs., 6yrs. in the Diocese of St. Augustine, and last one year in the Orlando Diocese. I am thankful to my wonderful community of sisters here. I thought leaving a sunshine state would be hard, but I am very excited to join JP11 as I was right away overwhelmed by the warm welcome from Fr. Matt, Fr. John, your amazing Parish Staff and some of the parishioners that I have already managed to meet. It is not hard to see the love you have for my sisters, now it makes sense why some of them have been here forever. My outside apostolate will involve working as an Intensive Care RN at St. Mary's Hospital, volunteering as a Nurse practitioner at Azzarelli Outreach Clinic, and God knows what else my superiors have in mind for me all for His Greater Glory. I look forward to meeting and working with everybody. Thank you and God bless you.
