“Bringing Jesus to Everyone and Everyone to Jesus”

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Jesus Christ is risen! He is risen indeed! Alleluia! Suffering and death cannot keep our Lord from loving us and calling us to rejoice in His presence for eternity. The light of Christ has conquered the darkness, and our Lord desires to shine upon us now and forever.

On that first Easter Sunday, two of our Lord's disciples were filled with doubt and confusion. They witnessed the Passion and death of Christ, and they heard about the Resurrection, but they did not understand. So they decided to walk to a nearby town called Emmaus. While on their way, as they conversed and debated, the Risen Lord, their teacher, joined them, but they did not recognize Him. As He spoke to them, their hearts were burning within them, and then they recognized Jesus in the Breaking of the Bread, the Eucharist (see Lk 24:13-35). That same day, that first Easter Sunday, Jesus also appeared to the Apostles who fearfully hid themselves in a locked room. Jesus breathed on them the Holy Spirit, telling them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained" (Jn 20:22-23). This is the sacrament of Penance and Reconciliation (confession). Why are the sacraments of the Eucharist and Penance/Reconciliation a part of that first Easter Sunday? Because our Lord is alive, and He reveals to us that He continues to give Himself to us in the Eucharist as well as forgive us through confession. These are real experiences of the Risen Lord. The sacraments aren't our actions, but they are Christ's actions through the Church. Our Lord made us with bodies and souls, and love is not abstract—it is recognizable and experienced. In today's Gospel, on that first Sunday after Easter Sunday, St. Thomas experienced Christ's presence and witnessed the marks of God's love. His doubt was overcome with belief and he cried out "My Lord and my God!" Let us continue to be aware of Christ's presence and mercy given to us through the sacraments. Let us receive Jesus with devotion and love.

We celebrate this Sunday as Divine Mercy Sunday. I encourage you to attend the holy hour with Divine Mercy devotions this Sunday, April 24th, at 2pm in Spanish and at 6:30pm in English. Let us continue to stay close to our Lord and remember one another in prayer.

In Christ,

Fr. Matt

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo,

¡Cristo ha resucitado! ¡En verdad ha resucitado! ¡Aleluia! El sufrimiento y la muerte no pueden impedir el amor de nuestro Señor y él nos atraiga hacia su presencia por la eternidad. La luz de Cristo ha vencido las tinieblas de pecado y del mundo y nuestro Señor desea brillar su amor y gracia sobre nosotros ahora y para siempre.

En el primer domingo de Pascua, dos discípulos de nuestro Señor estaban llenos de duda y confusión. Ellos eran testigos de la Pasión y muerte de Cristo y oyeron de la Resurrección, pero no la entendieron. Decidieron caminar al pueblo de Emaús. Cuando estaban en camino, mientras conversaban y discutían, el Señor Resucitado, su maestro, se les acercó, pero no lo reconocieron. Mientras él hablaba, sus corazones ardían y luego reconocieron a Jesús al partir el pan, la Eucaristía (cf Lc 24:13-35). En el mismo día, el primer Domingo de Pascua, Jesús también se apareció a los Apóstoles que se ocultaron con miedo en la casa. Jesús sopló sobre ellos, diciéndoles: "Reciban el Espíritu Santo. A los que les perdonen los pecados, les quedarán perdonados; y a los que no se los perdonen, les quedarán sin perdonar" (Jn 20:22-23). Este es el sacramento de la Penitencia y la Reconciliación. ¿Por qué la Eucaristía y la Confesión forman parte de la historia de la Pascua de la Resurrección del Señor? Porque nuestro Señor es vivo y él sigue dándose a nosotros en la Eucaristía y perdonándonos por medio de la confesión. Estos sacramentos son experiencias auténticas del Señor resucitado. Los sacramentos no son nuestras acciones; son las acciones de Cristo por medio de la Iglesia. Nuestro Señor nos creaba con cuerpos y almas y el amor no es abstracto: es reconocible y experimentado. En el Evangelio de hoy, en el domingo después del Domingo de Pascua, Santo Tomás experimentó la presencia de Cristo y fue testigo de las señales del amor de Dios. Su duda fue superada con creencia y clamó "¡Señor mío y Dios mío!" Estemos conscientes de la presencia de Cristo y la misericordia que nos han dado por medio de los sacramentos. Recibámoslos con devoción y amor.

Celebramos este domingo como Domingo de la Divina Misericordia. Les animo a asistir a la hora santa con devociones de la Divina Misericordia este domingo 24 de abril a las 2pm en español y a las 6:30 pm en inglés. Sigamos estando cerca de nuestro Señor resucitado y recordándonos unos a otros en oración.

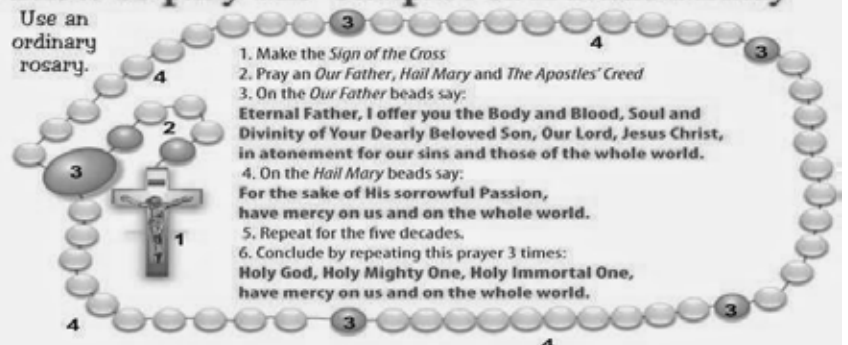

En Cristo,

Padre Mateo

Divine Mercy Sunday

April 24, 2022

Acts 5:12-16 Revelation 1:9-11a, 12-13, 17-19 John 20:19-31

Standing in Our Midst

Sometimes we just want proof. The words and witness of others is not always enough. Even when we do not ask for Jesus to come, he comes to us, just as he did to the disciples in the upper room. He is with us still, with us now, extending mercy and peace.

- What signs do I see of Christ being present, being with us, being with me?
- How can I extend Christ's Easter greeting of peace to others?
- How will I be an ambassador of mercy? What work will I do this week?
