HOLY SUMMER, ANYONE?

Being in a parish like ours, there are so many things that happen in a daily and weekly basis, that many times, it is hard to keep track of everything. Thank God, we have excellent and reliable parish leaders, staff and ministry coordinators that make things work smoothly, even with the least supervision necessary. Having said that, from my end as your pastors, there are some details that always seem necessary to be shared for one reason or another. As we come to the end of this fiscal year, allow me to share some of these.

PARISH COUNCIL. The parish pastoral council has been very helpful to me for their work of advising, providing feedback, making initiatives to build bridges for the community and serving as liaison between me and the rest of the parish. The council has recently expressed that we need more Hispanic parishioners in the council, in order to integrate the parish better, and to foster collaboration and unity within the various sectors of our parish. What a great idea! We hope to begin a more bi-cultural parish pastoral council in the beginning of the new fiscal year.

15TH ANNIVERSARY CONCERT. Many of you know that I have celebrated my 15th year as a priest. I was encouraged to have a concert at the parish where I celebrated my first mass, my home parish, at St. Isidore in Bloomingdale. Tickets are now available for the concert, and it will benefit the Support Group for Filipino Seminarians (SGFS), a parish-based initiative that fostered my vocation when I arrived here in the United States back in 2000. Their work continues as more Filipino seminarians are arriving to help in the dioceses of the United States. SGFS is currently sponsoring five Filipino seminarians, with minimal funding. I invite you to the concert, to celebrate the gift of priesthood, and to support the seminarians. Flyers and tickets are available in the parish office.

MAMA IS ARRIVING. The last time my mom Elma visited me here in the USA was in 2015, before all the integration of parishes took place. She will be seeing realities here in Kankakee, different from what she has seen in the past. Her arrival is actually on June 26, which is this coming Wednesday. Needless to say, I am super excited and thankful. Please pray for her safe travel. Leaving mom in the Philippines was the biggest sacrifice I had to make when I came to the USA, and her visits have been among the greatest consolations. God is good!

DEAN OF THE KANKAKEE DEANERY. The Bishop called me on my day off this past week, and talked to me about my appointment as dean of the Kankakee Deanery of priests. This falls on my lap because there are a number of transitions of priests in our area parishes, and so I accepted the responsibility on a “per year” basis. Please pray for me that the good Lord may give me the strength to carry this responsibility graciously.

HOLY SUMMER. During our last meetings, I have asked people: “What would make your summer months holy?” For me, what would make my summer holy is to enter into some intimate, enriching, and holy conversations with parishioners and friends. During the summer months, I would love to take time and not feel rushed to move from one conversation to another, just like how it happens in my office during the busier months. I invite you, my dear parishioners, to engage in good conversations with people around you, taking your time to enter into a communion of souls with them. For me, this is what will make my summer weeks/months holy. God bless you all!

Staying happy, healthy, and holy,
Fr. Sunny Castillo

VERANO SANTO, ¿PARA ÁLGUIEN?

En una parroquia como la nuestra, hay muchas cosas que suceden diariamente, que muchas veces es difícil estar al tanto de todo. Gracias a Dios, por nuestros líderes que son excelentes y dignos de confianza, igualmente como el personal y los ministros coordinadores, todos trabajando muy bien sin ser supervisados. Desde mi consideración pastoral, hay algunos detalles que es necesario revisar y compartir a fines del año fiscal, permitanme compartir lo siguiente.

CONCILIO PARROQUIAL. Nuestro concilio pastoral ha sido una gran ayuda para mí por sus consejos y pensares realizando iniciativas que efectúan puentes para la comunidad, para mí y el resto de la parroquia. Recién, el concilio ha expresado la necesidad de tener más representación hispana, para mejorar la integración parroquial y fomentar colaboración y unidad dentro de varios sectores de la parroquia. ¡Muy buena idea! Ésto se actualizará a principio del año fiscal.

CONCIERTO DEL 15 ANIVERSARIO. Muchos saben que he celebrado mis 15 años de sacerdocio. Me han animado a tener un concierto en mi primer parroquia dónde celebré mi primera misa en San Isidoro en Bloomingdale. Ya tenemos boletos para el concierto y las ganancias serán a beneficio al Grupo Apoyador de Seminaristas Filipinos (SGFS), una iniciativa parroquial que fomentó mi vocación cuando llegué a Estados Unidos en 2000 y, continúa hoy día. Los invito al concierto, a celebrar el don de sacerdocio, y al sustento de seminaristas Filipinos. Pidan sus boletos en la oficina parroquial.

MAMÁ ESTÁ POR LLEGAR. La última vez que mi mamá Elma estuvo en USA fue en 2015, antes de la integración de las parroquias. Todo va a ser nuevo para ella. Ella llegará el 26 de junio, que es este miércoles próximo. Es innecesario decir, que me siento sumamente emocionado y agradecido. Favor de orar por ella que tenga un vuelo sano y salvo. Para mí ha sido el sacrificio más grande el dejarla en las Filipinas y, sus visitas a USA han sido de gran consuelo. ¡Dios es bueno!

DECANO DEL ÁREA DE KANKAKEE. El Obispo me llamó en mi día libre la semana pasada, y me habló acerca de mi asignación como decano de sacerdotes en el área de Kankakee. Esto es a causa de un número de transiciones de sacerdotes en nuestras parroquias, y yo acepté la responsabilidad en manera “anual”. Favor de orar por mí, que la bondad de Dios me dé fuerzas para llevar a cabo ésta responsabilidad graciosamente.

VERANO SANTO. En reuniones pasadas, he preguntado a la gente: “¿Que ayudaría en hacer santos estos meses de verano?” Para mí, lo que harían santos estos meses es entrar más íntimamente y enriquecer conversaciones santas con feligreses y amistades. Durante los meses de verano, quisiera tomar suficiente tiempo en conversación individual sin sentirme apurado en conversar con la siguiente persona, como sucede en mi oficina. Los invito mis queridos feligreses en lograr buenas conversaciones y comunión de espíritu unos con otros. Para mí, esto es lo que harán mis semanas y meses de verano santo. ¡Que Dios bendiga a todos ustedes!

Permaneciendo feliz, saludable y santo,

Fr. Sunny Castillo
