“Bringing Jesus to Everyone and Everyone to Jesus”

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

First, congratulations to Deacon George Arocha! He is a member of our parish and, after years of preparation, was ordained a deacon this weekend. His Mass of Thanksgiving is this weekend at the 9:30 a.m. Mass, and he will be serving our Lord and His Church here at St. John Paul II Parish. Let us continue to remember Deacon George in our prayers.

As I listen to the Gospel this weekend, I find it important to first remember that we need God to be saved. We can live in eternity by being united in the depths of our being to the one who is eternal: God. In today's Gospel, Jesus tells us that it is God who opens the door to salvation. And for whom does He open the door? Jesus tells us: for those whom He recognizes. One might question: doesn't God know and love all of us? Who would He not recognize? He is looking for those who look like Him, who is love. He is seeking those who have sought Him in their daily lives and strived to know Him, love Him, and follow Him. He opens the door to those who have opened the doors of their hearts to God and neighbor. We are called to do more than know about God; rather, we are called to know God and live out this relationship, this friendship with God, in our daily lives. We are to love Him through prayer, our participation in the sacraments, and works of charity and mercy. We are called to live in union with God, relying on His grace and mercy, loving Him throughout our lives and being loved by Him. Let us together, as one family in faith, as the Church, continue to open the doors of our hearts to the Lord. May we grow in union with God on earth so that together we may enjoy that unity in heaven for all eternity.

As the school doors open, we commend our students and teachers to the Lord. May they grow in wisdom and grace. Know of my prayers for all of you, and please continue to pray for me and one another.

In Christ,
Fr. Matt

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo:

Primero, ¡felicidades al Diácono George Arocha! El es miembro de nuestra parroquia y, después de años de preparación, fue ordenado diácono este fin de semana. Su misa de acción de gracias es este fin de semana en la Misa de las 9:30 a. m., y estará sirviendo a nuestro Señor y aquí en su Iglesia la Parroquia de San Juan Pablo II. Sigamos recordando al Diácono George en nuestras oraciones.

Mientras escuchamos el Evangelio este fin de semana, hay que recordar primero que necesitamos a Dios para ser salvados. Podemos vivir en la eternidad por medio de estar unidos en lo más profundo de nuestras almas al que es eterno: Dios. En el Evangelio de hoy, Jesús nos dice que es Dios quien abre la puerta a la salvación. ¿Y para quién abre la puerta? Jesús nos dice: por aquellos a quienes él reconoce. Entonces preguntamos: ¿Hay personas que Dios no conoce? Él conoce a los suyos y está buscando a aquellos que han buscado a Dios en su vida diaria y lo han conocido, amado y seguido. Él abre la puerta a los que han abierto las puertas de su corazón a Dios y al prójimo. Mas que saber sobre Dios, estamos llamados a conocer a Dios y vivir esta relación, esta amistad con Dios, en nuestras vidas diarias. Debemos amar a Dios a través de la oración, nuestra participación en los sacramentos y las obras de caridad y misericordia. Estamos llamados a vivir en unión con Dios, confiando en su gracia y misericordia, amándolo a lo largo de nuestras vidas y siendo amados por él. Sigamos juntos, como una sola familia en la fe, como Iglesia, abriendo las puertas de nuestros corazones al Señor. Que crezcamos en unión con Dios en la tierra para que juntos podamos disfrutar de esa unidad en el cielo por toda la eternidad.

Mientras se abren las puertas de la escuela, encomendamos a nuestros estudiantes y maestros al Señor. Que crezcan en sabiduría y gracia. Sepan de mis oraciones por todos ustedes y por favor continúen orando por mí y los unos por otros.

En Cristo,
Padre Mateo

The Season of Creation spans five weeks between the World Day of Prayer for the Care of Creation (September 1) and the Feast Day of St. Francis of Assisi (October 4)

This "time for creation" offers, in the words of Pope Francis, "individual believers and communities a fitting opportunity to reaffirm their personal vocation to be stewards of creation, to thank God for the wonderful handiwork which he has entrusted to our care, and to implore his help for the protection of creation as well as his pardon for the sins committed against the world in which we live."

Are Only a Few to be Saved ?

It is not uncommon for someone to ask us: "Have you been saved?" Often, they are looking for one fixed date, one specific event. But we know these truths. (1) We are saved everyday-because of God's grace. (2) God chooses to save everyone-me and them. (3) Salvation is strengthened by working for justice, by living merciful lives.

- How will I acknowledge that I am being saved by Christ every day?
- How will I cherish that everyone is saved-even those people I do not like but need to still love?
- What mercy work does this summon me to do this week?

When you buy from a mom or pop business, you are not helping a CEO buy a third vacation home

You are helping a little girl get dance lessons, a little boy get his team jersey, a mom or dad put food on the table, a family pay a mortgage, or a student pay for college.

OUR CUSTOMERS ARE OUR SHAREHOLDERS, AND THEY ARE THE ONE THAT WE STRIVE TO MAKE HAPPY.

Thank you for supporting the little man!
