"Bringing Jesus to Everyone and Everyone to Jesus"

A NOTE FROM THE PASTOR

UNA NOTA DEL PÁRROCO

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

This Sunday's readings remind us to work for that which is lasting and eternal: heaven. The joy of living forever in union with God is our true treasure. At the end of the day, this is our calling: to be saints. Each and every one of us is called to be holy, and so when we make decisions and examine our actions, it is good to ask: does this lead me closer to Christ, closer to heaven? Heaven is not merely a last stop. Rather, it is the fulfillment of a life in union with God. When we die with Christ, we can rise with Him. Let us stay close to our Lord and cultivate a life of virtue and love. When we fall into sin, let us receive the grace of reconciliation in the confessional. On life's journey, let us receive strength and nourishment from the holy Eucharist. Let us turn to our Lord each day in prayer. As St. Paul says in our second reading, "Think of what is above, not of what is on earth. For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ your life appears, then you too will appear with him in glory." Let us stay close to our Lord and follow Him each day and forever.

Let us also remember in prayer the faculty, students, and alumni of Bishop McNamara Catholic School, which is celebrating this weekend its one hundredth anniversary with a special Mass at St. Patrick Catholic Church in Kankakee with Bishop Hicks. May our school continue to form our children in an educational environment that is rooted in knowing, loving, and following Christ. Please continue to pray for our school and one another, and know of my prayers for you always.

In Christ,
Fr. Matt

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo:

Las lecturas de este domingo nos recuerdan a trabajar por lo que es duradero y eterno: el cielo. La alegría de vivir para siempre en unión con Dios es nuestro verdadero tesoro. Últimamente, ser santos es nuestro llamado. Todos y cada uno de nosotros estamos llamados a ser santos, y cuando tomamos decisiones y examinamos nuestras acciones, es bueno preguntar: ¿esto me lleva más cerca de Cristo, más cerca del cielo? El cielo no es simplemente una última parada. Más bien, es el cumplimiento de una vida en unión con Dios. Cuando morimos con Cristo, podemos levantarnos con él. Quedémonos cerca de nuestro Señor y cultivemos una vida de virtud y amor. Cuando caigamos en pecado, recibamos la gracia de la reconciliación en el confesionario. En el viaje de la vida, recibamos fuerza y alimento por la sagrada Eucaristía. Volvamos a nuestro Señor cada día en oración. Como dice San Pablo en nuestra segunda lectura, "Pongan todo el corazón en los bienes del cielo, no en los de la tierra, porque han muerto y su vida está escondida con Cristo en Dios. Cuando se manifieste Cristo, su vida, entonces también ustedes se manifestarán gloriosos juntamente con él." Acerquémonos a nuestro Señor y sigámoslo cada día y para siempre.

Recordemos también en oración a los profesores, estudiantes y ex alumnos de la Escuela Católica Bishop McNamara, que celebra este fin de semana su centenario con una misa especial en la Iglesia Católica de San Patricio en Kankakee con nuestro obispo, Monseñor Hicks. Que nuestra escuela continúe formando a los jóvenes en un ambiente educativo que tenga sus raíces en conocer, amar y seguir a Cristo. Continúen orando por nuestra escuela y unos por otros, y sepan de mis oraciones siempre por ustedes.

En Cristo,
Padre Mateo

Ecclesiastes 1:2; 2:21-23 Colossians 3:1-5, 9-11 Luke 12:13-21

About being greedy

Every day, it seems, we are faced with two dilemmas: what we want and what we need. Our grasping for wants, our desire to amass more things, more money, more prestige, etc. can eat us up. Ecclesiastes declares the hunger for property is a mere wisp, a puff of wind, a vanity. Jesus is more direct: guard against all greed. What we need, really, are the things of God. And in grasping the things of God, we grasp onto God-and thereby are rich.

- What do I want? Make a list.
- In checking that list, what do I need? Really need?
- Check the corporal works of Mercy. How can I give up some of my wants to give to someone in need?

When you buy from a mom or pop business, you are not helping a CEO buy a third vacation home

You are helping a little girl get dance lessons, a little boy get his team jersey, a mom or dad put food on the table, a family pay a mortgage, or a student pay for college.

OUR CUSTOMERS ARE OUR SHAREHOLDERS, AND THEY ARE THE ONE THAT WE STRIVE TO MAKE HAPPY.

Thank you for supporting the little man!
