“Bringing Jesus to Everyone and Everyone to Jesus”

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

In this Sunday's Gospel, a scholar of the law asked our Lord, "Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?" This is a good question that each of us should ask. Our Lord answered by affirming what was written in the Law and advising the scholar to live it out with mercy and charity, which are foundational to the law. The first thing to remember is that this is about eternal life. Our faith is about eternal life. When we put our faith into action through the reception of the sacraments, prayer, and a life of virtue, we end up receiving and giving: we receive the mercy and love of God as well as practice mercy and charity in our daily lives.

As I prepared to be installed as the second pastor of our parish on Friday, I thought a lot about the impact of parish life on my own life and how it has helped me to experience and practice charity. This past Fourth of July weekend, I celebrated with my family in Romeoville. As I watched the village fireworks with my family in the church parking lot, I realized that most of the momentous occasions in my life and friendships I have made in Romeoville have been through my home parish, St. Andrew the Apostle. Some of the friendships started in the third grade at the Catholic grade school. Others took shape through the high school youth group. The parish was always a home away from home for my family and myself. Even when on vacation, we attended Mass at the local Catholic church. I have always felt at home in the church, even if the language of the Mass or the people were different. After all, the church leads us to our true homeland in heaven and unites us together in the love of God. This is a part of the mission of the Church: to unite us in the mercy, charity, and love of God. I encourage you to look at the parish through this lens. How powerful it is when families and neighbors experience the love of God through the sacraments and community of the Church. How wonderful it is when we grow closer to God together. I am grateful for the gift that my home parish has been in my life. May we continue to make our parish a gift for generations to come. Let us be intentional in inviting others, sharing it with others, and being active in the life of the parish so that we can together grow in mercy and love on our journey to our heavenly homeland.

Know of my continued prayers for all you. Please continue to pray for me and one another.

In Christ,
Fr. Matt

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo,

En el Evangelio de este domingo, un doctor de la ley le preguntó al Señor: "Maestro, ¿qué debo hacer para conseguir la vida eterna?". Esta es una buena pregunta que todos deberíamos preguntar. Nuestro Señor respondió afirmando lo que estaba escrito en la ley y aconsejándolo a vivir la ley con misericordia y caridad, que son fundamentos de la ley. Lo primero que hay que recordar es que el propósito es la vida eterna. Nuestra fe nos lleva a la vida eterna. Cuando ponemos nuestra fe en acción a través de la recepción de los sacramentos, la oración y una vida de virtud, recibimos y damos: recibimos la misericordia y el amor de Dios y practicamos la misericordia y la caridad en nuestra vida diaria.

Mientras me preparaba para ser instalado como el segundo párroco de nuestra parroquia el viernes, pensé mucho sobre el impacto de la vida parroquial en mi propia vida y como me ha ayudado a experimentar y practicar la caridad. El pasado fin de semana del 4 de julio, celebré con mi familia en Romeoville. Mientras miraba los fuegos artificiales de la comunidad con mi familia en el estacionamiento de la iglesia, me di cuenta de que la mayoría de las ocasiones importantes de mi vida y las amistades que he hecho en Romeoville han sido a través de mi parroquia de hogar, San Andrés Apóstol. Algunas de las amistades comenzaron en tercer grado en la escuela primaria católica. Otros tomaron forma a través del grupo de jóvenes de la escuela secundaria. La parroquia siempre era un hogar para mi familia y para mí. Incluso cuando estábamos de vacaciones, asistíamos a misa en la iglesia católica local. Siempre me he sentido como en casa en la iglesia, incluso si el idioma de la misa o la gente eran diferentes. Después de todo, la iglesia nos lleva a nuestra verdadera patria en el cielo y nos une en el amor de Dios. Esta es parte de la misión de la Iglesia: unirnos en la misericordia, la caridad y el amor de Dios. Les animo a mirar a la parroquia a través de estos ojos. Es poderoso cuando las familias y los vecinos experimentan el amor de Dios a través de los sacramentos y la comunidad de la Iglesia. Es maravilloso cuando nos acercamos más a Dios juntos. Estoy agradecido por el regalo que mi parroquia de hogar ha sido en mi vida. Que sigamos haciendo de nuestra parroquia un regalo para las generaciones. Seamos intencionales al invitar a otros, compartirlo con otros y ser activos en la vida de la parroquia para que juntos podamos crecer en misericordia y amor en nuestro viaje a nuestra patria celestial.

Sepan de mis continuas oraciones por todos ustedes. Por favor continúen orando por mí y unos por otros.

En Cristo,
Padre Mateo

Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

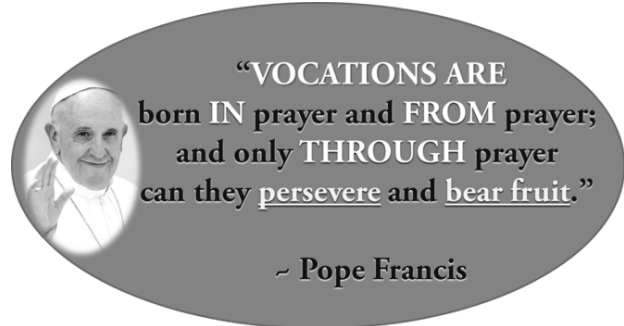

July 10, 2022

Deuteronomy 30:10-14 Colossians 1:15-20 Luke 10:25-37

Loving means acting

In the First Reading, Moses pleads for us to heed the voice of God-it is not that hard. In the Gospel, a scholar poses two worthy questions to Jesus. How do I get to heaven? What do I do and with whom do I do it to get there? Jesus tells a story to provoke suitable answers. The good Samaritan, this good foreigner, puts the natives to shame. He has the right motive-compassion. It causes him to act with mercy.

- When will I set aside time each day to heed God's voice?
- What will I do and not do to keep my sights on heaven?
- Since love is to act, whom will I treat with mercy today?

You are helping a little girl get dance lessons, a little boy get his team jersey, a mom or dad put food on the table, a family pay a mortgage, or a student pay for college.
